Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 12th day of November 1833,

Is Twenty-nine Shillings and Four Pence Halfpenny per Hundred Weight,

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

Grocers'-Hall,

November 15, 1833.

*By Authority of Parliament,*THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for incorporating or establishing a Company, to be called the National Cemetery Company, for the purpose of forming secure places of interment for the dead, and for erecting public and private monuments in spaces of ground, consisting of plots of not less than ten acres each, in any of the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, and Essex, and being beyond the distance of three miles from the General Post-office, in the city of London; and it is also intended to take power by the said Acts to entitle the said Company to purchase and hold lands for the purposes above mentioned and enable the said Company to enfranchise copyhold lands and lands held by customary tenure, and particularly to enfranchise a piece of land, consisting of about eighteen acres, situate on a part of Highgate-hill, in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and copyhold of the manor of Cantlowes alias Cantlers, and now in the occupation of Mr. Fernie, or his undertenants.—Dated this 13th day of November 1833.

James Anderton, Solicitor, No. 20, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to continue, alter, and amend the Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the roads leading from Whitechapel-church, in the county of Middlesex, unto, through, and to the end of the several parishes or places of Shenfield, Passingford-bridge, and Woodford, in the county of Essex, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and the several other Acts of Parliament relating to turnpike-roads, and to the bridges and road hereafter mentioned, and to fix the amount which the Stratford Langthorne Abbey land-owners and proprietors shall pay annually to the trustees of the said roads for the repairing and maintaining Bow-bridge and Channelsea-bridge; and also what such owners and proprietors and the several other parties liable to repair Saint Michael's-bridge, Peg's-hole-bridge, and Sir Thomas Dacre's-bridge, in the said county of Essex, and the several foot-bridges at such five bridges, shall pay to such trustees annually for the repairing and maintaining of the same respectively; and the several portions of road, namely, from one hundred yards west of Bow-bridge, in the county of Middlesex, to one hundred yards east of Channelsea-bridge, in the said county of Essex, which the several parties respectively are bound to repair by tenure, prescription, or otherwise; and to authorise the rebuilding, widening, or otherwise improving the said several bridges, and the several approaches to such bridges, and the widening and improving the said roads, and the raising sufficient money for these purposes.—Dated this 26th day of October 1833.

George Dacre, Clerk and Solicitor to the Trustees of the Middlesex and Essex Turnpike-roads.

Turnpike Office, Bow, Middlesex.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for a Bill or Bills embracing the following objects;—1st, to authorise the appointment of a Second or Assistant Chaplain of the House of Correction at Cold Bath-fields, in the county of Middlesex, with power to pay him a suitable salary out of the rates of the said county;—2dly, to enable the Justices of the Peace and of Oyer and Terminer for the county of Middlesex to commence their sessions during term time;—3dly, to give to the general sessions of the peace to be held in and for the county of Middlesex the like powers, in all cases, as those possessed by quarter sessions;—4thly, to alter and amend an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for building a new Bridewell or House of Correction for the city and liberty of Westminster;—5thly, to consolidate and amend the several Acts following, that is to say, an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for the more easy assessing, collecting, and levying of county rates;" an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for empowering the Justices of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at their general or quarter sessions of the peace, to make a fair and equal county rate for the said county;" an Act, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, of His late Majesty King George the Second, for the more easy assessing, collecting, and levying of county rates;" an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for the more easy assessing, collecting, and levying of county rates;" an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, of the last session of Parliament, for the more easy assessing of county rates;" an Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to explain and amend several Acts relating to the assessing, levying, and collecting the county rates;" an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for regulating the office of Treasurer, and altering and amending the Acts now in force for assessing, collecting, and levying of county rates, so far as the same relate to the county of Middlesex;" and an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the several Acts now in force for the assessing, collecting, and levying of county rates, so far as the same relate to the county of Middlesex;" so far as the last-mentioned Acts, or any of them, relate to the county of Middlesex;—and 6thly, to alter and amend an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to repeal certain Acts relating to the removal of poor persons born in Scotland and Ireland, and chargeable to parishes in England, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof, until the 1st day of May 1836, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament," so far as the last-mentioned Act relates to the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 12th day of November 1833.

In the undersigned, Ralph Fenwick, do hereby give notice, that I did, on the 12th day of this instant November, by virtue and in exercise of powers given to me for that purpose by the articles of Copartnership made between me, the said Ralph Fenwick, and John Cory Heard, give to the said John Cory Heard notice in writing, that the said Partnership between us should and would, on the 13th day of this instant November, cease, determine, and be absolutely void: and, in further execution of the said powers, I, the said Ralph Fenwick, do hereby further give notice, that the said Partnership between me and the said John Cory Heard did, from the said 13th day of November instant, cease, terminate, and dissolve.—Dated this 14th day of November 1833.

Ralph Fenwick.

IF the Next of Kin (if any) of Mary Wragg, late of the Parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Spinster, who died some time in the month of August 1794, will apply to Mr. Thomas Cruttwell, Proctor, No. 2, Godliman-Street, Doctors' Commons, London, they will hear of something to their advantage.

IF the Next of Kin of John Riddell, deceased (who was in the Civil Service of the Honourable East India Company on the Madras Establishment, and died on his passage home to England some years since), or his, her, or their legal representative, will apply at the Office of Mr. Moore, No. 10, Great Knight-Rider-Street, Doctors'-Commons, he, she, or they may hear of something to their advantage.

ALL Creditors and Claimants upon the estate of the late John Martyr, formerly of Greenwich, in the County of Kent, but late of the City of Mexico, Esq. deceased, who died on the 11th of August 1826, and whose will was proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, on the 6th of February 1829, are hereby required forthwith to send in the particulars of their debts and claims to Messrs. Smith and Finch, Solicitors, Greenwich, and prosecute the same with all dispatch, otherwise they will be absolutely excluded from all right, title, claim, and demand against the said estate and all benefit thereunder; and the Executors will immediately after the expiration of three calendar months from this notice close the accounts of the said estate, and pay over the net proceeds thereof to the several parties entitled thereto under the Testator's will.—Greenwich, November 12, 1833.

By order of the Executors,
SMITH and FINCH, Solicitors, George-Street, Greenwich.
Major ALEXANDER GORDON LAING, late of the Royal African Corps, deceased.

THOSE Creditors who have not already furnished a statement of their claims against the above estate, are requested to tender in the same to Messrs. A. D. Stewart and Co. No. 26, Parliament-Street, on or before the 25th day of December next, in order that the affairs of the estate may be finally adjusted, and a dividend of all the assets declared, otherwise they will be excluded.—13th November 1833.

Also two other messuages or dwelling-houses fronting to Great Richmond-Street, and adjoining the last-mentioned messuage and shop, on the west side thereof, in the several occupations of Mr. Thomas Bradley and Mr. Thomas Barry.

The above premises are freehold of inheritance, and contain in front to Great Richmond-Street aforesaid, 14 yards, or thereabouts, and in depth backwards 5 yards and 2 feet, or thereabouts.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Registrar's Office, in Preston; and for further particulars application may be made to Messrs. Arison and Son, Solicitors, Cook-Street, or to Mr. Thomas Harvey, Solicitor, Union-Court, Castle-Street, Liverpool; or to Messrs. Heyes and Pemberton, Solicitors, Prescott.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Frances Snelling and others are plaintiffs, and Thomas Humphreys and others are defendants, whereby it was referred to James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who, at the time of the death of Joseph Elson, late of Ramsgate, in the County of Kent, Gentleman (who died in the month of February 1827), was or were his Heirs or Coheirs at Law, and in gavelkind, and his Heir or Coheirs according to the custom of the Manor or Manors whereof the copyhold premises where holden, and whether such Heir or Coheirs are living or dead, and if dead who is or are his or their Heir or Coheirs, in like manner:—therefore, such Heir or Coheirs at Law are forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their heirship, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WAERAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of June 1833, made in a cause wherein Charles Vere Spencer, an infant, by Sir Francis Bernard Morland, Baronet, his uncle and next friend, is the plaintiff, and Mary Ann Bernard Spencer, Widow, and others are the defendants, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire what incumbrances there were affecting the estates, hereditaments, and premises in the pleadings of the said cause mentioned, and in whom the same were vested, and who were entitled to the same. The said estates consist of the Manors or Lordships, or reputed Manors or Lordships, of Wheatfield, North Weston, Standhill, and Tetsworth, in the County of Oxford, and of Marley Park, otherwise Holt Park, in the County of Denbigh. Any person or persons having any incumbrance affecting the said estates, hereditaments, and premises, are, therefore, by their Solicitors, on or before the 16th day of December 1833, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, and support their respective claims by proper evidence, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Lord High Chancellor, bearing date the 29th day of July 1833, it is referred to George Boone Roupell, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to enquire and certify who are the parties entitled to £1,407. 1s. 5d. and £1,138. 7s. 8d. Reduced Bank Annuities, and the dividends thereof, mentioned in the said Order, and what are their rights and interests therein respectively; and whether Charles Joseph Lawrence Bennett, named in the said Order, is or would be a tenant in tail within the true intent and meaning of the Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repealing an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth and fortieth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, in-tituled 'An Act for the relief of persons entitled to entailed estates, to be purchased with trust moneys, and for making further provisions in lieu thereof;' " and whether there are any and what incumbrances affecting the same respectively:—any person or persons, therefore, claiming the said £1,407. 1s. 5d. and £1,138. 7s. 8d. Reduced Bank Annuities, and the dividends thereof, mentioned in the said Order, or any part thereof, or claiming to be incumbrances thereon, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 23d day of November 1833, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Kirby versus Falkener, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Hon. Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire to whom certain legacies, given by the will of John Landon, heretofore of the Parish of St. John, Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased (who died in the year 1775), are respectively payable; and also to enquire whether Jane Catherine Landon, the Testator's widow, made or executed any valid appointment, pursuant to the power contained in the will of the said Testator; and also to enquire to whom the several sums of money, given by such appointment, are now payable.

The will of the said Testator, John Landon, is dated the 14th day of May 1772, and the several legacies thereby given, and which now remain due to the several persons who shall establish their claims thereto, are as follow, namely:

The said Testator gave to such person or persons as his said wife, Jane Catherine Landon, should by her will direct	£ 1000
To his nephew, Daniel Landon, son of his the said Testator's brother, Daniel Landon	500
To his sister in law, Jane De Brissac	50
To his nephew, Sebastian Nash, son of the said Jane De Brissac	50
To his niece, Jane De Brissac	50
To his niece, Elizabeth De Brissac	50
To his sister, Mary Pavis, for her life, and after her decease to be divided amongst her lawful issue	1000
To his brother, Samuel Landon, for his life, and after his decease to be divided amongst his lawful issue	1000
To his niece, Elizabeth Landon, the daughter of his late brother, Daniel Landon, or in case of her death before the Testator's wife, Jane Catherine Landon, then to the lawful issue of the said Elizabeth Landon	100

And the residue of his estate and effects the said Testator gave to such person or persons as his said wife, Jane Catherine Landon, should by her will direct.

The said Jane Catherine Landon died in the year 1832, having made a will, dated the 24th day of August 1821, and which was proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury on or about the 3d day of September 1833, whereby, in exercise of the power given to her by the said Testator's will, she gave several sums of money, to be paid out of the said sum of £1000. and out of the residue of the said Testator's estate.

Therefore, all persons claiming to be entitled to any legacy under the will of the said John Landon; and also all persons claiming to be entitled to any benefit under the will of the said John Landon by virtue of the said will and appointment made by the said Jane Catherine Landon, the widow of the said Testator, pursuant to the power in the will of the said Testator contained, are, on or before the 10th day of December 1833, to come in and prove their claims before the said Master, Lord Henley, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Butterworth versus Robins, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of what was due to the plaintiff, and the several other Creditors of Charles Ward, formerly of Gravesend, in the County of Kent, Attorney at Law, who had signed, or who should come in and sign, a certain indenture of assignment, in the pleadings mentioned, bearing date the 2d day of June 1824, and take the benefit thereof;—therefore, all persons claiming to be entitled to the benefit of the said trust deed are forthwith to come in and make out their claims and prove their debts before the said Master, Lord Henley, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Wilson versus Evans, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, as the Master of the vacation, to enquire and state to the Court whether Charles Wilson, nephew of Anthony Wilson, late of the City of Bristol, Esq. deceased, the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named (and which said Charles Wilson is stated in the said testator's will to be the son of his late brother, John Wilson), is living or dead, and if dead, whether he, the said Charles Wilson, died before or whether he died after the said testator, and who is his legal personal representative; therefore the said Charles Wilson if living, or his legal personal representative if dead, is, on or before the 20th day of December 1833, to come in and make out his claim before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof he will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said testator, Anthony Wilson, died in or about the month of June 1824.

The said Charles Wilson was a native of Swansea, in South Wales, and afterwards resided at Bristol, from whence he sailed in the West India trade, and the last letter received from him was dated at St. Helena, November 3, 1821, in which he stated his arrival on that Island from the Isle of France on the 22d of August preceding, being one of the crew belonging to a trading ship, called the Egfrid, Brown Master, which vessel was sold and broken up at St. Helena. The said Charles Wilson was employed by Mr. Brabazon, Master Attendant of the Port, in assisting to break up the ship, until the 15th day of March 1822, when it is supposed he quitted St. Helena, and has not since been heard of.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Barrow versus Pretor, it was referred to James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of the real estates of Elizabeth Palmer, of West Camel, in the County of Somerset (Widow of the late Reverend John Palmer, of Compton Pouncefoot, in the same County, Clerk, deceased), who died in the month of January 1824, and of the several mortgages, charges, and incumbrances thereon, and what is due in respect thereof, and to whom:—therefore all persons claiming to be Mortgagees of, or to have any mortgages, charges, or incumbrances upon or affecting, the said real estates of the said Elizabeth Palmer, deceased, are, on or before the 12th day of December 1833, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

TO be sold by auction, by T. and H. Brown, by order of the Commissioners in a Fiat in Bankruptcy against Thomas Dodd, at the King's-Head Inn, Coventry, on Thursday the 28th day of November instant, at Six o'Clock in the Evening:

Lot. 1. All that freehold messuage, bakehouse, stable, yard, and garden, with a new erected tenement, occupied as a warehouse, situate in Jordan-Well-Street, Coventry, lately in the tenure of Mr. Thomas Dodd, deceased, and now of the said Thomas Dodd, the Bankrupt.

These premises are in front 21 feet, and extend backwards 150 feet, and possession may be had on completion of the purchase.

Lot. 2. All those three freehold messuages or dwelling-houses, situate in Much-Park-Street, Coventry, adjoining the Star-Yard there, in the several occupations of Joseph Chatland, William Mills Holmes, and Elizabeth Rollason.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Herbert Lloyd, Solicitor, Crown-Court, Cheapside, London; or to Messrs. T. B. Troughton and Lea, Solicitors; or the Auctioneers, Coventry.

To Spirit-Merchants, Tavern and Hotel-Keepers, and Others. Valuable Ground Lease of the Salisbury Tavern, in Bear-Street, Leicester-Square, and Premises adjoining, in Cranbourn-Alley.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Bullock, on the premises, on Tuesday November 26, at One for Two o'Clock, by order of the Commissioners under a Fiat in Bankruptcy against George Rounthwaite, and before William Turquand, Esq. the Official Assignee appointed of the estate, &c.

The original lease, held of the Marquess of Salisbury, at a rent of £75. per annum. The premises, which are of recent structure, are most substantially built, and comprise a frontage on Bear-Street, of thirty feet, and on Cranbourn-Alley of twenty-eight feet, and possess unusually good arrangements for the continuation of an extensive business as a tavern, coffee-house, hotel, liquor-shop, and wine vaults, in a great leading thoroughfare from St. Martin's-Court to Leicester-Square, and immediately facing Castle-Street. There are eighteen bedrooms, four water-closets, two capital dining-rooms, a coffee-room twenty-seven feet by thirteen, an excellent bar and bar-room, a well lighted handsome staircase, two kitchens, and lofty cellarage. The building in Cranbourn-Alley is equally substantial and modern, and the two shops, Nos. 3 and 4, are let to Messrs. Harris, at £50 a year, thereby reducing the rent of all the other property to £25.; the unexpired term of years is thirty-seven.
