Whitehall, October, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that divers riotous and evil-disposed persons, on Thursday the 24th day of October, at the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the County of Middlesex, riotously and tumultuously assembled themselves together to disturb the public peace, and then and there unlawfully and riotously rescued divers goods and chattels there lawfully distrained for certain assessed taxes then due and in arrear, and at the time of such rescue in the lawful custody of the officer of the Sheriff distraining the same;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons engaged in the said offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who personally were engaged in the said rescue) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

Whitehall, October 29, 1833.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 15th day of October instant, or early on the following morning, some evil-disposed person or persons feloniously broke open the dwelling-house of Mr. Scott, the bailiff of the Right Honourable Lord Montagu, at Ditton-park, Bucks, situated within the moat, and attempted in two different places to set it on fire, by means of a quantity of gunpowder taken from a tin box, found in one of the rooms;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of
