

named, signify their acceptance of the provision made for them; notice is hereby given, that the deed of assignment is left for the signatures of the Creditors at the Office of Messrs. Bayley and Newby, Solicitors, Stockton, to whom all accounts against the said Thomas Sudron, and letters accepting the said provision, must be forwarded.—Stockton, 8th March 1834.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

THE Creditors of Mr. William Woodall, of Shrewsbury, in the County of Salop, Brazier, who have not already sent in their accounts and executed a certain indenture, bearing date the 18th day of November 1833, being an assignment of his estate and effects, for the benefit of his Creditors, are requested to send in the same and to execute the said indenture, or signify their assent in writing to take the benefit thereof, at the Office of Messrs. George and John Harries, Accountants, Shrewsbury, on or before the 7th day of April 1834, or they will be excluded the benefit arising therefrom; and notice is hereby given, that on the 9th day of April next, the accounts of the Assignees will be audited, and a final dividend will be made of the estate and effects of the said William Woodall.—March 8, 1834.

WHEREAS Francis Earle, of Boroughbridge, in the County of York, Innkeeper, hath by indenture, dated the 5th day of February last past, assigned over to a Trustee therein named, all his personal estate and effects, upon trust, for the equal benefit of such Trustee and all other the Creditors of the said Francis Earle who shall execute the said indenture within three calendar months from the date thereof; notice is hereby given, that the said deed is lodged at the Office of Mr. William Hirst, Solicitor, in Boroughbridge aforesaid, for signature by the Creditors of the said Francis Earle; and that such of them as shall refuse or neglect to execute the same as aforesaid will be excluded all benefit arising therefrom.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Robert Shaw, of the Parish of Saint Margaret's, Lynn Regis, in the County of Norfolk, Corn-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 4th day of April next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to prosecute by, and out of the proceeds of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, a certain suit instituted by the said Bankrupt before his Bankruptcy against a certain Insurance Company, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of a large sum of money from such company upon certain policies of assurance effected upon the premises of the Bankrupt, situate in the Parish of Saint Margaret's, Lynn Regis aforesaid, which were accidentally burnt down and destroyed by fire, and the insurance money upon which policies such company had refused to pay to the said Bankrupt upon being applied to for payment thereof, if the Assignees shall in their discretion see fit and shall be advised so to prosecute the said suit to trial; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees joining or concurring with the several Mortgagees, to be named at such meeting, in the sale and disposition of the Bankrupt's freehold, leasehold, or copyhold estates, situate in the several Parishes of Saint Margaret's, Lynn Regis, and West Winch, both in the said County of Norfolk, upon which any such mortgages have been made and executed by the said Bankrupt prior to his said Bankruptcy, either by public auction or private contract as the said Assignees and Mortgagees respectively may so concur in selling, and out of the proceeds to arise and be produced therefrom to allow and pay off such Mortgagees and the principal and interest respectively secured, or expressed to be secured, thereby, and the costs and charges incident to and for carrying such sale or sales into complete effect, and either together or in separate lots as to the said Assignees and Mortgagees respectively shall be deemed most eligible and proper for the interest of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees in case any question of priority shall arise as to the right of any or either of the persons claiming to be legal or equitable Mortgagees, and to be paid out of the proceeds in preference to the other or others of them, to enter into any arrangement for the sale of the said premises and investing the moneys so in dispute to be hereafter paid to such person or persons as may be ultimately found to be entitled thereto, by any decision of a court of law or equity in case any dispute, suit, or action, shall be instituted by either of the parties to establish his or their respective right thereto, and in or to which the Assignees may be made or become parties thereto; and also to the said Assignees joining and concurring in and executing any conveyance, assignment, or surrender, of the same premises to the purchaser or respective purchasers of the same premises, or either of them, or to their buying in and reselling the said estates, with the consent and approbation of the respective Mortgagees thereof, without being liable to make good any loss or deficiency, if any, which may arise or happen thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's household goods and furniture, stock, plate, linen, fixtures, goods, and chattels of or belonging to the Bankrupt's late establishment at West Winch aforesaid, or at Saint Margaret's, Lynn Regis aforesaid, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, as to them shall seem most proper and beneficial to the interest of the said Bankrupt's estate, and to give such time and take such reasonable security for the payment of the purchase moneys, or any part thereof, as to them shall seem discreet and proper, without being personally liable for any loss which may eventually happen by taking any such security or securities; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and reimbursing, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, all such reasonable costs and expenses to the petitioning Creditor which he hath been subjected to and is liable to pay in endeavouring to find out and ascertain to what place or places the Bankrupt had fled; and the amount of moneys he might have been supposed to have taken with him, with a view to pursue him and get back the same, and to compel the Bankrupt's return to give an account of his estate and effects, and the extra costs and expenses the petitioning Creditor has been subjected to, previous to the issuing of the Fiat, in procuring evidence to support the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery or defence of any part of the Bankrupt's estate or effects, or prosecuting, defending, opposing, or answering, any petition or petitions to the Judges of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, or to the Lord High Chancellor, for the recovery or defence of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any mortgages, liens, or incumbrances thereon, or otherwise relating thereto; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, any matter, cause, or thing, relating to the said Bankrupt's property or estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Solomon Phillips, of Russell-Street, Bermondsey, in the County of Surrey, Furrier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 8th day of April next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing to certain persons, to be named at such meeting, certain sums of money by way of payment or remuneration to them for information leading to the recovery of property or money, forming part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing to Mr. Edward Lawrance, of Bucklersbury, in the City of London, the Solicitor for the said Fiat, the costs and charges incurred by him, prior to the issuing of the said Fiat, in investigating the affairs of the said Bankrupt upon the retainer of certain Creditors, and also his costs in relation to certain proceedings at law taken against the said Bankrupt, and in endeavouring to apprehend him; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing or reimbursing to themselves all such costs, charges, and expenses which they may have sustained or incurred, or shall sustain or incur, in transmitting one of more letter or letters of attorney to New York, or elsewhere, in the United States of America, for the purpose of recovering any portion of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and in relation thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action at law, or suit in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate of the said Bankrupt, and in relation thereto; and to their compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any other matter or thing relating to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects.
