[Extract from the Dublin Gazette of February 8, 1834.]

TO JOHN GOODBODY, AND ALL OTHER PERSONS CONCERNED.

WHEREAS Thomas Strangman did, by indenture of lease, bearing date the 13th day of April 1748, demise unto William Goodbody all that and those, the lands of Far-ranlanfyn and Shanbegg, for and during the natural lives and life of Joshua Strangman, Joseph Goodbody, and Jonathan Gatchell, and for and during the life and lives of such other person or persons as should for ever thereafter be added thereto, by virtue of the covenant for perpetual renewal therein contained, upon payment of the sum of £25. as and for a renewal fine on the fall of each life: and whereas, pursuant to the said covenant, the said lease was, by indenture, bearing date the 31st day of January 1803, renewed by Joshua Strangman, in whom the fee and inheritance of said lands was then vested, to John Goodbody, in whom the interest in said lease was then vested, for the lives of the aforesaid Joshua Strangman, Jonathan Gatchell, and Launcelot Croasdale as by the said several indentures may more fully appear: and whereas the right, title, and interest of the said Thomas Strangman and Joshua Strangman has, by mesne assignment, or otherwise, come to, and is now legally vested in me, John Strangman, of the City of Waterford: and whereas John Goodbody, the eldest son of John Goodbody, who is dead, claims to be entitled to all right, title, and interest of said Wm. Goodbody, the original lessee, and said John Goodbody, under said lease and renewal: and whereas all the lives in the said lease and renewal thereof are dead: and whereas there is now due and owing to me, the said John Strangman, a large sum as and for renewal fines under said lease: and whereas I, the said John Strangman, am unable to discover where the said John Goodbody now is, and in consequence thereof I am unable to make a demand of the said sum so due for fines, on the said John Goodbody: and whereas, in consequence of such inability, I, the said John Strangman, did, by my Agent, on the 6th day of January instant, make a demand of said fines on the said lands so contained in said lease, from Isaac Pattenson, William Goodbody, William Strong, and Edward McEvoy, the principal tenants who were then, and still are, the principal occupiers of said lands, and which demand has not been since complied with:

Now I, John Strangman, do, in pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided, give you, the said John Goodbody, and all others concerned, notice, that I, the said John Strangman, did, by my Agent, on the said 6th day of January instant, demand the payment of the fines now due under the said lease, upon the said lands, from the said Isaac Pattenson, William Goodbody, William Strong, and Edward McEvoy, principal tenants, who then were, and still are, the principal occupiers thereof: and I do also give notice, that such demand has not been complied with; and also, I do hereby demand, require, and call upon you, said John Goodbody, and all other persons concerned therein, to pay all arrears of renewal fines and interest thereon, due and owing for said lands and premises, to which I am now entitled under said lease, or in default thereof, within a reasonable time from the date hereof, I will hold myself exonerated from said covenant of renewal in said lease, and will not renew the same.—Dated this 6th day of January 1834.

JOHN STRANGMAN.
