FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1833.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of October 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames; and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation; and for other purposes connected therewith;" the said Corporation are authorised and empowered from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament therein recited, or any of them; or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively; or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and are further authorised at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished; or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act; and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish, and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, as occasion may require; so as, nevertheless, that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received in respect thereof before the passing of that Act; provided always, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Corporation to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty, his heirs or successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid) from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer taken, collected, levied, or received; or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so revived or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken:

And whereas the said Corporation of Trinity-house have proposed to alter and reduce certain rates now collected by them, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, for ballast supplied to vessels in the West India Dock, and have proposed that the same rate of charge be established for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks; His Majesty, in virtue of the powers vested in him by the above-recited Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to signify His Royal assent to and confirmation of the said proposed reduction of the rate of charge for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, to the same rate as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks.
