The Honourable Robert Henry Clive to be Colonel-Commandant, vice the Earl of Plymouth, deceased. Dated 4th November 1833.

Whitehall, November 2, 1833.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Nathan Clark, of Norton-court, in the county of Gloucester, Gent. His royal licence and authority that he and his issue may assume and take and henceforth use the surname of Dyer only, instead of that of Clark, not only in compliance with a proviso and direction contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, Nathaniel Dyer, late of Bredon, in the county of Worcester, and of Nailsworth, in the said county of Gloucester, Esq. deceased, but also in testimony of his grateful and affectionate respect for the memory of the testator; provided the same be recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has also been pleased to command, that this His royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 19, 1833.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Robert Hillman, of Lyme Regis, in the county of Dorset, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

NAVIGATION IN THE GULL STREAM.

Trinity-House, London, November 5, 1833.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a chequered red and white buoy has been placed about midway between the North and South Brake Buoys, on the eastern side of the Brake Sand, in five fathoms at low water spring tides, with the following marks and compass bearings, viz.

North Foreland Light-house, N. b. E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E.

Gull Light-vessel, S. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  S.

THE undersigned, in the capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the District of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of said District, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.

Firstly.—In the month of June 1834, plantation La Belle Alliance, on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, situate between Plant Richmond on the south, and plantation Lima on the north, the property of the estate of the late Edward Austin.

Secondly.—In the month of June 1834, plantation Retriever, on Lequan Island, Essequibo, between plantation Elizabeth Ann on the east, and plantation Canefields on the west, the property of Edward Dawson.

Thirdly.—In the month of June 1834, plantation Ruimzig, on Hog Island, Essequibo, between plantation L'Henreuse Retraite on the east, and plantation Hope and Vries on the west, the property of the estate of the late I. I. Deiges.

Fourthly.—In the month of July 1834, plantation Vryheid Lust and Sheet Anchor, on the East Coast of Demerary, between plantation Better Hope on the south, and plantation Brothers on the east, the property of the heirs of the late Hendrick Van Cooten.

Fifthly.—In the month of November 1834, plantation Henrietta, on Lequan Island, Essequibo, situate between plantation Phoenix on the east, and plantation Vrows Anna on the west, the property of William Roach.

Sixthly.—In the month of November 1834, plantation Henrietta, on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, between plantation Richmond on the north, and plantation Anna Regina on the south, the property of Gerret Timmerman.

Seventhly.—In the month of November 1834, plantation Orangestein, on the East Bank of the Essequibo River, between plantation Le Destin and Bushy Park, the property of the estate of the late W. W. Kernan and F. Verbeke.

Eighthly.—In the month of November 1834, plantation Fearnot, situate on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, between plantation Sparta on the north, and plantation Coffee Grove on the south, the property of I. Cox and C. R. Lynch.

Ninthly.—In the month of November 1834, the plantation Walton Hall, on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, situate between plantation Exmouth on the north, and plantation Devonshire Castle on the south, the property of the estate of the late Benjamin Kingston.

The judgment of præ et concurrentiæ on the nett proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice three months after the respective days of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest in and to the nett proceeds of the said plantations, are hereby, by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of the said District of Demerary and Essequibo, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attorneys, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of the said District of Demerary and Essequibo, at the Roll-Court, to be holden at the Court-House, in George-Town, as follows: in the month of November 1834, for the plantations La Belle Alliance, Retriever, Ruimzig and Vryheid Lust, and Sheet Anchor; in the month of February 1835, for the plantations Henrietta, Henrietta, Orangestein, Fearnot, and Walton Hall: under a penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventories of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 32, Fenchurch-Street, London, and P. J. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.

Demerary and Essequibo, this 6th September 1833.

SAMUEL D. LANDRY, Deputy First Marshal.
