NOTICE is hereby given, that William Tindell, of Sunderland near the Sea, in the County of Durham, General Grocer and Flour-Dealer, hath by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 20th day of November now instant, duly assigned and transferred unto Peter Watson, of Sunderland, aforesaid, Grocer, and Michael Reed the younger, of the same place, Grocer, all his personal estate and effects whatsoever, in trust, for the equal benefit of all the Creditors of the said William Tindell; and which said indenture of assignment was executed by the said William Tindell, and also by the said Peter Watson and Michael Reed respectively on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of, and attested by, Joseph John Wright, of Sunderland aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and George Walton Wright, of the same place, his Clerk; and notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture of assignment now lies at the Office of the said Joseph John Wright, in Sunderland aforesaid, for the signature of the Creditors of the said William Tindell, who are required to sign the same within three calendar months from the day of the date thereof, or they will be excluded all benefit to arise therefrom.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Walker, of Bugbrook, in the County of Northampton, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 24th day of December instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Peacock Inn, in the Town of Northampton, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting a certain proposal made to them by the said Bankrupt for his being discharged from the Gaol or Prison at Northampton, where he is now confined, for the costs incurred by the said Assignees in defending a certain action brought by the said Bankrupt against them for the purpose of trying the validity of the said Commission; and on other special affairs relating to the estate of the said Bankrupt.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under the Bankruptcy of John Lloyd, of the Town of Carnarvon, in the County of Carnarvon, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 3d day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Henry Rumsey Williams, situate in Shire Hall-Street, in the said Town of Carnarvon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting an action at law against William Williams, of Mount Pleasant Inn, in the Parish of Llanwnda, in the said County of Carnarvon, Innkeeper, for recovery of a sum of money due from the said William Williams to the said Bankrupt, and also against the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Free Burgesses, of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, for recovery of a large sum of money due from them to the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting to arbitration all or any matters in difference between the said Bankrupt and the said William Williams, and between the said Bankrupt and the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Free Burgesses of the said Town and Borough of Carnarvon respectively; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with the said William Williams and the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Free Burgesses of the said Town and Borough of Carnarvon respectively; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edward Chew, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Manufacturing Chemist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 27th day of December instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Owen and Gill, in Princess-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, working up and rendering fit for sale the stock on hand at the premises lately occupied by the said Bankrupt, and for that purpose to employ such persons and pay such wages as the said Assignees may think proper, and afterwards to sell and dispose of the said stock in the usual course of trade; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, all such sum or sums of money as have been been, since the issuing the said Fiat, advanced, laid out, or expended by or under the direction of the provisional Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to sanction, confirm, and allow all such acts and things made or done by the said provisional Assignee, or his agent or agents, prior to the choice of the said Assignees, as the said Assignees may think advisable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the freehold and leasehold hereditaments of the said Bankrupt, and also his household goods and furniture, materials, apparatus, fixtures, and other estate and effects, at a valuation, or by public auction or private contract, or partly by valuation, and partly by public auction or private contract, either together or in lots, to any person or persons whomsoever, for ready money or upon credit, with or without security, at such time or times, and upon such terms as the said Assignees shall deem reasonable, with power to delay such sale or sales, and liberty to buy in and afterwards to resell the same estate and effects at any future auction, or by private contract, or at a valuation, without being answerable or accountable for any loss occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing such person or persons as they may think fit, to wind up, settle, and adjust the affairs, books, and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to collect and receive the debts and effects due and belonging to his estate, and making and allowing to such person or persons such remuneration, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, as the said Assignees may think sufficient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings, for the recovery or protection of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof, or any thing relating thereto; or compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing upon any question, action, suit, matter or thing concerning the same; and also to empower and authorise the said Assignees to give time to the several persons who may be indebted to the said Bankrupt's estate for payment of their debts, with or without taking security from them for payment thereof; and generally to take such other measures as the said Assignees may consider expedient and beneficial for investigating, managing, settling and winding up the estate of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as afore said, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed: and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 25th day of November 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
