By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the twelfth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twelfth day of this instant December, to Tuesday the fourth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourth day of February next, assemble and be holden for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 9th day of December 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade to China and India," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any such Order or Orders, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear expedient and salutary, to give to the Superintendents in the said Act mentioned, or any of them, powers and authorities over and in respect of the trade and commerce of His Majesty's subjects within any part of the dominions of the Emperor of China; and to make and issue directions and regulations touching the said trade and commerce, and for the direction of His Majesty's subjects within the said dominions; and to impose penalties, forfeitures, or imprisonments for the breach of any such directions or regulations to be enforced in such manner as in the said Order or Orders shall be specified:

And whereas the Officers of the Chinese Government, resident in or near Canton, in the empire of China, have signified to the Supra Cargoes of the East India Company at Canton, the desire of that Government that effectual provision should be made, by law, for the good order of all His Majesty's subjects resorting to Canton, and for the maintenance of peace and due subordination amongst them; and it is expedient that effect should be given to such reasonable demands of the said Chinese Government; now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act, and in execution of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that all the powers and authorities which, on the twenty-first day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall by law be vested in the Supra Cargoes of the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, over and in respect of the trade and commerce of His Majesty's subjects at the port of Canton, shall be, and the same are hereby, vested in the Superintendents for the time being appointed under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament; and that all regulations which, on the said twenty-first day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be in force touching the said trade and commerce, save so far as the same are repealed or abrogated by the said Act of Parliament, or by any commission and instructions, or Orders in Council, issued or made by His Majesty in pursuance thereof, or are inconsistent therewith, shall continue in full force and virtue; and that all such penalties, forfeitures, or imprisonments as might, on the said twenty-first day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, be incurred or enforced for the breach of such then existing regulations; shall thenceforth be, in like manner, incurred and enforced for the breach of the same regulations, so far as the same are hereby revived and continued in force as aforesaid; and that all such penalties, forfeitures, or imprisonments, when so incurred, shall be enforced in manner following, that is to say, either by such ways and means by which the same might, on the said twenty-first of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, have been lawfully enforced, or by the sentence and adjudication of the Court of Justice established at Canton aforesaid, under and in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament:

Provided also, and it is further declared, that the regulations herein contained, are and shall be considered as provisional only, and as intended to continue in force only until His Majesty shall be pleased to make such further or other order in the premises, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, as to His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, may hereafter seem salutary or expedient, in reference to such further information and experience as may hereafter be derived from the future course of the said trade.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the said Superintendents shall compile and publish, for the information of all whom it may concern, the several regulations hereby established and confirmed, as aforesaid; and that such publication, when so made with the authority of the said Superintendents, shall, for all purposes, be deemed and taken to be legal and conclusive evidence of the existence and of the terms of any such regulation:

And it is further ordered, that the said Superintendents shall, on the arrival of any British ship or vessel at the port of Canton aforesaid, cause to be delivered to the master, commander, or other principal officer of such ship or vessel, a copy of such regulations; and that every such master, commander, or other officer, together with every other person arriving in or being on board any such ship, shall be bound, and is hereby required, to conform himself to such regulations:

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Brighton, the 9th day of December 1833.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade to China and India," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any such Order or Orders as to His Majesty in Council shall appear expedient and salutary, to create a Court of Justice with criminal and Admiralty jurisdiction, for the trial of offences committed by His Majesty's subjects within the dominions of the Emperor of China, and the ports and havens thereof, and on the high seas within one hundred miles of the coast of China, and to appoint one of the Superintendents in the said Act mentioned to be the Officer to hold such Court, and other Officers for executing the process thereof; now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act, and in execution of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that there shall be a Court of Justice, with criminal and Admiralty jurisdiction, for the purposes aforesaid, which Court shall be holden at Canton, in the said dominions, or on board any British ship or vessel in the port or harbour of Canton, and that the said Court shall be, holden by the Chief Superintendent for the time being, appointed, or to be appointed, by His Majesty under and in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament :

And it is further ordered, that the practice and proceedings of the said Court upon the trial of all issues of fact or law to be joined upon any indictments or informations to be therein brought or prosecuted shall be conformable to and correspond with the practice and proceedings of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Goal delivery in England, upon the trial of such issues in such Courts, so far as it may be practicable to maintain such conformity and correspondence, regard being had to the difference of local circumstances ; and especially it is hereby ordered, that every such trial of any such issue of fact, or of mixed fact and law, shall be by the said Chief Superintendent for the time being and a jury of twelve men, and that upon every such trial the examination of witnesses for and against the party or parties charged shall take place vivâ voce in open Court ; and that the sentence or judgment of the said Court upon every such trial, founded upon the verdict of such jury, shall be pronounced in open Court by such Chief Superintendent as the presiding judge thereof :

And whereas it will be necessary to frame and prescribe rules of practice and proceeding to be observed upon all such prosecutions, in order to ascertain how far the same can be brought into conformity with the practice and proceeding of His Majesty's Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Goal delivery in England, and how far it may be necessary to deviate from such practice and proceeding by reason of the differences of local circumstances, it is, therefore, further ordered, that such Chief Superintendent for the time being shall be, and he is hereby authorised from time to time, but subject to the provisions aforesaid, to promulgate all such rules of practice and proceeding as it may be necessary to adopt and follow, upon, or previously to, the commitment of any person to take his trial in the said Court, and respecting the taking of bail for the appearance of any such person at such trial, and respecting the form and manner of preferring and finding indictments, and of exhibiting criminal informations against any persons charged with any crimes or offences before the said Court ; and respecting the manner of summoning and convening jurors for the trial of such indictments or informations ; and respecting qualifications of such jurors, and the mode of summoning and compelling the attendance of witnesses ; and respecting the process of the said Court, and the mode of carrying the same into execution ; and respecting the times and places of holding such Courts, and the duties of the respective ministerial Officers attending the same, whom he is hereby authorised to appoint provisionally, subject to His Majesty's approbation ; and also respecting every other matter and thing connected with the administration of justice therein which it may be found necessary to regulate :

And it is further ordered, that all rules so to be promulgated as aforesaid shall be binding and take effect from the respective days of the dates thereof, but that the same shall, by such Chief Superintendent, be transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for His Majesty's approbation or disallowance, and that any such rule shall cease to be binding, or to have any force or effect, from and after the time of which His Majesty's disallowance thereof shall be made known to such Chief Superintendent for the time being :

And it is further ordered, that a record shall be duly made and preserved of all the proceedings, judgments, and sentences of the said Court, which record shall be retained in the custody of an Officer of the said Court, to be by the Chief Superintendent specially charged with the performance of that duty :

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 9th day of December 1833,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade to China and India," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any such Order or Orders as to His Majesty in Council shall appear expedient and salutary, to give to the Superintendents in the said Act mentioned, or any one of them, powers and authorities over and in respect of the trade and commerce of His Majesty's subjects within any part of the dominions of the Emperor of China; and to make and issue directions and regulations touching the said trade and commerce, and for the government of His Majesty's subjects within the said dominions:

And it is thereby further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to impose and to empower such persons as His Majesty in Council shall think fit, to collect and levy from or on account of any ship or vessel belonging to any of the subjects of His Majesty entering any port or place where the said Superintendents, or any of them, shall be stationed, such duty on tonnage and goods as shall from time to time be specified in such Order or Orders, not exceeding in respect of tonnage, the sum of five shillings for every ton, and not exceeding in respect of goods, the sum of ten shillings for every one hundred pounds of the value of the same:

And it is thereby enacted, that the fund arising from the collection of such duties, shall be appropriated in such manner as His Majesty in Council shall direct towards defraying the expence of the establishments, by the said Act authorised, within the said dominions; now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act, and in execution of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that it shall be lawful for the Superintendents, appointed by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, for the time being, and for any person or persons duly authorised by them respectively, to recover and receive from all masters or other chief officers, or commanders, of all ships and vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects which may enter the port of Canton, or may be trading at that port, the sum or sums of money following, that is to say,—in respect to tonnage the sum of two shillings for every ton as per register of such ships and vessels, and so in proportion for any fractional part of a ton; and in respect of goods imported and exported, except bullion, at and after the rate of seven shillings for every one hundred pounds of the value of the same:

And it is further ordered, that the value of the goods composing the inward cargoes of such ships or vessels shall be fixed by the current market prices of such goods at Canton aforesaid, exclusive of the import duty, and that the value of the goods composing the outward cargoes of such ships or vessels shall be estimated by the current market prices at Canton aforesaid, of the articles composing the same at the period of shipment, exclusive of the export duties:

And it is further ordered, that if any difference of opinion should arise as to the market prices aforesaid, the same shall be determined and fixed by two indifferent British merchants or subjects residing at the place, one to be chosen and appointed by the said Superintendents, or by the person or persons authorised by them respectively, and the other by the master of the vessel, or by the consignee or shipper of the cargo, which two persons previously to their entering into the consideration of the subject referred to them, shall appoint a third person, being also a British merchant or subject, residing at the place, to be the umpire in the event of their disagreeing upon the point referred to them; and in case the two persons so chosen shall not agree and award the same within seven days after such appointment, then such third person, so previously chosen and appointed, shall decide and determine the said current market price, within the space of three days after the expiration of the seven days, unless it shall be otherwise mutually agreed upon between the said Superintendents or person or persons authorised by them respectively, and the consignee or shipper of the cargo, and such sum shall be paid in either case as shall be agreeable to this Order.

And it is further ordered, that all masters, commanders, or other chief officers of all British ships and vessels trading to or from the port of Canton aforesaid, and unloading or delivering the ship or vessel, or any of the cargo there, shall within forty-eight hours after the arrival of such ship or vessel, deliver to the said Superintendents, or to the person or persons authorised by them for that purpose respectively, a true manifest in writing, upon oath, specifying the particulars of the whole cargo of such ship or vessel, so to be unloaded or delivered, or of such part thereof as shall be unloaded or delivered there, and to whom consigned; and likewise twenty-four hours before the said masters, commanders, or other chief officers, require the outward clearances or passports for their said ships or vessels, they shall deliver to the said Superintendents, or to the person or persons authorised by them for that purpose respectively, a true manifest in writing, upon oath, specifying the particulars of the whole cargo of such ship or vessel laden there, or of such part thereof as shall have been laden or received on board such ship or vessel in the said port of Canton, which oaths the said Superintendents, or person or persons authorised by them respectively, are and is hereby empowered and required to administer gratis upon request :

And it is further ordered, that all bills of lading of such ships or vessels shall specify to pay the said monies accordingly under the denomination of "Contribution as by China Trade Act, and the Order in Council thereupon issued;" and the persons paying the same shall be reimbursed by the persons to whom the said goods shall be consigned, or who shall receive the same, or by their respective freighters; and in case the master or commander of such ship or vessel shall neglect to specify the payment of the said monies in the bill or bills of lading, as aforesaid, he shall be answerable for the same :

And it is further ordered, that for the better securing and collecting the payment of the said monies herein directed to be levied for the purposes aforesaid, the said Superintendents, or the person or persons authorised by them, shall, and they are hereby respectively authorised and required, to detain the clearances outward and all other papers of all such British ships or vessels as aforesaid, and not to give or deliver any dispatch or passport for any such ship or vessel until payment be made as required :

And it is hereby further ordered, that no such British ship shall be admitted to entry at any port in any part of His Majesty's dominions unless the master shall produce to the proper Officer of the Customs, or other proper Officer, the said clearances so to be given on departure from the port of Canton, or from any other port at which such duties as aforesaid ought to have been paid :

And it is further ordered, that all monies to be raised or received by the authority of the said Act, and of this present Order, shall be appropriated towards defraying the expences of the said Superintendents and of their establishment, and of the Officers subordinate to them at Canton :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of His Majesty's

Principal Secretaries of State, and the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein as may to them respectively appertain.

C. C. Greyille.

Whitehall, December 13, 1833.

THE following Address to the King having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To His Majesty WILLIAM the FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Town of Leith.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the town of Leith, beg, upon the present interesting occasion, to approach your Majesty with the expression of our unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Elected by the suffrages of our fellow townsmen, in virtue of the privileges lately conferred upon us, we anxiously embrace the opportunity of our meeting as a free and independent Council, to pay that tribute of gratitude so justly due to your Majesty, to whose wisdom and firmness the inhabitants of this town are indebted for the restoration of their freedom, and their emancipation from the yoke of feudal vassalage.

We would turn from the recollection of other years, when the privileges of our town were wrested from the inhabitants; we would bury the past in oblivion, and, cultivating the most kindly feelings towards all, we would rejoice in the liberty which the Government, under the benign auspices of your Majesty, have graciously conferred upon the inhabitants of Leith, in common with your Majesty's other subjects.

We are deeply sensible of the blessings we enjoy under the paternal Government of your Majesty, of the security of life and property, of the prospect of continued peace and prosperity, which the measures of your Majesty's Administration encourage us to cherish; and we trust that your Majesty's subjects will, by a prudent and intelligent use of their franchise, shew that they are not unworthy of this extension of their rights, and thus falsify the predictions of the enemies of reform, and afford a convincing proof of the wisdom that planned, and the firmness which executed, that great and healing measure.

Called into existence by this enlightened act of your Majesty's Government, we beg to assure your Majesty, that we shall exercise the powers and privileges with which we have been invested, by the most zealous endeavours to suppress crime and reclaim the vicious, to instruct the ignorant, and to give encouragement to every measure tending to promote the interests of true religion and sound morality among the people over whom we have been chosen to preside.

That your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, blessed with the gratitude and affection of a loyal people, is the sincere and ardent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the town of Leith, in Council assembled.

Signed by our Provost, in our name and by our appointment, and the seal of the town is hereto put and affixed, at Leith, this 18th day of November 1833 years, Adam White, Provost.

In pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes."

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Charles Marjoribanks, Esq. late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Berwick, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county of Berwick, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the warehouse of Mr. J. T. Burgin, at Brandon, in the county of Suffolk, has, at various times during the summer of the present year, been robbed of very large quantities of gun flints;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robberies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

MELBOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Burgin, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences:

National Debt-Office, December 12, 1833.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having approved and authorised the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to adopt, until further notice, certain tables for granting annuities upon the continuance of single lives, and annuities to continue for a certain term of years, under the provisions of the Act of 3d William IV, cap. 14, intituled "An Act to enable depositors in Savings' Banks, and others, to purchase Government Annuities through the medium of Savings' Banks; and to amend an Act of the ninth year of His late Majesty to consolidate and amend the laws relating to Savings' Banks."

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that the said tables are ready to be issued to the Trustees of Savings' Banks, and Parochial Societies formed under the provisions of the said Act, upon application at the above Office, in order to enable the Trustees to carry the said Act into execution.

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have also approved of certain tables for granting annuities upon the joint continuance of two lives; and also upon the continuance of two lives and the life of the longest liver of them, in continuation of the Act of 10 Geo. IV. c. 24.

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt therefore give notice, that they are ready to commence granting the said annuities upon two lives, in further execution of the said Act.

S. Higham, Comptroller-General.

FAREBROTHER, Mayor.

A Court of Mayor and Aldermen, held in the Inner Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Tuesday the 3d day of December, in the year of our Lord 1833, and in the fourth year of the reign of William the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to amend the laws relating to hackney carriages, and to waggons, carts, and drays used in the metropolis, and to place the collection of the duties on hackney carriages and on hawkers and pedlars in England under the Commissioners of Stamps," it was, among other things, enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London from time to time to appoint proper places, in the said city of London and liberties thereof, and in the borough of Southwark, where hackney carriages might stand and ply for hire, and to make such orders for regulating the number of such hackney carriages to stand in such places respectively, and the distances at which they should stand from each other, and the times at and during which they might stand and ply for hire, and such other orders and regulations for the better ordering and regulating the said hackney carriages and the drivers, or other person or persons having the management thereof respectively as to the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen should seem proper, and from time to time to alter, amend, or repeal such rules, orders, and regulations and to make others in the room thereof; and that the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen should cause all the orders, rules, and regulations, to be made by them as aforesaid, and every alteration, amendment, or repeal thereof respectively, to be advertised in the London Gazette, and in any two or more newspapers circulated in the said city of London, and a copy thereof to be hung up for public inspection in the Town-Clerk's office, at the Guildhall of the said city, before the same, or any of them, should be carried into effect, or be considered as repealed by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen:

And whereas the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said city of London did afterwards, on the 3d day of January, in the year of our Lord 1832, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, make certain rules, orders, and regulations, whereby, among other things, the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen did appoint certain places, in the said city of London and liberties thereof, and in the borough of Southwark, then deemed by the said Court to be proper places for the standing and plying of hackney carriages for hire, and did also by the said rules, orders, and regulations, regulate the number of such hackney carriages to stand in such places respectively, and the distances at which they should stand from each other, and the times at and during which they might stand and ply for hire, in the manner therein particularly set forth:

And whereas the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen did by one of such rules, orders, and regulations, appoint that part of the street called Bishopsgate-street Without, extending opposite Liverpool-street to opposite Sun-street, in Bishopsgate-street aforesaid, in the middle of the said street only, to be a proper place for twenty four hackney carriages to stand and ply for hire there, in a direct line following each other, and in the manner particularly pointed out and directed by the said rule, order, and regulation:

And whereas it hath duly appeared to this Court, that the extent of the standing for hackney carriages from opposite Liverpool-street aforesaid to that part of the street opposite to Sun-street, mentioned in the said recited rule, order, and regulation, hath become inconvenient to the public passage; this Court doth, therefore, in pursuance and by virtue of the powers and authorities granted by the said recited Act for that purpose, hereby repeal the said rule, order, and regulation, for the appointment of a standing for twenty-four hackney carriages at that part of Bishopsgate-street aforesaid, extending from opposite Liverpool-street to opposite Sun-street, in Bishopsgate-street aforesaid; and instead thereof, this Court doth hereby appoint that part of Bishopsgate-street aforesaid, from and opposite to Liverpool-street aforesaid, and extending northwards to that part of Bishopsgate-street aforesaid, terminating at the distance of thirty yards from the entrance into Sun-street or Union-street, in the middle of the said street called Bishopsgate-street only, to be a proper place for twenty hackney carriages to stand and ply.

for hire there, in a direct line following each other; and doth hereby order and direct, that the said twenty hackney carriages, or any less number than twenty that shall happen at any time to be upon the said standing, shall stand in a direct line following each other, in the middle of that part of Bishopsgate-street aforesaid hereinbefore limited for that purpose; and that every four of the said twenty hackney carriages, or any less number than four which shall at any time be upon the said standing next to each other, shall stand at the distance of two feet from the horse or horses attached to the next succeeding hackney carriage upon the said standing; and that after every four of such hackney carriages which shall be upon the said standing, there shall be left a clear space of ten feet from the horse or horses attached to every fifth, ninth, thirteenth, and seventeenth of such hackney carriages being upon the said standing; and that the whole of such twenty hackney carriages allowed to stand and ply for hire upon the said standing, may stand and ply for hire there during the whole of every day and night:

And this Court doth hereby further order and direct, that no hackney carriage shall stand and ply for hire in any part of Bishopsgate-street aforesaid, within the distance of thirty yards southward from the end of Sun-street or Union-street aforesaid.

And this Court doth hereby further order and direct, that no hackney carriage shall stand or ply for hire upon such part of the said standing herein appointed, as shall be directly opposite to the entrance of any other street, lane, or alley leading to and from that part of Bishopsgate-street aforesaid, but that a width or space upon the said standing, equal to the width of the entrance to any such street, lane, or alley, shall be left open, in order that no obstruction may be given to any other carriage whatever passing or repassing from or into such street, lane, or alley leading to or from that part of Bishopsgate-street aforesaid as is hereinbefore appointed for the said standing.

And this Court doth hereby further order and direct, that the said rule, order, and regulation, hereby made, shall be forthwith advertised in the London Gazette, and in the two newspapers circulated in the city of London, called the Times and the Morning Advertiser; and that a copy of the said rule, order, and regulation be forthwith hung up in the Town Clerk's-office, at the Guildhall of the said city, pursuant to the provisions contained for that purpose in the said recited Act of Parliament.

And this Court doth hereby further order and direct, that the said rule, order, and regulation, hereby made, shall be in full force from and immediately after the same shall be advertised and a copy thereof hung up in the Town Clerk's-office as aforesaid, pursuant to the directions of the said Act of Parliament.

CONTRACT FOR SLATES.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, November 30, 1833

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 19th December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards with Slates.

Specimens of the slates and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

WEEKLY RETURNS of the Quantities and Price of BRITISH CORN, IMPERIAL Measure, as received from the Inspectors in the following Cities and Towns in ENGLAND and WALES, from which the Prices that govern Importation are calculated, conformably to the Act of the 9th Geo. IV, cap. 60.
