Whitehall, February 25, 1834.

THE following Address to the King having been transmitted by the Mayor of the city of Waterford to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Assistants of the County of the City of Waterford, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave at this important crisis to approach the Throne with the reiterated assurances of our unshaken fidelity and attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

We sincerely sympathise in your Majesty's feelings of deep regret at the continuance of attempts to excite the people of this country to demand a repeal of the Legislative Union, that great bond of our national strength and safety; which excitement must in its continuance seriously impede the progressive improvement of Ireland, and in our opinion, if effected, ultimately lead to total separation of the two islands, impair the power, security, and glory of the empire, and plunge this country into irretrievable anarchy, misery, and ruin; and we entreat your Majesty to accept our warmest thanks and gratitude for the patriotic declaration of your determination to maintain this union inviolate.

Given under our seal of Mayoralty, at our Council Chamber, in the city of Waterford, the 12th day of February 1834.

*William Hobbs, Mayor; Michael Mortimer,
