

puties, with certain restrictions and Limitations, but the rest would not hear of it.

Hamburg, March 7. They write from Berlin, that the Elector of Brandenburg has not only declared by his Minister at Ratisbonne, and thofe he has at the Courts of several Princes of the Empire, that he thinks the Propofals made by the Count de Crecy the French Plenipotentiary at Ratisbonne, for a general Truce, ought to be accepted, but that he preffes the said Princes to joyn with him, in order to the difpofing the Emperor to accept of the fame. From Denmark they continue to write, of the Preparations that are made on that fide, for the putting a good Fleet to Sea, and an Army of between 20 and 30000 men into the Field. The King of Sweden will likewise have a confiderable Army.

Bruffels, March 10. The Marquis de Grana having received advice, that a Body of 8 or 10000 French were come to Leffines, orders were difpatched to Louvaine, Malines, Liere and Dendermond, for the Dutch Troops that are quartered in thofe places, to march immediately hither, but they were yesterday countermanded, his Excellency being certainly informed, that this Alarm was given by a Party only of 200 French Foot, and 150 Horfe, who had put fome Villages near Leffines under Military execution for not having paid their Contributions, and were again retired. But not to weary out the Troops with fuch kind of Marches, his Excellency has refolved to draw them together, and to encamp them near this place, fo foon as the weather will permit it; and it's faid, that his Excellency does expect 8 or 10000 men more from Holland; and 12000 Germans from the Duke of Hanover; and that with thefe, he doub's not to bring a very good Army into the Field; which he will command himfelf. The States of this Province have refolved to raife and maintain, for two years, a Regiment of Foot, which is to be commanded by the Baron Carlos, a member of the faid States. We begin to expect with great impatience, the Viadore General, who comes by Sea from Spain; and brings with him a very confiderable Sum of Money for the Service of thefe Countries.

Hague, March 14. The States of Holland, who, we told you in our laft, were adjourned for three or four days, re-affembled the ninth inftant, and among other things it was debated, whether they fhould proceed to examine the Papers of the Deputies of Amftterdam, but the Deputies of many of the Towns, declaring they had no fuch Inftuctions from their Principals, a final Refolution was not taken therein; and on the 11th the faid States feperated again, and the feveral Deputies went home to confult their Principals, and will be here again this Evening or to morrow. In the mean time the City of Amftterdam have by their Secretaries, again demanded the Reftitution of their Papers, and Security for their faid Deputies, and have declared that they cannot fend any Deputies to the Affembly, till they have fatisfaction in thefe Points. The States General having written to the States of Frize-land, to acquaint them, that they were fending a Deputation to them, and to defire they would not feperate, till their Deputies were arrived and had laid before them their Commiffion, the faid States have answered, that having difpatched the bufinefs they met about, and finding they had great reafon to abide by the Refolution they had, after mature deliberation taken in the matter of the New Levy, they were going to adjourn, and prayed the States General not to give themfelves the trouble to fend a Deputation to them. However the States General continue in their Refolution of fending the faid Deputation, which will part from hence in few days. The States General have fent orders to the Heer Van Amerongen their Minifter at Berlin, to go to the Court of the Elector of Saxony; but it's thought he will make no long ftay there.

Paris, March 15. We are informed that orders have been fent to the Marfchal de Belfonds, who, we have told you, was appointed to command the Kings Forces on the fide of Navarre to turn towards Catalonia, where, it's faid, the Spaniards have drawn together a Body of 13 or 14000 men. The French Troops that were towards Italy, are come into Dauphine, being ordered for Catalonia, and feveral others are marching that way to joyn 12000 men, which are already on that Frontier. The Kings Journey remains fixed for the 10th of the next month; and among the other Preparations that are making for it, a great many large and ftately Tefts are providing. Our Letters from Venice tell us, that the Fleet which that Republick is fitting out againft the Turks, will confift of 35 Gallies, 10 Men of War, and 4 Galeaffes; and that with thefe will joyn the Gallies of the Great Duke of Tufcany, and thofe of Malsba, Genoua, Sicily and Naples.

Plymouth, March 4. This day came in here two fmall Men of War belonging to Oftend, having been about 14 days abroad.

The Right Honorable the Lords Commiffioners of His Majesties Treafury, hath ordered that the Pensioners belonging to the Chett at Chatham, and all others whom it may concern, fhall have a General Pay on the 14th of May 1684.

His Majesty hath been Gracioufly pleafed to grant to the City of Nottingham, by their new Charter, two new Fairs, the one to begin on the 23th of April, and the other the Firft of November yearly, and to continue for eight days each, for Horfes, Cattle, and all forts of Merchandizes.

His Majesty hath been pleafed to Grant, by his new Charter, to the Town and Port of Sandwich, two new Fairs for fale of all manner of Cattle, the one to begin on the firft day of April, and the other on the firft day of October yearly, and each of them to continue for the fpace of two days.

Advertisements.

MR. Edmund Hally the Elder, went from his Houfe in Wincheftre-ftreet on Wednesday laft, promiffing to return home the fame Evening, but hath not fince returned, and upon all enquiries made after him cannot be heard of, which makes it feared violent hands have been laid upon him. He is a tall man of about fixty years of age, had on a Black Cloth Suit, with an Iron gray Cloth Coat: Whoever gives notice of him to his Wife in Wincheftre-ftreet, fhall have twenty Guineas reward.

A Gentleman robbed the 26th of February laft, between Ighley and Burley in Yorkfhire, by a young man full-faced, and did then wear a gray Hat and brown Coat, of Money, and a Dun coloured Mare about fix years old, with a Cheftnut lift down the Back, fhore tailed, feveral white fports upon the Back under the Saddle, and two white hindmoft feet. Whoever gives notice of the faid Mare to Mr. Warwick a Mercer in Leeds in Yorkfhire, or to Mr. Smeaton a Coffee-houfe-man at the corner houfe in Brook-ftreet Holborn, fhall have all Charges born, and well fatisfied for their pains.

STolen out of Chrift-church Stable in Oxford, on the third Inftant, a dark Iron Gray Gelding, of about 14 hands and a half high, heavy headed, hollow above the Eyes, broad behind, low crested, and marked in the Forehead with fome few gray hairs like unto a Star, he Gallops and Trots, but hath very little of a Pace. He was rode away with a new Curb Bridle, and a new whole skirred black Saddle, having the Seat of Velter and the Skirts of Hogs-skin. Whofoever fhall give notice of him, either at the Buttery of Chrift-Church to the Butler of the Colledge, or to Mr. Edward Phips at the Blew Boars-head in Kings-ftreet, Westminfter, fhall have twenty fhillings for his reward.

STolen from James Farmer of Colcheftre, February 21. a Froft coloured Rone Mare about 14 hands and an inch high, fix years old, her Mane half fhorn, and a fhort Tail, with two Saddle fports, the near hoof behind is crackt over-whart. Whofoever gives notice of the Mare to the faid Mr. Farmer, or Mr. Thomas Phillips Stable-keeper at the Coach and Horfes without Bilhopfgate, London, fhall have twenty fhillings reward.

STraid or ftolen on Thursday night laft, out of the Grounds upon Syon-hill near Brentford, a red Cow of about five or fix years old, with a white Udder, and a white ftroke under her Belly, forward with Calf, a lit in the near Ear, thin horn'd, in very good Cafe: Whofoever gives Intelligence of her to any of Sir Orlando Gee's Servants, at his Houfe upon Syon-hill, fhall have a Guinea for their pains.