

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS William Richard Lapworth having been duly ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, to attend before them to give evidence in the matter of a certain Bill now pending before them respecting the borough of Warwick, omitted to obey such orders: and whereas an humble Address hath been presented to Us by the said Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, requesting that We would be graciously pleased immediately to issue Our Royal Proclamation, with such reward as We should think proper, for discovering, apprehending, and detaining the said William Richard Lapworth, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby requiring and commanding all Our loving subjects whatsoever, to discover, apprehend, and detain, or cause the said William Richard Lapworth to be discovered, apprehended, and detained, and to carry him before some Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate of the county, town, or place where he shall be apprehended, who are respectively required to secure the said William Richard Lapworth, and thereof to give speedy notice to one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, to the end that the said William Richard Lapworth may be forthcoming, to be dealt withal and proceeded against according to law. And for the encouragement of all persons to be diligent and careful in endeavouring to discover and apprehend the said William Richard Lapworth, whosoever shall bring him, the said William Richard Lapworth, before some Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate as aforesaid, shall have and receive, as a reward for the discovering, apprehending, and bringing the said William Richard Lapworth before such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate as aforesaid, the sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, which Our Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this fifth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS William Oram having been duly ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, to attend before them to give evidence in the matter of a certain Bill pending before them, respecting the borough of Warwick, omitted to obey such orders: and whereas an humble Address hath been presented to Us by the said Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, requesting that We would be graciously pleased immediately to issue Our Royal Proclamation, with such reward as We should think proper, for discovering, apprehending, and detaining the said William Oram, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby requiring and commanding all Our loving subjects whatsoever, to discover, apprehend, and detain, or cause the said William Oram to be discovered, apprehended, and detained, and to carry him before some Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate of the county, town, or place where he shall be apprehended, who are respectively required to secure the said William Oram, and thereof to give speedy notice to one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, to the end that the said William Oram may be forthcoming, to be dealt withal and proceeded against according to law. And for the encouragement of all persons to be diligent and careful in endeavouring to discover and apprehend the said William Oram, whosoever shall bring him, the said William Oram, before some Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate as aforesaid, shall have and receive, as a reward for the discovering, apprehending, and bringing the said William Oram before such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate as aforesaid, the sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, which Our Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this fifth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS Samuel Dingley having been duly ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, to attend before them to give evidence in the matter of a certain Bill pending before them respecting the borough of Warwick omitted to obey such orders; and whereas an humble Address hath been presented to Us by the said Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, requesting that We would be graciously pleased immediately to issue Our Royal Proclamation, with such reward as We should think proper, for discovering, apprehending, and detaining the said Samuel Dingley, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby requiring and commanding all Our loving subjects whatsoever to discover, apprehend, and detain, or cause the said Samuel Dingley to be discovered, apprehended, and detained, and to carry him before some Justice of the Peace, or Chief Magistrate of the county, town, or place where he shall be apprehended, who are respectively required to secure the said Samuel Dingley, and thereof to give speedy notice to one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, to the end that the said Samuel Dingley may be forthcoming to be dealt withal and proceeded against according to law. And for the encouragement of all persons to be diligent and careful in en-