

3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, upon which those Officers who reside in the neighbourhood of a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks, may be paid.

If they wish to receive it by bill of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

I The Reverend William Squire Mirehouse, Rector of the parish of Colsterworth, in the county of Lincoln, do hereby give notice, that I intend to apply at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden at Bourn, in and for the division of Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, or in the first week after the 31st day of March next, being the time appointed under and by virtue of a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the more effectual administration of justice in England and Wales," for holding the said sessions, to have two persons named and appointed for the said parish of Colsterworth, by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person to be named and chosen by such two persons respectively, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by and from, or by means of the London Gazette, so long as the return of the average prices of corn and grain shall be published therein, and in case of no such publication, then by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the twelve years then last past, so that the yearly corn or tithe rents payable to me, the said William Mirehouse, and my successors, out of the several inclosures, lands, and tenements, in the manor or liberty of Twyford, in the said parish of Colsterworth, charged therewith, in and by the award of the Commissioners named and appointed in and by, or acting under or by virtue of, an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands in the parish of Colsterworth, in the county of Lincoln, and for making compensation for the tithes arising within the same parish," may be increased or diminished pursuant and in conformity to the directions of the said Act.—Dated the 1st day of January 1834. William Squire Mirehouse.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and obtain an Act to consolidate, amend, extend, enlarge, or otherwise alter the powers and provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending certain roads in the several parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, and for watching, lighting, and otherwise improving the said roads;" and also in an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending the road leading from the Stones-end, in Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to Highgate, in the county of Sussex, and several other roads therein mentioned, and for other purposes relating thereto;" by which Act, so to be obtained, it is intended to consolidate the said several roads, and place the repair and management thereof under the trustees to be by that Act appointed, or such parts of the said several roads as may be deemed expedient to be united; also to authorise the said trustees to continue or take down all and every or any of the toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses on the said roads, and to erect other toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses in lieu thereof, or in addition thereto, as may be thought proper, and at such several toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, or toll-houses, to demand and receive all and every the tolls granted and made payable under and by virtue of the Acts of Parliament above referred to, or such other tolls as shall be granted by the Act to be applied for as aforesaid; also to empower the said trustees to water the said several roads, or any part or parts thereof, and during such times and seasons of the year as they may direct, and for that purpose to demand and take a toll or tolls upon such road or roads as shall be directed by the said trustees to be watered; also to authorise the relinquishment of the repair of the carriage-way of such parts of the said roads as the said trustees may deem expedient, and the repair of all and every the footpaths by the sides of the several roads included in the said Acts, or either of them, or any part or parts of such footpaths, and place the repair of the roads and footpaths, when relinquished, under the laws for regulating and repairing highways in England; and to empower the trustees acting in the execution of the said Acts, to pay off any debt, sum or sums of money charged and secured, or that may be charged and secured, with interest, upon the tolls of the said several roads, or such part or parts of the said debt or debts, sum or sums of money as the said trustees may at any time or times think proper, and for that purpose, from time to time, or any time or times, to borrow and take up at interest, and to charge on the security of the tolls of the said roads, any sum or sums of money, at such rate of interest, upon such terms, and in such manner as the said
