AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of October 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of, lastage and ballastage in the River Thames; and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford

"Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation; and for other purposes connected therewith;" the said Corporation are authorised and empowered from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament therein recited, or any of them; or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively; or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and are further authorised at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished; or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act; and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish, and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, as occasion may require; so as, nevertheless, that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received in respect thereof before the passing of that Act; provided always, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the said Corporation to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty, his heirs or successors, in his or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid) from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer taken, collected, levied, or received; or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so revived or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken:

And whereas the said Corporation of Trinity-house have proposed to alter and reduce certain rates now collected by them, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, for ballast supplied to vessels in the West India Dock, and have proposed that the same rate of charge be established for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks;

His Majesty, in virtue of the powers vested in him by the above-recited Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to signify His Royal assent to and confirmation of the said proposed reduction of the rate of charge for ballast delivered in any part of the West India Dock, to the same rate as is paid for ballast delivered in the London Docks.

AVERAGE PRICE OF BROWN OR MUSCOVADO SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 26th day of November 1833;

Is Twenty-nine Shillings and Three Farthings per Hundred Weight,

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

Grocers'-Hall,

November 29, 1833.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to continue, alter, and amend the Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the roads leading from Whitechapel-church, in the county of Middlesex, unto, through, and to the end of the several parishes or places of Shenfield, Passingford-bridge, and Woodford, in the county of Essex, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and the several other Acts of Parliament relating to turnpike-roads, and to the bridges and road hereafter mentioned, and to fix the amount which the Stratford Langthorne Abbey land-owners and proprietors shall pay annually to the trustees of the said roads for the repairing and maintaining Bow-bridge and Channelsea-bridge; and also what such owners and proprietors and the several other parties liable to repair Saint Michael's-bridge, Peg's-hole-bridge, and Sir Thomas Dacre's-bridge, in the said county of Essex, and the several foot-bridges at such five bridges, shall pay to such trustees annually for the repairing and maintaining of the same respectively; and the several portions of road, namely, from one hundred yards west of Bow-bridge, in the county of Middlesex, to one hundred yards east of Channelsea-bridge, in the said county of Essex, which the several parties respectively are bound to repair by tenure, prescription, or otherwise; and to authorise the rebuilding, widening, or otherwise improving the said several bridges, and the several approaches to such bridges, and the widening and improving the said roads, and the raising sufficient money for these purposes.—Dated this 28th day of October 1833.

George Dacre, Clerk and Solicitor to the Trustees of the Middlesex and Essex Turnpike-roads.

Turnpike Office, Bow, Middlesex.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to repeal a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for regulating the nightly watch and beables, and better enlightening, paving, and cleansing the streets and other passages, and repairing the highways within the parishes of Saint John Wapping, Saint Paul Shadwell, the hamlet of Ratcliffe, the parish of Saint Anne, in the county of Middlesex, and the precinct of Wellclose, in the liberty of the Tower of London;" also a certain other Act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving and freeing from nuisances and annoyances the several streets, ways and places within the parish of Saint Anne, in the county of Middlesex, and Queen-street and London-street, in the hamlet of Ratcliffe, within the said parish, and for making ways or streets into the street called Risby's Rope-ground, and through or across Shoulder of Mutton-alley, and a street called Ropenaker's-fields, to Three Colt street, and from the bridge in the said street called Risby's Rope-ground into Three Colt-street aforesaid;" also a certain other Act passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for more equally and effectually assessing and collecting the poor rates within the parish of Saint Anne, (commonly called Saint Anne, Limehouse), in the county of Middlesex;" and a certain other Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for rebuilding the workhouse of the parish of Saint Anne, Limehouse, in the county of Middlesex, and for amending an Act of King George the Second for regulating the nightly watch, and paving and other purposes relating to the said parish," and for consolidating the several provisions therein contained respectively, or for making other provisions in lieu thereof for the several purposes aforesaid respectively, so far as the same relate to the said parish of Saint Anne, and for altering and increasing the several rates and duties imposed by the said Acts, or any or either of them.—Dated this 9th day of November 1833.

Wm. Baker, Limehouse, and 3, Crosby-square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for erecting and opening a new and commodious market on the scite of ground, bounded on the east by Knightsbridge-green, on the south by houses lately erected in the Brompton-road, on the south-west by a public-house, called and known by the sign of the Fulham-bridge, and by premises between the said public-house and certain other premises adjoining the said public-house and a road leading from the Fulham-road to property belonging to Lord Dungannon, on the north-west by property of the said Lord Dungannon, and on the north by the said Knightsbridge-road, situate, lying, and being in the several parishes of Kensington, Brompton, Saint Margaret's Westminster, or one or more of them, in the county of Middlesex, and for the purpose of erecting such market by taking down (if necessary) certain houses and buildings adjoining or contiguous to the above property, and for levying and regulating certain tolls and duties to be paid on goods, wares, and merchandizes brought to the said market.

J. E. Nixon, Southampton-street, Bloomsbury-square, Solicitor to the Bill.

I ANN RIGBY, late of the parish of Framingham Earl, in the county of Norfolk, and now of Great Yarmouth, in the said county, Widow, one of the owners and proprietors of lands and tenements situate in the said parish of Framingham Earl, do hereby give notice, pursuant to the directions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fortieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the commons and waste grounds in the parishes of East Poringland, West Poringland, Framingham Earl, Framingham Pigot, Bixley, Armeringhall, Stoke Holy Cross, and Caister Saint Edmund, in the county of Norfolk, and for making a compensation for the tithes arising in the said parishes of East Poringland, Framingham Earl, and Bixley," that, at the next general quarter sessions of the peace to be holden in and for the county of Norfolk, at the Castle of Norwich, in the Shire-house there, on the first day of January now next ensuing, I intend to apply to His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, then and there to be assembled, to have three persons named and appointed by the said Justices to be arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Norfolk, for fourteen years now last past, according to the directions of the said Act, and for the purposes therein mentioned.—Witness my hand,

Ann Rigby.
