

them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid) from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer taken, collected, levied, or received; or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so revived or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken:

And whereas the said Corporation of Trinity-house have proposed to alter and reduce certain rates now collected by them, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, for ballast supplied to vessels in the West India Dock, and have proposed that the same rate of charge be established for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks; His Majesty, in virtue of the powers vested in him by the above-recited Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to signify His Royal assent to and confirmation of the said proposed reduction of the rate of charge for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, to the same rate as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Foreign-Office, October 29, 1833.

The King has been graciously pleased to appoint John Macpherson Grant, Esq. (sometime attached to His Majesty's Legation at Madrid) to be Secretary to His Majesty's Legation at the Court of Her Most Faithful Majesty.

Foreign-Office, October 29, 1833.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of Mr. Thomas Harling, jun. as Consul at Cowes for the Grand Duke of Mecklenburgh Schewrin.

Whitehall, October, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that divers riotous and evil-disposed persons, on Thursday the 24th day of October, at the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, riotously and tumultuously assembled themselves together to disturb the public peace, and then and there unlawfully and riotously rescued divers goods and chattels there lawfully distrained for certain assessed taxes then due and in arrear, and at the time of such rescue in the lawful custody of the officer of the Sheriff distraining the same;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons engaged in the said offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who personally were engaged in the said rescue) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, October 29, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 15th day of October instant, or early on the following morning, some evil-disposed person or persons feloniously broke open the dwelling-house of Mr. Scott, the bailiff of the Right Honourable Lord Montagu, at Ditton-park, Bucks, situated within the moat, and attempted in two different places to set it on fire, by means of a quantity of gunpowder taken from a tin box, found in one of the rooms;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who attempted to set fire to the house) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Mr. Scott.

Whitehall, October 22, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about seven o'clock in the evening of Tuesday the 15th day of October instant, Mr. James Wilkinson, of Copley-mills, in Stayley, in the parish of Mottram in Longdendale, in the county of Chester, Cotton-spinner, while proceeding from his dwelling-house, near Copley-mills aforesaid, to his cotton-mill, distant about four hundred yards, was maliciously and feloniously fired at with a gun or pistol, loaded with ball, by some evil-disposed person unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at Mr. Wilkinson) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FOUR HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he,
