

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 20. to Monday March 24. 1683.

Warsaw, February 18.

OUR Letters from Cracow of the 12th Instant inform us, That the King intended to part from thence as yesterday for Niemirów, a place on the Frontiers of Podolia, to give the necessary Orders concerning the Siege of Caminitz, which his Majesty has resolved to undertake so soon as the Weather will permit it. That the new Hospodars of Moldavia and Walachia, were with the assistance of the Poles and the Cossacks established in their Governments, and that it was hoped the Transilvians would follow their Example and put themselves under the Protection of the Crown of Poland. That the Conferences at Smolensko were like to have a very happy conclusion. And that the Ambassador which the Emperor is sending to the Czars of Moscow, was expected there, having orders to see those Commissioners, and to open to them the Subject of his Embassy. That Count Teckelej had sent to acquaint the King of Poland that he had quitted the Siege of Ungwar; And to excuse the Hostilities which his Troops committed some time ago upon his Majesties Forces; but that the King had taken little notice thereof, declaring he did look upon the said Count as his Enemy, and had commanded his Troops to treat him as such.

Venice, March 4. By a Vessel arrived from Zant we have advice, that three Venetian Barques meeting with two Vessels belonging to the Pirates of St. Maur, they had taken one, in which was 40 Turks, and had forced the other ashore. From Dalmatia they write, that the Morlaques whose number encreases daily, continue their Incurfions into the Turkish Territories from whence they returned for the most part with a great deal of Booty. Great preparations are making here for the War against the Turks, and we are assured the Republick besides their Naval Forces, will have an Army in Dalmatia. Prince Alexander d'Este General of the Horse of this State, brings a Body of Cavalry into their Service. And the Prince of Parma General of their Foot, raises 3000 men. From Rome they tell us, that the great care of the Pope is, to raise Moneys for the assistance of the Emperor and the King of Poland, and that he hath lately sent a very considerable supply to the latter.

Dantzick, March 8. We have Letters from Moscow, which tell us, that there appeared a great disposition in the Ministers of that Court to enter into a League with the Emperor and the King of Poland against the Turks, which the Swedish Envoy at Moscow did very much endeavour to confirm them in. From Cracow they write, that the King of Poland intended to part from thence towards the end of this Month, and to go to Lebpoł or some other place towards the Frontiers of Podolia, to settle several affairs, with relation to the Cossacks, as well as to view his Troops which are to be employed in the Siege of Caminitz.

Ratisbonne, March 8. The Dyet is taken up with the Difficulties arisen by the Count de Windisgratz pretending to the Quality of the Emperor's Principal Commissioner, and to the Title of Excellency, which it's said according to antient Custom cannot be given but to one that is a Prince of the Empire. The Count de Crecy has presented a Memorial to the Dyet, wherein he communicates to them the Propositions which his Most Christian Majesty has made for the Determining the differences between him and the King of Spain by a Peace or a Truce.

Vienna, March 10. Our Letters from Presbourg inform us, that several Towns of Hungary had sent their Deputies thither; and that the Count Bukiani, the Count Drozkowitz, and the Count Bradedi, who have quitted Count Teckelej's Interests, were likewise arrived there, and have taken a new Oath of Fidelity to the Emperor, and that it was not doubted but many others would follow their example. The Duke of Lorraine will return to Lintz about the 20th of this Month, where his Presence begins to be very necessary to prepare things for the next Campaign. From Graz they write that a Polander, who pretends to have been some time among the Turks, was arrived there, and reported, That the Turks do make their utmost Efforts to bring a very great Army into the Field, and that the Grand Signior at the perswasion of some of the Chief Bassa's, had declared he will command it in Person, which it was believed was only given out to content the Janisaries, who are very much dissatisfied.

Lintz, March 10. Count Wallastaine the Emperors Ambassador to the King of Poland, will part from hence in few days, that he may reach Cracow before the King of Poland leaves that place, which according to our last Letters from thence, his Majesty intended to do presently after Easter. Count Serini, General of the Elector of Bavaria's Troops, parted from hence the last week for Municke: We are assured that that Elector will have an Army of Twenty thousand Men in the Field this Summer, with which it's said will join the Troops of the Circles of Bavaria and Franconia. It is confirmed from Hungary