MARY JOHNSON, otherwise BUXTON MARY.

IF Mary Johnson, formerly of Newark-upon-Trent, and afterwards of Teddington, near Bakewell, will apply to Messrs. Barrow and Son, Solicitors, Southwell, she will hear of something to her advantage. The said Mary Johnson (if living) is about twenty-eight years of age, about five feet three inches in height, of a dark complexion, has dark hair and eyes, and is what is called rather cross-eyed. She for some time went by the name of Buxton Mary, and is supposed to be now an itinerant ballad-singer, or match-seller; but the last intelligence her surviving next of kin has obtained of her is, that about seven years ago she was at Saint Ives, in Huntingdonshire, and about five or six years ago, at the town of Huntingdon. If she should happen to be dead, any person who will give such information as may lead to a proof of the fact, will be fully compensated.
