AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of June 1834,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no part of the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling therein mentioned shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein mentioned, for the benefit of any person now entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein mentioned, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act of Parliament by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; and whereas on the eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, an Ordinance was enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy of the colony of British Guiana, intituled "An Ordinance for the government and regulation of apprenticed labourers;" and whereas the said Ordinance was so enacted with the design of giving effect to the said Act of Parliament by such further and supplementary enactments as in the said Act are mentioned; His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in and by the said Act of Parliament in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, by this present Order declare, and it is hereby declared, that except in so far as certain parts of the said Ordinance are hereinafter disallowed, and except in so far as certain parts of the said Ordinance are hereinafter amended by the substitution of other provisions in lieu thereof, the said Ordinance is approved, confirmed and allowed, and finally enacted; and that by the said Ordinance, so in part disallowed and so amended as aforesaid, adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made in British Guiana for giving effect to the said Act of Parliament by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned and required:-

And whereas it is by the said Ordinance, amongst other things, enacted, that the colony of British Guiana shall be divided into not less than fourteen judicial districts, now it is hereby ordered, that for the word fourteen, as occurring in the said enactment, the word twelve shall be substituted; and that the said Ordinance, and each and every part thereof, shall be construed and carried into execution in such and the same manner as if the word twelve had been, and the word fourteen had not been, employed in the said enactment:

And whereas certain schedules, marked respectively with the letters P and Q, are subjoined to and referred to in the said Ordinance, now, it is hereby ordered, that for the said schedule marked with the letter P, shall be substituted the schedule hereunto annexed, marked with the letter X, and that for the said schedule marked with the letter Q, shall be substituted the schedule hereunto annexed marked with the letter Y; and that the said Ordinance and each and every part thereof, shall be construed and carried into execution in such and the same manner as if the said schedules marked X and Y had been, and the said schedules marked P and Q had not been, subjoined to and referred to in the said Ordinance.

And whereas it is by the said Ordinance, amongst other things, enacted, that the privates in each settlement therein mentioned shall receive pay at the rate of        per diem, and the serjeant shall be paid at the rate of        per diem, now, therefore, the said last recited enactment is hereby disallowed; and it is hereby ordered, that the pay of the serjeants and privates of each police settlement within the said colony shall, from time to time, be determined by and according to such Ordinances as shall from time to time be for that purpose enacted by the officer administering the government of the said colony, with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, such Ordinances being so made subject to His Majesty's approbation or disallowance as in other cases.

And whereas it is in and by the said Ordinance, amongst other things, enacted, that every such employer or manager of slaves as therein mentioned shall, at the time, and in the manner therein mentioned, deliver a certain schedule marked with the letter O; and whereas in the said enactment the word slaves hath by inadvertence been employed instead of the words apprenticed labourers, it is, therefore, further ordered, that for the word slaves, as occurring in the said enactment, the words apprenticed labourers shall be substituted, and that the said Ordinance, and each and every part thereof, shall be construed and carried into execution in such and the same manner as if the words apprenticed labourers had been, and as if the word slaves had not been, employed in the said enactment.

And whereas it is by the said Ordinance, amongst other things, enacted, that every non-prædial apprenticed labourer shall be bound and obliged to work and labour ten hours in each and every day in the year, with such exceptions as therein mentioned, in the service, and for the benefit of his or her employer; and it is thereby declared that a day's labour of a non-prædial apprenticed labourer shall be such a portion of specified work as can be performed by each non-prædial apprenticed labourer by assiduous and steady industry during the space of ten hours; now, it is further ordered, that for the word ten, as twice occurring in the said enactment, the word nine shall be substituted, and that the said Ordinance, and each and every part thereof, shall be construed and carried into execution in such and the same manner as if the word nine had been, and as if the word ten had not been, so twice employed in the said enactment.

And whereas it is by the said Ordinance, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for such district sessions as therein mentioned to adjudge such extra labour as therein mentioned, if necessary, to be performed after the expiration of such apprenticeship as therein mentioned, and that if such labour shall be adjudged to be performed after the expiration of the apprenticeship, then it shall be lawful to adjudge such fifteen hours per week, as therein mentioned, to be performed in addition to the number of seven hours and a half per day, to be reckoned a part of the number of hours adjudged to be performed, until the whole shall in like manner have been completed; now, it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Ordinance as last aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby disallowed.

And whereas it is by the said Ordinance enacted, that if any employer of any apprenticed labourer shall whip, beat, imprison, confine in the stocks, or otherwise maltreat any such apprenticed labourer, or shall by way of punishment, commit any assault upon his person, such employer shall incur a penalty to be imposed by the district session of Special Justices, not exceeding £20, with imprisonment for any time not exceeding one month in default of the payment of such fine; and that in any case as last aforesaid it shall be competent to such district sessions to award the whole or any part of such penalty to the apprenticed labourer injured, as and for damages for such assault, and that it shall also be competent to such district sessions, if the case be of an aggravated nature, if it shall seem meet, to abstain from imposing such penalty and to commit the offender to take his trial for such offence before either of the Supreme Courts of the colony having jurisdiction in the premises; and whereas doubts might arise whether consistently with the provisions last aforesaid it would be competent to any such apprenticed labourer as aforesaid to maintain any civil suit or action against such his or her employer for, or in respect of, any such injury as aforesaid, and doubts might also arise whether, consistently with such provisions any prosecution could be commenced in either of the Supreme Courts aforesaid against any such employer as aforesaid, for any such offence as aforesaid, unless the offender were committed to take his trial for such offence by such district sessions; now, for the removal of any such doubts it is further ordered and declared, that it is and shall be competent for any such labourer as aforesaid to maintain any civil suit or action against his or her employer for any such whipping, beating, imprisonment, confinement in the stocks, maltreatment, or assault as aforesaid, and that any such employer shall for any such offence be subject and liable to be prosecuted, tried, convicted, and punished, before either of the Supreme Courts of the said colony having jurisdiction in the premises, although he or she may not have been committed to take his or her trial for such offence by such district sessions, any thing in the said Ordinance to the contrary contained notwithstanding: provided nevertheless, and it is further ordered, that when and so often as any such employer shall, upon the complaint of any such apprenticed labourer as aforesaid, have been sentenced by any such district sessions to any such penalty as aforesaid, or shall by such district sessions have been committed to take his or her trial for any such offence as aforesaid, it shall not be competent for any such labourer as aforesaid to maintain any such civil suit or action as aforesaid for and in respect of the same act, matter, or thing.

And whereas it is by the said Ordinance, amongst other things, enacted, that every apprenticed labourer found beyond the limits of the district to which he or she belongs, or in which he or she may be employed, except in his or her way to or from some place of public worship on Sundays, and not having with him or her a written pass for that purpose from his or her employer, or from a Special Justice of such district, shall be liable to be apprehended and detained, and shall on proof and conviction that he or she shall have left his or her district without a pass be adjudged a vagabond and punished accordingly: provided, however, that it shall be competent to every apprenticed labourer of his or her own free will, and without a pass, to attend, during his or her own time, any market of the district in which he or she may reside; be it therefore, and it is hereby ordered, that so much as last aforesaid of the said Ordinance shall be and the same is hereby disallowed:

And it is further ordered, that if any apprenticed labourer shall be found at any place distant more than five miles from his place of residence, not having with him a written pass for that purpose from his or her employer, or from some one or more of the Special Justices of the district to which he or she belongs, such apprenticed labourer shall be liable to be apprehended and taken before any Special Justice, and upon proof before such Justice made of the facts aforesaid, such apprenticed labourer shall be adjudged a vagabond and punished accordingly; provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein, or in the said Ordinance contained, shall subject to any such punishment any apprenticed labourer absenting himself or herself without such pass as aforesaid, at any distance within the said colony from his or her residence during any time in which he or she may not be bound to labour in the service of his or her employer, if such apprenticed labourer shall be so absent in the prosecution of his or her lawful business, or in attendance upon, or in the way to or from, any place of public worship, and shall establish to the satisfaction of any Special Justice before whom he or she may be so brought, that his or her absence took place during such time only, and was occasioned only by any such cause only as aforesaid.

And whereas it is by the said Ordinance, amongst other things, enacted, that the right or interest of any employer or employers to and in the services of any such apprenticed labourer aforesaid, shall pass and be transferrable by bargain and sale, contract, deed, conveyance, will, or descent, according to the provisions of the said Act of Parliament; and whereas doubts might arise whether such right or interest would also be liable to be seized and taken in execution and sold under process of law in satisfaction of any sentence or judgment of any Court of competent jurisdiction, now, for the removal of such doubts, be it further enacted and declared, that such right and interest as aforesaid, is and shall be liable to be seized and taken in execution and sold under process of law in satisfaction of any sentence or judgment of any Court of competent jurisdiction; provided always that no such apprenticed labourer shall, under and by virtue of any such seizure or sale in execution, be liable to be dealt with in any manner prohibited by the said Act of Parliament or Ordinance, or deprived, or be debarred from the exercise of any right by the said Act of Parliament or Ordinance, or by this present Order, in such apprenticed labourer vested.

And the Right Honourable Thomas Spring Rice, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Office of Commissioners of Compensation,
No. 25, Great George-street, Westminster, May 16, 1834.

GENERAL RULES under the 55th Clause of the Act, 3d and 4th Will. 4th, c. 73, for the Colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius.

WHEREAS by an Act, of the 3d and 4th Will. 4, c. 73, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" the Commissioners to be appointed thereby for apportioning and distributing the compensation provided by the said Act, are authorised and required by the 55th clause to frame and publish general rules, to be confirmed, allowed, and enrolled, as thereby directed, prescribing the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring their claims under the said Act, upon the prosecution of such claims, and in making any opposition to the same, and for the conduct of the proceedings under the said Commission:

We, therefore, the undersigned Commissioners, in obedience to the directions of the said 55th clause, have drawn up and framed, in so far as relates to the colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius, the following

RULES:

1st. That all persons in possession of and claiming compensation for any slave or slaves to be manumitted under the said Act, shall prefer their claims before the Assistant Commissioners in the said colonies in which the said slave or slaves are registered or settled, within three months after the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, at the Cape of Good Hope, and within three months after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, at Mauritius, in the form hereunto annexed, marked (B).

2d. That every such claim shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Registrar of Slaves of the colony in which such claim shall be made, that the number of slaves mentioned in such claim (except any increase by birth since the last registry, as mentioned at the foot of such claim), are duly registered, together with the name or names of the person or persons by whom such slave or slaves have been registered; and in case the property in any slave or slaves shall have been changed, between the last registration and the first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, at the Cape of Good Hope, and the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, at Mauritius; the claimant must briefly state his title from the person in whose name the slaves were last registered.

3d. That the said Assistant Commissioners shall from time to time, with all convenient speed, after receipt thereof, make out complete lists of all such claims according to the form following, that is to say:

Name and Description of Claimant, or person in possession of the Slaves.	Plantation, or other Domicile of Slaves.	Number of Slaves.

and shall cause the same to be published in the different newspapers of the said colony, or shall make the same known in such manner as to them shall seem most effectual for giving notice of the subject of such claim, to all parties interested therein, in all parts of the said colony.

4th. That such claims for compensation be made to the Assistant Commissioners, in the said colonies, in duplicate, and that one part be transmitted by them to the Commissioners in London, and filed in their office, and the other kept and filed in the office of the Assistant Commissioners.

5th. That any person having, or claiming to have, any right, title, or interest in or to or any mortgage, judgment, charge, incumbrance, or lien upon any slave or slaves included in such claims, or any right, title, or interest thereto, under or by virtue of any deed, will, testamentary instrument, or conveyance whatsoever, or in any other manner whatsoever, and claiming to receive the compensation for such slave or slaves, or any of them, in opposition to the original claimant, shall prefer a counter claim before the Assistant Commissioners in the said colonies on or before the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five at the Cape of Good Hope, and on or before the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, at Mauritius.

6th. That in case no original claim shall have been filed before the Assistant Commissioners in the said colonies within the times limited by the first rule for that purpose, any person claiming a right to receive the compensation, or any part thereof, under the fifth rule, may prefer his claim thereto before the said Assistant Commissioners, instead of a counter claim, and such claim shall be deemed and taken and be made in the same form, and be subject to the same rules of proceeding in all respects as a counter claim, and with the same liberty of replying thereto as hereinafter directed, as if an original claim had been preferred.

7th. That in cases in which no counter claim shall have been preferred in the said colonies within the respective times in the 5th rule mentioned, the Assistant Commissioners within the said colonies shall report the amount of compensation which may appear to them to be due upon each of the several claims, on application of the parties, or their agents, and transmit forthwith copies or lists of such several reports to the Commissioners in London, who may thereupon proceed to award the compensation according to the several claims upon the application of the parties or their agents.

8th. That in all cases in which a counter claim for the whole or any part of the compensation shall be preferred, such counter claim shall set forth the estate or interest, right or title, intended to be insisted on, and the dates, parties, and legal effect of the deeds or other instruments under which the counter claim is made, with the date of registration in the proper office in the colony; and in all cases of mortgage, judgment, charge, incumbrance, or lien, such counter claim shall also set forth for what sum the same was granted or recovered, what payments (if any) have been made thereon, and the dates of such payments, and what remains due thereon, whether the same is the prior lien or otherwise, on the property included therein, and also the legal effect of such securities upon slaves, according to the law and usage of the colony in which such slaves have been registered or settled; and that in addition thereto the substance of such counter claim be embodied and arranged in the tabular form hereunto annexed, marked (C).

9th. That upon such counter claim being filed within the limited periods aforesaid, notice thereof be forthwith given by the party making the same to the party against whom it is made, or his agent, and a copy thereof be furnished to such party or his agent, on application to the Assistant Commissioners in the colony.

10th. That within two months after such counter claim has been filed, and such notice given, the original claimant may file a replication to the said counter claim before the Assistant Commissioners, and give notice forthwith of such replication to the counter claimant, or his agent, and a copy thereof be furnished to such counter claimant, or his agent, on application to the Assistant Commissioners in the colony.

11th. That in case no replication be filed within the time aforesaid, the Assistant Commissioners may, on proof of notice of the counter claim having been served on the original claimant, or his agent, proceed to consider the claim and counter claim, and report the amount of compensation which may appear to them to be due upon each of the several claims and counter claims, upon application of any of the parties or their agents, and transmit copies or lists of such several reports to the Commissioners in London, who may thereupon proceed to award the compensation accordingly, upon the application of any of the parties or their agents.

12th. That in case a replication shall be filed within the times hereinbefore limited, the Assistant Commissioners may, either upon application of any of the parties interested, or their agents for such purpose, or if to the said Assistant Commissioners it shall seem fit, direct proof to be adduced in support of such claim, counter claim, or replication, by the production of deeds or other documents, or by interrogatories on oath or affirmation, to be drawn and exhibited to the parties or witnesses, or by affidavits, or by videlicet examination of witnesses, as the case may require.

13th. That on such proof as aforesaid being made the Assistant Commissioners shall, on the application of any of the parties interested, or their agents, cause a notice to issue to all the claimants and counter claimants in such proceedings named, that the said Assistant Commissioners will on a day in such notice to be named, proceed to consider and ascertain the amount of compensation which may appear to be due to the parties respectively; copies of such notice to be served by the party applying for the same on all such claimants and counter claimants, or their agents.

14th. That the said Assistant Commissioners shall thereupon proceed according to the several rules hereinbefore stated, and according to the general rules framed by the Commissioners under the 47th clause, when they shall be confirmed, allowed, and enrolled as directed by the said Act, to ascertain and report the amount of compensation appearing to be due to any of the litigant parties, and transmit forthwith lists or copies of their proceedings and reports to the Commissioners.

15th. That the Commissioners shall upon such proceedings and reports being received from the Assistant Commissioners, proceed to the adjudication and award of the compensation which shall appear to be due according to such lists, reports, and proceedings.

16th. That all persons claiming to act on behalf of any party interested in the said compensation monies shall lodge with the Commissioners, or Assistant Commissioners, as the case may be, a power of attorney, or other authority, under the hand of the party or parties so interested, to be registered in the proceedings of the said Commissioners, or Assistant Commissioners, and no other than the person or persons named in such power of attorney or authority shall be entitled to act in that behalf so long as such power shall continue in force.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Robert Montgomery Lord Belhaven, His Majesty's Commissioner, to Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the King, and was very graciously received by His Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, beg leave to embrace the opportunity which our meeting in the General Assembly affords us, of approaching your Majesty's Throne, for the purpose of expressing the lively satisfaction with which we have observed that an Act has recently been passed by the Legislature, in consequence of which the system of slavery, so long contemplated by ourselves and our brethren with feelings of regret and anxiety, will, before the termination of the present year, stand abolished for ever throughout the British Dominions. We humbly beg to congratulate your Majesty on this event, as one which cannot fail to bestow eminent distinction on your Majesty's reign, and to afford so great facilities for the spread of the gospel throughout your Majesty's Colonies; that, by the blessing of God resting on your Majesty's efforts for giving effect to the Act referred to, these efforts may be crowned with an abundant measure of success, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the General Assembly of the National Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by
