TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1834.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of March 1834,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, c. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training, and to regulate the quotas, of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th day of April 1834,

By a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty under the authority of an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" have transmitted to the Lord President of the Council certain general rules framed by the said Commissioners, under the 47th and 55th clauses of the said Act; and whereas the said rules have been laid by the Lord President of the Council before His Majesty in Council, who has been pleased to refer the same to this Committee:

It is, thereupon, ordered by their Lordships, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, that the said rules (which are hereunto annexed) be published three times in the London Gazette:

And their Lordships are pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all persons interested in or affected by such general rules may, within six months from this date, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
