HALF-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of January, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th of January, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 16th and 17th of January, to Lieutenants at 7s and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 20th, 21st, and 22d of January, to Admirals, Captains, Commanders and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being preferred on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their affidavit sufficiently early to admit payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 24th and 25th of January.

After which the half-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment of half-pay.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay in person, are requested to deliver their affidavits into the Wages-office or the Admiralty, Somerset-place, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their affidavits, as promptly, for unless such documents are early delivered into this Office, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

It sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay, without having previously sent in their affidavits as required by the usual advertisements; any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned mode, Officers may receive their half-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

- 1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form to be transmitted from this Office.
- 2d. By a remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence.
- 3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, upon which, those Officers who reside in the neighbourhood of a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks, may be paid.

If they wish to receive it by bill of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill and obtain an Act to consolidate, amend, extend, enlarge, or otherwise alter the powers and provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending certain roads in the several parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, and for watching, lighting, and otherwise improving the said roads;" and also in an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending the road leading from the Stones-end, in Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to Highgate, in the county of Sussex, and several other roads therein mentioned, and for other purposes relating thereto;" by which Act, so to be obtained, it is intended to consolidate the said several roads, and place the repair and management thereof under the trustees to be by that Act appointed, or such parts of the said several roads as may be deemed expedient to be united; also to authorise the said trustees to continue or take down all and every or any of the toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses on the said roads, and to erect other toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses in lieu thereof, or in addition thereto, as may be thought proper, and at such several toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, or toll-houses, to demand and receive all and every the tolls granted and made payable under and by virtue of the Acts of Parliament above referred to, or such other tolls as shall be granted by the Act to be applied for as aforesaid; also to empower the said trustees to water the said several roads, or any part or parts thereof, and during such times and seasons of the year as they may direct, and for that purpose to demand and take a toll or tolls upon such road or roads as shall be directed by the said trustees to be watered; also to authorise the relinquishment of the
