TUESDAY, MAY 27, 1834.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 16, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty has been pleased to command, that at the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls at St. James's-Palace, the Master of the Horse, the Master of the Buck Hounds, the Equerries and the Pages of Honour, and all Officers of the Navy and Army, Militia and Yeomanry, the Lord Lieutenants of counties and Deputy Lieutenants, should appear in uniform trowsers and boots agreeably to regulation.

And that all persons belonging to their Majesties Households, and all others who wear the civil uniform, are on similar occasions to appear in shoes with buckles, and breeches with knee buckles.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 21, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday next the 28th instant, being for the celebration of His Majesty's Birth-day, the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, May 24, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 28th instant.

Some Ladies having appeared at the Queen's

Drawing-Rooms in hats and bonnets and feathers, and such head dresses being contrary to Court etiquette; notice is hereby given, that all Ladies attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms must appear with feathers and lappets, in conformity with the established order.

The Drawing-Room on the 28th instant, being for the celebration of the King's Birth-day, no presentations can take place.

*Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace,
May 23, 1834.*

BY command of His Majesty, notice is hereby given, that all carriages going to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 28th of May, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, in Piccadilly, go down the left hand side of the street, round the corner of Pall-mall, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, and come out of the Palace-yard by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square. In taking up, they are to come down St. James's-street in like manner, passing through the same gate as when they set down, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney coaches will be permitted to come within the iron gates, but must set down at the outside thereof, and go away through Pall-mall.

The gate at the top of Constitution-hill will be open only for carriages of persons having the entrée, which are to proceed down Constitution-hill, and enter the Palace at the Stable-yard gate, turn into the Ambassadors'-court, set down at the Arcade, and go out at the gateway in Cleveland-row; turn to the left, and wait in Cleveland-row, the Stable-yard, or St. James's-park, till called for; then to take up in the same order as they had set down, pass away through the same gateway, and go up the left hand side of St. James's-street. The carriages of Ambassadors, the Ministers, and Great Officers of State, may remain in the Ambassadors' court till called for.

Whitehall, May 27, 1834.

THE following Address to the King having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Commissioners of Supply of the county of Renfrew, in County Hall assembled, at their annual general meeting, held at Renfrew this 30th April 1834, beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of our attachment to your Royal Person, Crown, and Dignity.

We further desire humbly to express to your august Majesty our warmest approbation of the measures recently vouchsafed by your Majesty, with a view to simplify the forms and lessen the expence attending the administration of justice, in all its departments, in this portion of your dominions.

May your Majesty's reign over a free, loyal, and enlightened people be long and prosperous.

Signed by the Chairman, in name of, and by the appointment of, the Meeting,

Wm. Fleming, Chairman.

Borough of Dungarvan.

Ebenezer Jacob, Esq.

Whitehall, May 27, 1834.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John Poyer Griffith the elder, of Russell-place, Fitzroy-square, in the parish of St. Pancras and county of Middlesex, Esq. on behalf of his only son, John Poyer Griffith the younger, a minor, of the age of twenty years, His royal licence and authority that he, the said John Poyer Griffith the younger, may (in compliance with the will of his great uncle, John Poyer, some time of Russell-place aforesaid, Esq. deceased) henceforth take, use, and bear the surname of Poyer, instead of that of Griffith, and also bear the arms of Poyer; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

The Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas has appointed Thomas Drew the elder, of Newtown, in the county of Montgomery, Gent. to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgment of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Montgomery.

CONTRACT FOR PIG LEAD.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, May 15, 1834.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 5th of June next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-yard at Chatham with Pig Lead.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £2000, for the due performance of the contract.

Office of Ordnance, May 23, 1834.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that a quantity of will be sold by public auction, in the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, on the 10th June next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

Each variety of article is lotted separately, and in such quantities as will afford consumers an opportunity of purchasing them; this sale is consequently worthy the attention of postmasters, coach proprietors, and agriculturists; for whose purposes many of the articles are well adapted. The traces are suitable for plough traces, and the park pickets for temporary fences to confine cattle.

May be viewed from ten to four o'clock, any day previous to the sale, except the 28th and 29th May. Catalogues may be had at the Ordnance-Office, Pall-Mall; Tower of London; and Royal Arsenal, Woolwich.

By order of the Board,
R. Byham, Secretary.

East India-House, May 21, 1834.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That in consequence of the closing of the books previous to the issue of the dividends, no applications for discounting Carnatic Stock will be received after the 27th instant, for the first class, and after the 3d of June, for the second class of that Stock.

Peter Auber, Secretary.

Royal Exchange Assurance-Office,
May 21, 1834.

THE Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Assurance do hereby give notice, that their transfer-books will be shut from Thursday the 5th of June next to Tuesday the 8th of July following; and that a General Court of the said Corporation will be holden at their Office, on Wednesday the 18th of June next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to consider of a dividend.

Samuel Fenning, Secretary.

The chair will be taken at twelve o'clock precisely.

N. B. Attendance is given daily at the said Office, and at their Office in Pall-Mall, for the assurance of buildings, goods, merchandize, and ships in harbour, in dock, or while building, from loss or damage by fire; and also for the assurance of, and granting annuities on, lives.

Atlas Assurance-Office, London,
May 23, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual General Court of Proprietors will be held at the Company's temporary Office, 10, Coleman-street, on Wednesday the 2d day of July next, at one o'clock precisely, pursuant to the deed of settlement, to receive the report of the President and Court of Directors; to elect four Directors and two Auditors, in the room of those who go out of office; and to declare a dividend.

Henry Desborough, Secretary.

N. B. The Proprietors are informed, that the Directors and Auditors are eligible to be re-elected.

Office of the Gas Light and Coke Company, New Bridge-Street, Blackfriars, London, May 23, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Special General Court of the Proprietors of this Company will be held at this Office, on Wednesday the 18th day of June next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, pursuant to the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the election of three Directors of this Company for four years, in the room of the Governor, Deputy Governor, and one Director (all of whom are eligible to be re-elected), who will then go out of office by efflux of time; and should a ballot be required, it will continue open for four hours from its commencement.

By order of the Court of Directors,
Charles Burls, Secretary.

N. B. The chair will be taken at twelve o'clock precisely, and none but Proprietors admitted.

London, May 26, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an account of the seizors' moiety of the hull and cargo of the Spanish schooner Velos Marianna, captured by the officers and crew of His Majesty's sloop Curlew, on the 27th April 1833, and of the bounty-money granted for the release of certain slaves on board at the time of capture, will be delivered into the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, on the 6th of June next, as directed by Act of Parliament.

A freehold messuage or tenement wherein the trade of a Baker was for many years past carried on by the late Mr. Thomas Collard, with a bake-house, yard, and other conveniences for conducting such business, and in which the said premises are now employed, situate in King-Street, Ramsgate, and now in the occupation of Mrs. Susanna Collard, Widow.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. John Mourilyan, Solicitor, Sandwich, Kent; of Messrs. Hall, Bishop, and Mourilyan, Solicitors, 42, Great James-Street, Bedford-Row, London; of Mr. Thomas King, Solicitor, Ramsgate; of Mr. George Redaway, Solicitor, 2, Exeter-Street, Strand, London; and of Mr. George Hinds, Auctioneer, Thanet Auction-Rooms, Ramsgate.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Johnson versus Robinson, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Wednesday the 9th day of July 1834, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in two lots;

A valuable leasehold estate, consisting of a capital messuage or mansion-house, situate No. 4, Stratford-Place, in the Parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, and County of Middlesex, held under a lease for 61 years (wanting 21 days) from Christmas 1827, now in the occupation of George William Tapps, Esq. as lessee thereof, for the term of 21 years from the 25th day of December 1825, at the yearly rent of £300.

And a copyhold piece of insular land, surrounded by the River Thames, known by the name of North-Hill, or Gilbert's Ayle, within the Manor of Hampton-Court, in the County of Middlesex, containing, by estimation, one acre, more or less, now let to Mr. Sparks, as tenant at will, at the yearly rent of £5.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. J. J. Johnson, Solicitor, 22, Duke-Street, Gosvenor-Square; of Mr. Alfred Robinson, Solicitor, 17, Orchard-Street, Portman-Square; and at the King's Arms Inn, Hampton-Court aforesaid.

WHEREAS Thomas Ruddach, late of the Island of Tobago, Merchant, by his will, dated the 30th day of June 1796, which was proved in the Court of Ordinary, in the said Island, on the 27th day of February 1799, and in the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury, on the 6th day of August 1800, gave and bequeathed as follows:

"I give and direct that my Executors, as soon as possible, after my decease, pay unto Elizabeth Campbell, free Mulatto woman, the sum of 30 joes, and immediately purchase such negroes as she may point out to the value of £150. sterling, which negroes are during her life to belong to her, and at her death to be the property of my daughter Eliza, by the said woman, if she should survive her mother but if not then to be the property of the said Elizabeth Campbell and her heirs."

"I desire that my Executors will pay the sum of £30. sterling annually during the life of my said child Eliza towards its maintenance and education (as in the said will mentioned)."

"I desire my Executors to give Paulin and Rose, two of my negro girls, five joes each, and I wish all my old clothes to be divided among my negroes."

"I give and bequeath unto Daniel King, in trust, for his children the sum of £300. sterling."

"I also give and bequeath unto Daniel Campbell 100 guineas."

"And to Mrs. Campbell, Thomas M'Knight, James Morrison, and Walter Irvine, 30 guineas each, to be laid out in some trinket in remembrance of me."

"I also desire that 10 guineas be paid to Andrew Thompson, to be laid out as above, as a mark of my approbation of his conduct since he has been with me;"

And whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, dated the 21st day of March 1834, and made in a certain cause wherein Robert Steuart Ruddell and others are the complainants, and Babington Nolan and others are the defendants, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether the annuities and legacies bequeathed by the said Testator were satisfied and discharged; pursuant, therefore, to the said Order all persons claiming to be entitled to any annuity, legacy, or legacies, under the said will are, by Solicitors of the said Court, forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and substantiate their claims, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

IN pursuance of an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Riddell versus Riddell, whereby it is referred to Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether, upon the sale of certain hereditaments and premises at Still's-Lane, otherwise St. George's-Place, and the Oxtall-Ground, at Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, by John Riddell, late of Cheltenham aforesaid, Esq. to Robert Morris, of the same place, Banker, or, upon the occasion of any other sale or sales to any other and what person or persons, or upon any other and what occasion the said John Riddell executed to the said Robert Morris, or to any other person or persons, any and what indemnity or indemnities, either by bond, covenant, or otherwise, in respect of the claim of Rose Riddell, the widow of the said John Riddell, for her dower, of and in the said hereditaments and premises:—all persons holding or claiming under such indemnity or indemnities as aforesaid, are hereby required forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his or their claim or claims in respect thereof, that they may not be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Trivitt against Benson, the Creditors of Robert How, late of Great Queen-Street, Lincoln's-Inn, in the County of Middlesex, Coach-Maker, and of Lampton, in the Parish of Heston, in the same County (who died in the month of February 1831), are, on or before the 26th day of June 1834, to come in and prove their debts before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Jones against Jones, all persons claiming to be incumbrancers upon that portion of the real estate of Thomas Jones, late of Redland, in the Parish of Westbury-upon-Lyne, in the County of Gloucester, D.
