AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of June 1834,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no part of the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling therein mentioned shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein mentioned, for the benefit of any person now entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein mentioned, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act of Parliament by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; and whereas on the eighth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, an Ordinance was enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy of the colony of British Guiana, intituled "An Ordinance for the government and regulation of apprenticed labourers;" and whereas the said Ordinance was so enacted with the design of giving effect to the said Act of Parliament by such further and supplementary enactments as in the said Act are mentioned; His Majesty doth, therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in and by the said Act of Parliament in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, by this present Order declare, and it is hereby declared, that except in so far as certain parts of the said Ordinance are hereinafter disallowed, and except in so far as certain parts of the said Ordinance are hereinafter amended by the substitution of other pro-
