Whitehall, December 26, 1833.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto William Marshall, of Laughton-en-le-Morthen, and of Newton-Kyme, in the county of York, Esq. in the Commission of the Peace, and one of the Deputy Lieutenants for the west riding of the said county, His royal licence and authority that, in order to commemorate his descent from the ancient family of Hatfield, of Laughton-en-le-Morthen, and to testify his respect for the memory of John Hatfield, late of Laughton aforesaid, and of Doncaster, in the said county of York, Esq. deceased, he, the said William Marshall, and his issue may take and use the surname of Hatfield, in lieu of that of Marshall, and bear the arms of Hatfield; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and obtain an Act to consolidate, amend, extend, enlarge, or otherwise alter the powers and provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending certain roads in the several parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, and for watching, lighting, and otherwise improving the said roads;" and also in an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending the road leading from the Stones-end, in Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to Highgate, in the county of Sussex, and several other roads therein mentioned, and for other purposes relating thereto;" by which Act, so to be obtained, it is intended to consolidate the said several roads, and place the repair and management thereof under the trustees to be by that Act appointed, or such parts of the said several roads as may be deemed expedient to be united; also to authorise the said trustees to continue or take down all and every or any of the toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses on the said roads, and to erect other toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses in lieu thereof, or in addition thereto, as may be thought proper, and at such several toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, or toll-houses, to demand and receive all and every the tolls granted and made payable under and by virtue of the Acts of Parliament above referred to, or such other tolls as shall be granted by the Act to be applied for as aforesaid; also to empower the said trustees to water the said several roads, or any part or parts thereof, and during such times and seasons of the year as they may direct, and for that purpose to demand and take a toll or tolls upon such road or roads as shall be directed by the said trustees to be watered; also to authorise the relinquishment of the repair of the carriage-way of such parts of the said roads as the said trustees may deem expedient, and the repair of all and every the footpaths by the sides of the several roads included in the said Acts, or either of them, or any part or parts of such footpaths, and place the repair of the roads and footpaths, when relinquished, under the laws for regulating and repairing highways in England; and to empower the trustees acting in the execution of the said Acts, to pay off any debt, sum or sums of money charged and secured, or that may be charged and secured, with interest, upon the tolls of the said several roads, or such part or parts of the said debt or debts, sum or sums of money as the said trustees may at any time or times think proper, and for that purpose, from time to time, or any time or times, to borrow and take up at interest, and to charge on the security of the tolls of the said roads, any sum or sums of money, at such rate of interest, upon such terms, and in such manner as the said trustees may deem proper or advisable, and to pay off and discharge all or any of the mortgages or securities upon the said tolls, or any of them, as the said trustees may think fit; all which said several roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof, that is to say:—Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, Christchurch, Camberwell, Saint Paul Deptford, Streatham, Croydon, Sanderstead, Banstead, Coulsden, Warlingham, Caterham, Woldingham, Godstone, Tandridge, Horne, Lingfield, Outwood, Bletchingley, Nutfield, Clapham, Tooting, Mitcham, Morden, Merton, Carshalton, Sutton, Battersea, Wimbledon, Putney, Ham, Kingston, and Richmond, in the said county of Surrey; and East Grimstead, Chailey, and Maresfield, in the said county of Sussex: And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended by the said Act, to be applied for as aforesaid, to obtain all enactments, powers, provisions, regulations, and directions necessary, proper, or requisite for carrying into effect all and every, or any of the several objects and purposes before stated or referred to.—Dated this 31st day of December 1833.

By order,
Chas. Geo. Beet, No. 2, Chester-place,
Kennington-cross.

CONTRACTS FOR RAISINS AND WILLOW RODS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, December 20, 1833.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 2d of January next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the following articles, namely:

40 Tons of Raisins (new Black Smyrna); half to be delivered by the 23d of January next, and the remainder by the 7th of February following.

(The above will be exempted from the Customs' duties.)

A 2

400 Mille of Willow Rods for Coopers' Twigs; to be delivered by the 31st of March next, in equal monthly proportions.

Samples of the raisins and of the rods (500 great tale) must be produced by the parties tendering, and no tender will be received for less than 100 mille of rods.

Conditions of the contracts may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and the tenders for raisins must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per centum on the value thereof, for the due performance of the contracts.

Sale of a Sugar Estate in the Island of Saint Vincent.

SAINT VINCENT, } Between Mary E. Kearton, Com-
In Chancery. } plainant; and N. B. Cropper and others, Defendants.—25th September 1833.

IN pursuance of a Decree of this Honourable Court, made in the above cause, on Friday the 26th day of July last past, there will be exposed for sale, to the highest bidder, on the 1st day of May next ensuing, at my Chambers, in the Town of Kingstown, and Island aforesaid, between the hours of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon and Three o'Clock in the Afternoon;

All the right, title, and interest of the late John Kearton, deceased, in and to that sugar plantation or estate, commonly known by the name of Kearton's, situate in the Parish of Saint Patrick, in the said Island, containing three hundred and eighty-five acres, be the same more or less, butted and bounded as follows, that is to say:—northerly and north-easterly, partly by the Wallilabo Estate and partly by the Bellisle Estate; southerly, partly by lands formerly Russel's No. 52, by Byres' general plan of the Island, and partly by the Reversion Estate; and westerly by the sea; according to the boundary lines established by a survey made by Joseph Billinghurst, Esq. Crown and Colony Surveyor, in the year 1807, or however the same is butted and bounded, known or described; together with all the buildings and sugar-works thereon erected, and dead stock thereunto belonging, with one hundred and six negro and other slaves, four horses, twelve mules, eight asses, twenty-one head of horned cattle, and eleven sheep.

Plans of the said estate may be seen, and any further information had, on application at my Chambers, in the Town of Kingstown, in the said Island of Saint Vincent; or in London, at the Counting-House of John Constable, Esq. Brabant-Court, Philpot Lane.

WM. R. SCOTT, Master in Chancery.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Jona v. Martin, with the approbation of Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, in the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in two lots;

An annuity of £18, payable during the lives of three persons, of the ages of 35, 25, and 28, and the life of the survivor; two annuities of £11, and £5. 10s. payable during the life of His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester; and a policy of assurance for £170, effected in the Pelican Life Insurance Company, on the life of His Royal Highness.

Such annuities and policy of assurance constitute part of the estate of Mrs. Henrietta Kelfe, deceased.

Due notice will be given on the day of sale, and particulars are preparing and may shortly be had (gratis), at the said Masters' Chambers; and of Messrs. Brutton and Clipperton, Solicitors, No. 37, New Broad-Street, City; of Mr. Henry Martin, Solicitor, No. 7, Fitzroy-Street, Fitzroy-Square; and of Mr. W. R. Hayward, Solicitor, No. 18, Palace New-Road, Westminster-Bridge.

High-Street, Kingston-upon-Hull, Dwelling-house, Counting-houses, Warehouses, and Wharf, extending to the River Hull.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Stamp, by order of the Commissioner in a Fiat of Bankruptcy issued against Mr. Hutchinson Bell, and without reserve, at the Cross Keys Hotel, in the Market-Place, Hull, on Friday the 31st day of January next, at Twelve for One o'Clock precisely, subject to such conditions as will then be produced;

The one undivided third part or share late of the said Hutchinson Bell of and in all those extensive and valuable warehouses, with the dwelling-house adjoining thereto, situate on the east side of High-Street, in the said Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and extending from thence to the Harbour or River Hull, and having a quay or wharf upon the said River, as now occupied by Mr. John Bell, and well known as the North End Warehouses.

The warehouses contain four granary floors of considerable extent, and are capable of holding altogether from 6000 to 8000 quarters of corn, and are admitted as bonding rooms for corn.

The lower floor extending from the wharf is adapted for general goods, and underneath are large and excellent arched cellars, which are admitted as bonding cellars for wine, and are respectively occupied by the said John Bell and Messrs. Hayes and Whitaker, Wine-Merchants.

The warehouses were built about eight years ago on the most approved plan, and in a very substantial manner, and are amongst the most desirable in the Town of Hull for grain or any kind of merchandize.

The dwelling-house comprises two sitting rooms, with kitchens and offices on the lower floor and a good yard behind, sitting room, five lodging rooms, and two good garrets.

The entirety of the above premises is subject to an annuity of £300. per annum payable to a lady aged 87 years.

For a view of the premises apply to Mr. John Bell, the occupier, and for other particulars to the Auctioneer, Excise Office-Buildings, Hull; or to Mr. Brown, Solicitor, Barton-upon-Humber.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an indenture of assignment, bearing date the 24th day of December 1833, John Jones the elder, of High-Street, in the City of Bangor, in the County of Carnarvon, and John Jones the younger, of Hiracl-Street, in Bangor aforesaid, Tailors, Drapers, and Shopkeepers, have assigned, transferred, and set over, all and singular their, and each of their, personal estate, debts, and effects whatsoever and whosoever; and that by indentures of lease and release, bearing date respectively the 23d and 24th days of the said month of December, the said John Jones the elder hath granted, bargained, sold, aliened, and released all and singular the hereditaments and real estate of him the said John Jones the elder unto Thomas Edwards, Cutler, and Robert Whitley, Woollen-Draper, both of the City of Chester, upon trust, for the equal benefit of themselves and all other the Creditors of the said John Jones the elder and John Jones the younger, or either of them, who should execute the said indenture of assignment, or assent thereto, on or before the 1st day of February then and now next; which said indenture of assignment was executed by the said Jones the elder and John Jones the younger on the day of the date thereof, and the said indentures of lease and release by the said John Jones the elder, on the several days on which the same respectively bear date as aforesaid, in the presence of, and are respectively attested by, John Hughes, of the said City of Bangor, Solicitor; and which said indentures of assignment and release were respectively executed by the said Thomas Edwards and Robert Whitley on the 26th of the same month of December, in the presence of, and are respectively attested by, Samuel Johnson Roberts, of the said City of Chester, Solicitor.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Davis, of the City of Bristol, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 22d day of January next, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Offices of Messrs. Andrew and James Livett, Solicitors, No. 50, Broad-Street, Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions, for money or on credit, and upon such security as they may think fit, of all and singular the said Bankrupt's freehold and leasehold estates, household furniture, books, and other his estate and effects, real or personal, to any person or persons, and their taking such personal security from the purchaser or purchasers thereof, or any of them, as they the said Assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees having the power and authority to buy in the said Bankrupt's real and chattel real estates, or any part thereof, which shall be offered for sale by public auction, and to resell the same at any future auction, or by private contract, without being liable to answer for any loss or diminution in the price or produce of such sale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or some other fit and proper person, to make up, adjust, and settle the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to receive and collect the debts due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, and also to their making to such accountant, or to such other person or persons as shall be employed by them for the purposes aforesaid, such fair remuneration and allowance for his and their time and trouble as to the said Assignees may seem fit and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions at law, and suits in equity, or petition in the Court of Review, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; and compromising, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or settling any matter, claim, or dispute with any person or persons whomsoever, touching or concerning the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under the Bankruptcy of Thomas Edwards, of Hutton-Garden, in the Parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, and County of Middlesex, Tailor and Livery Stable-Keeper, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 22d day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting to the arbitration of John Adams, Esq. Serjeant at Law, a certain action now depending in His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, wherein the said Assignees are plaintiffs, and Messrs. J. and A. J. Rudge, of Saint Martin's-le Grand, London, Button-Makers, are defendants, and all matters in difference between the said parties; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying a sum of £80. to a person, whose name will be mentioned at the said meeting, upon his discontinuing an action of trover, commenced by him against the Assignees and Messenger, and relinquishing all right and interest in the horses, cabriolets, harness, and effects alleged to have been sold to him by the Bankrupt on the 31st day of October last, and which horses, cabriolets, harness and effects have been seized by, and are now in the possession of, the said Messenger under this Bankruptcy.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Fear and Henry Coward, of the City of Bath, Upholsterers, Dealers, Chapman and Copartners, (trading under the firm of William Fear and Company), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Tuesday the 21st day of January next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the House of Mrs. Springford, called or known by the name or sign of the Elephant and Castle, in the City of Bath aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, either to the Bankrupts, or either of them, or to any other person or persons, partly by private contract, or at a proper valuation and appraisement, or by public auction, or partly in one way and partly in another, or either together or in lots, and either for ready money or on credit, and upon such security, and at such period or periods of time as the said Assignees shall think fit, all or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, steam engine machinery, property and effects of the said Bankrupts, and of each of them, or of any part or portion thereof, or in such other manner as they the said Assignees shall think expedient and beneficial to the Creditors; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of any freehold, leasehold, and other real estates of the said Bankrupts, or of either of them, on any equity of redemption therein which may appertain thereto in case such property may be on mortgage or otherwise, in such manner as the said Assignees may be advised or see fit for the advantage of the Creditors; also to the said Assignees retaining or employing the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any other person or persons, as a clerk or an accountant, in the investigation and elucidation of the complicated accounts of the said Bankrupts, and making up and perfecting their books and accounts, and in collecting and getting in the debts and effects due and belonging to the said Bankrupts' estate, or either of them; and to the said Assignees making the said Bankrupt, or such or any other person or persons so employed as clerk or as an accountant as aforesaid, such allowance or compensation for their or his services as to the said Assignees may seem just, and as usual in like cases; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging all taxes, rents, servants' and workmens' wages, and other incidental charges, which may be claimed and be found due to any clerks, workmen, or other person or persons, from the said Bankrupts, and each of them, up to the date of the said Fiat, and for their or other services rendered to the said estate, or to the said Assignees subsequent thereto, and up to the said intended meeting, such services being essentially necessary to prevent some portion of the said Bankrupts' manufactory from being damaged and prejudiced, and the said estate being benefited by such subsequent services and working of such said engine and machinery; and to the said Assignees settling with Mr. Charles Watkins, the provisional Assignee of the said estates, all such sum or sums of money as he may have advanced or paid, laid out, or expended, or made himself liable to pay, lay out, and expend, from the time of his appointment to the present time; also to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting and defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any of the said Bankrupts' estates and effects, or in any wise relating or incident thereto, whether in or before the Court of Review, or otherwise; and to the said Assignees giving time to debtors for payment of their debts to the said estates, or otherwise; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or settling any matter, claim, dispute, or difference with any person or persons whomsoever, whether touching or concerning the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, or otherwise howsoever; also to ratify, approve and allow the acts, proceedings, matters and things which may have been adopted and done, had and taken, by the said Assignees regarding the estates of the said Bankrupts, or by any person or persons authorised by them since the issuing of the said Fiat; also to make such allowances to the said Bankrupts, out of their several personal estates, as the Creditors of such meeting may determine and direct; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take and adopt all such measures and act in the conduct and management of the estates and effects of the said Bankrupts, and each of them, as they or as the said Assignees shall or may deem most advisable; also to pay and allow out of the said estates or estate all such travelling and other costs and expences which the said Assignees, or either of them, may pay or expend in and about the said Bankrupts' affairs, or in relation thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as afore said, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed, and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that

Declarations were filed on the 30th day of December 1833, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by DAVID HAMILTON, of Nicholas-Lane, London, Tailor; that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

THOMAS HODSOLL, of Garnault-Place, Spa-Fields, in the County of Middlesex, and of Brussels, in Belgium, Dealer in Pictures and Furniture, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
