

Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 9th day of April next, at the George Inn, in Dale-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing actions or suits against any person or persons upon or in respect of certain bills of exchange which were in the hands of the Bankrupts at the time of their Bankruptcy, or in the hands of their correspondents, Messrs. Jones, Loyd and Co. or compromising and settling such actions or suits, or to their giving up to the claimants the said bills, or any of them, on such terms and conditions as the said Assignees may consider beneficial; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising, compounding, submitting to arbitration, giving time for, or otherwise arranging any debts, claims or demands due, owing, or belonging to the joint estate of the said Bankrupts, and to authorise and empower the said Assignees to dispose of, by auction or private treaty, the estate, plantations, negroes, debts, and other property and effects of the said Thomas Fletcher, in the Island of Jamaica, or to postpone the sale of the same, and receive the composition-money to be awarded in respect of the slaves, or to act otherwise in respect of the said property, slaves and effects as the Assignees may see fit, with discretion to appoint an agent or attorney in Jamaica, with full powers; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees retaining the life-interest of the Bankrupt, Francis Fletcher, under his marriage settlement, or selling the same by auction or private contract, or entering into an arrangement, composition, or compromise with the trustees of the said settlement, or other persons, in respect of the same, or to commence any suit in equity or other proceeding in relation thereto; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling by private contract, at such price or prices as they shall think proper, any part of the real or personal estate, effects or property of the said Bankrupts, or any of them, with power to fix certain prices or sums as proper reserved biddings to be placed upon the property of the said Bankrupts respectively, and to buy in the same at those sums; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees executing any deed of inspection, letters of licence, assignment, trust disposition, composition, or release, for the compromising or settling their claims or demands, or the claims or demands of any other person or persons, as they shall see fit; and to take into consideration and give directions touching such other matters and things relative to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts as shall be then laid before the Creditors; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 18th day of March

1834, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

ELIZABETH ANNÉ BEECRAFT, of No. 11, Curzon-Street, May-Fair, in the County of Middlesex, Embroiderer and Seller of Embroidery, that she is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet her engagements with her creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for Enlarging the Time for George Augustus Brown, of Dock-Head, Shad-Thames, in the County of Surrey, Baker, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, from Friday the 28th day of March instant, to Tuesday the 8th day of April next; this is to give notice, that John Samuel Martin Fonblanque, Esq. one of the Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy, authorised to act under a Fiat in Bankruptcy issued against the said George Augustus Brown, will sit on the said 8th day of April next, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London; when and where the said Bankrupt is required to surrender himself, before Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the Creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and, with those who have already proved their debts, are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 14th day of December 1833, was awarded and issued forth against John White-side, late of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, rescinded and annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Francis Parry, of No. 14, Brunswick-Place North, Brighton, in the County of Sussex, Tailor, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Edward Holroyd, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 25th day of March instant, at One in the Afternoon precisely, and on the 29th of April next, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and when the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to Mr. Edward Edwards, 4, Pancras-Lane, Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and give notice to Mr. George Archer, Solicitor, 1, Featherstone-Buildings, Holborn.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Thomas Warland, of Steward-Street, Spital-Fields, in the City of London, Silk-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. a Commissioner of His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 24th day of March instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, and on the 29th day of April next, at Ten in the Forenoon precisely at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects are not to pay or deliver the same, but to whom the Commissioners may appoint, but give notice to Messrs. Burfoot, Solicitors, King's Bench-Walk, Temple, or to Mr. W. Whitmore, 2, Basinghall-Street, the Official Assignee.
