The person being presented is to kneel upon the right knee and kiss His Majesty's hand, then rise, bow and retire.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of July 1834,

By a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of their Lordships, dated the seventeenth of April last, it was ordered and declared (in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;"), that all persons interested in or affected by certain General Rules annexed to the said Order, and framed, under the 47th and 55th clauses of the said Act, by the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty under the authority of the said Act, might, within six months from the date of the said Order, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council:

And whereas the said Rules and Order were duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of Parliament:

And whereas it is expedient that the time for receiving appeals against any of the Rules, so as aforesaid framed under the 47th clause of the said Act, should be enlarged, in so far as relates to the colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius, to the period of nine months from the date of the said Order:

The Lords of the Committee (being three of the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council) are therefore pleased (in exercise of the authority in them vested by the said Act) to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for receiving any such appeals as last aforesaid be, and the same is hereby, enlarged, in so far as relates to the colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius, to the period of nine months from the date of the said Order of the seventeenth of April last.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, for dividing the parish of Great Budworth, under the 21st section of 58 Geo. 3, c. 45, and 16th section of 59 Geo. 3, c. 134, into ecclesiastical districts:

At the Court at St. James's, the 16th of October 1833, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such divisions, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe lands, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain, and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" And whereas by the said Act it is further enacted "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built; or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners, to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches and chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid, and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" And whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," it is enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited

Act or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the power of the said Act or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendance and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate, and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament or law or laws to the contrary notwithstanding; and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect; and whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that in the year 1821, the parish of Great Budworth, in the county palatine and diocese of Chester, contained a population of 7069 persons, which has since considerably increased; that there are in the said parish, besides the parish church, three chapels, that is to say, one in the township of Little Leigh, one in the township of Lower Whitley, and one in the township of Stretton, which last-mentioned chapel was built by the said Commissioners; that the said parish church affords accommodation for 1000 persons, no part in free seats; that the said chapel at Little Leigh affords accommodation for 240 persons, but no part free; the said chapel at Lower Whitley for 200 persons, of which 20 are free; and the said chapel at Stretton for 500 persons, of which one half is free; that the said three chapels have been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided, and that an ecclesiastical district should, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, be attached to the said chapel at Stretton, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving the said chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the said district, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of the said district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein, and that such district should be named the Stretton District, and should comprise the townships of Stretton and Appleton, with boundaries as follows:

Stretton District.—The boundary to commence at Bradley-brook, and proceeding by the boundary of Higher Whitley to the point marked I.; and crossing the Warrington road to the point K.; thence to the north by Whitley-road to the point Q.; and turning to the north east to the point R.; where it falls in with the boundary of Crowley; and continues from thence to the north as far as the point S.; thence to the north west to the point T.; whence it continues by the boundary of Groppin-hall as far as the point U.; thence by an irregular boundary till it joins the River Mersey, near Mil-denpool, and takes a south west direction to the point V.; and turning to the south east to the point H.; and from thence to Bradley-brook, where the boundary commenced: which district is described in the accompanying plan, and therein coloured blue and red:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that particular districts should be respectively assigned to the said two chapels at Little Leigh and Lower Whitley, under the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such districts should be named respectively the Lower Whitley District and the Little Leigh District; that the Lower Whitley District should comprize the townships of Higher and Lower Whitley; and the Little Leigh District should comprize the townships of Little Leigh Barnington and so much of the township of Dutton as lies in the parish of Great Budworth, with boundaries as follows:

Lower Whitley District.—The boundary to com mence at Street-lane-bridge, over the brook which divides Little Leigh and Lower Whitley, and proceeding in a north west direction to the point marked B. where it leaves the township of Dutton, and proceeds in a north east direction to the point E. where it meets with the boundary of Higher Whitley, and goes on round the point G. as far as the township of Stretton, marked H.; thence by Bradley-brook to the point marked I. and crossing the Warrington road to the point K.; and from thence in a circuitous direction by the boundary of Antrobus to the point L. and along the road to the point M. and by the boundary of Sevenoaks to the point N. where it falls in with the boundary of Lower Whitley, and continues from thence to the point P. where it joins the boundary of Little Leigh, and goes on to Street-lane-bridge, where the boundary commenced; which district is described in the accompanying plan, and is coloured brown and green.

Little Leigh District.—The boundary to commence at Acton-bridge, over the River Weaver, and to follow the line up the said river to the west end of Saltersford-tunnel; then proceeding north eastward by the boundary of Bampton, crossing the road leading to Great Budworth, and continuing down the brook which divides Little Leigh and Cogshall to the point marked A.; then in a north west direction by the boundary of Sevenoaks and Lower Whitley, to a certain bridge, called Street-lane-bridge, over the brook which divides Little Leigh and Lower Whitley; and from the said bridge along the said brook as far as a certain meadow, marked B.; then in a west direction to a field called the Moors; and thence in a south west direction until it joins the township of Aston by Sutton, at the point C.; then in a south east direction down a small rivulet which divides that part of the township of Dutton which lies in the parish of Great Budworth from that part of the said township which lies in the parish of Runcorn, to the point D.; and from thence by the line of the River Weaver, by the township of Bartington, to Acton-bridge, where the boundary commenced; which district is described in the accompanying plan, and is therein coloured yellow, blue, and red.

That baptisms should be performed in the said two last-mentioned chapels, and that one half of the fees for the same should be paid to the respective Ministers thereof.

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto as required by the above-mentioned sections of the said Acts, passed in the 58th and the 59th years of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and make such order in respect thereto as to His Majesty shall seem meet;

His Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, together with the map thereunto annexed, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts. Wm. L. Bathurst,

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, for dividing, under the 21st section of the 58 Geo. 3, c. 45, the parish of St. Giles, Oxford, into ecclesiastical districts:

At the Court at Brighton, the 9th of December 1833, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such districts, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein; the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, in the year 1831, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. Giles, in the county and diocese of Oxford, contained a population of 2491 persons; that the only place of worship, according to the rites of the Church of England, previous to the erection of the chapel hereinafter mentioned, in the said parish, was the parish church, which affords accommodation for 600 persons, including 216 free seats for the use of the poor; that a new chapel has been erected at the northern extremity of the said parish, which will afford accommodation to 430 persons, including 330 free seats for the use of the poor; that such chapel has been consecrated and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that the said parish should be divided into two ecclesiastical districts, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that one of the said districts should be assigned to the said new built chapel, which is called St. John the Baptist's or Summer Town Church, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the district attached to such chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such district should be named the Summer Town District, with boundaries as follows:

The boundary to commence near the western bank of the River Cherwell, at the point marked A, in the plan thereunto annexed, and crossing in a straight line westward, a field of Sir Joseph Lock to Spring Close private road, is to proceed along the centre of that road to the Banbury turnpike road, to cross the turnpike road in a straight line to a field belonging to George Kimber, and continue across that field to the Woodstock turnpike road, to cross the road and proceed in a straight line over land belonging to the Duke of Marlborough's Trustees, to the northern side of a house called the Hut, then over the Canal-bridge and along the centre of a lane or way leading to Port Meadow to the point marked B, thence to turn northward along the boundary which separates Wolvercot and Saint Giles's parishes, then eastward along the same boundary to the point marked C, being an angle of Wolvercot parish abutting upon the Woodstock turnpike road, to proceed northward along the centre of that road to the point marked D, the corner of the field in which Mrs. Sykes's house stands; here the boundary again turning eastward and being the same which separates Wolvercot and Saint Giles's parishes will cross the Banbury turnpike road and proceed along the land belonging to Mrs. Collins to the point marked E, adjoining Heron's Lake, thence turning southward and taking the western bank of Heron's Lake to its junction with the River Cherwell will proceed along the western bank of that river (being the present boundary between Marston and Saint Giles's parishes), to the point A, in the field belonging to Sir Joseph Lock, where the boundary commenced, as delineated in the plan thereunto annexed, and is therein surrounded by a pink line:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Oxford has been obtained thereto as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty King George the Third; and humbly praying that His Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into His Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to His Majesty shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts. C. C. Greville.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Dock-Office, Liverpool, July 8, 1834.

THE Trustees of the Liverpool Docks and Harbour hereby give notice, that the under-mentioned additions and alterations for the better guidance of the mariner, into and out of the port, will be exhibited on and after the 1st day of August 1834, viz.

FORMBY LIGHT-HOUSE.—This building (hitherto known as Formby S. E. Landmark) will present a steady yellow light, ranging 12 miles in a western aspect, between the points of S. W. and N. N. W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W.; which limits indicate respectively, when a vessel is westward of Mad Wharf, and when she ought to shape the fairway course of S. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. up Crosby Channel.

The most brilliant portion of the said Light will be shown down the New Channel, in concert with a Floating Red Light, exhibited from a single-masted vessel (painted red, with a red flag to distinguish her by day), moored, in 16 feet at low water, $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles W. $\frac{3}{4}$ N. from Formby Light house, $\frac{1}{8}$ of a mile southward of Jordan Flats, and $\frac{1}{2}$ a mile westward of the Spit of Formby Bank. These Lights, brought in a line, lead direct from seaward, upon a course E. $\frac{3}{4}$ S. to the entrance of and through the New Channel (which carries 12 feet at low water, spring tides, over its outer and shoalest part) up to the Floating Light. Both the above Lights may be discerned, in clear weather, as far as two miles westward of the N. W. Light Ship.

The New Formby Red Light Vessel likewise serves (when brought in a line with the Black Rock Light) to lead through Jordan Flats, in 17 feet water at half tide, upon a S. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. course; and the narrowest part of this Swashway is distinguished by two Nun Buoys (white with a black vertical stripe), $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile apart, and about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile northward of the vessel, the passage being between the said buoys.

An additional Red Can Buoy is also placed on the western side of the Crosby Channel, to denote the easternmost elbow of Great Burbo. This buoy lies in 16 feet, close to the Bank, and bears from the Black Rock Light-house N. by W. 3 miles; it is the southernmost Red Buoy in Crosby Channel, and must always be left on the western hand.

The Helbre Swash Marks will be removed on the day above mentioned from Helbre Island, one to the small Islet called the Eye, and the other to the flat shore immediately eastward, and at $\frac{1}{2}$ of a mile from Helbre Island; so that, when brought in a line, they lead direct from the N. W. Light Ship up Helbre Swash, upon the course of S. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. to the first Log Buoy on the S. W. elbow of the East Hoyle Bank.

And to afford the clearest illustration how the foregoing arrangements contribute to open the navigation into and out of the port, at all hours of tide, the Dock Trustees have published a chart thereof, in conformity with the recent Admiralty survey, by Lieutenant Henry Mangles Derham, R. N. (under sanction of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty), upon a scale of four inches to the mile; which may be had of all the chartsellers in Liverpool.

Note.—All bearings and courses in the above imply by compass.

By order of the Committee,

William Foster, Secretary.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
June 24, 1834.

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY, MIDSUMMER QUARTER, TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit or certificate of identity required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay or retired-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of July, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 12th, 14th, and 15th of July, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 16th and 17th of July, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 21st, and 22d of July, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being preferred on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their affidavits or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 24th and 25th of July.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their affidavits or certificates into the Wages-office at the Admiralty, Somerset-house, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their affidavits or certificates, as promptly, for unless such documents are early delivered into this Office, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

It sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their affidavits or certificates as required by the usual advertisement; any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

- 1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form to be transmitted from this Office.
- 2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.
- 3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, at a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks.

If they wish to receive it by bill of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, or Retired-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR GIBRALTAR.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, June 27, 1834.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 17th of July next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering,

At Gibraltar,

1200 Tons of hand-picked Graigola, Bryndorway, or Nevill's Llanelly Coals, fit for His Majesty's Steam-Vessels.

To be delivered between the 1st October next and the 31st March 1835, at the rate of 200 tons per calendar month.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR BEES WAX.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, July 9, 1834.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 31st of July instant, at one o'clock they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards with English Bees Wax.

A sample of the wax and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract.

PERTH GLASS COMPANY.

Perth, July 1, 1834.

THE Partners of the above Company having dissolved their partnership, and finally given up business from and after this date, all debts due by the concern will therefore be immediately paid on application to the Subscriber, Manager of the late Company, and all the debts to the concern will be received and discharged by George Gray, Esq. Writer, in Perth, to whom it is requested immediate payment may be made, that the concern may be finally wound up.

The public are further respectfully informed, that the extensive and fashionable stock of goods belonging to the Perth Glass Co. has been purchased by the subscriber, who is in future to conduct the business solely on his own account, and who humbly solicits a continuance of the patronage so liberally bestowed on the late Co.

J. Ranson.

WHEREAS Thomas Waterhouse Clarke, son of the Rev. John Clarke, late of Loughton-en-le-Morthen, in the County of York, deceased, did about the year 1789, enlist as a private soldier, and embark for the East Indies, and it is supposed was at the battle of Seringapatam; notice is hereby given, that the said Thomas Waterhouse Clarke, or his legal issue, may on application to Mr. Samuel Taylor, Solicitor, No. 14, John-Street, Bedford-Row, London, or to Messrs. Wheatley and Hoyle, Solicitors, Rotherham, Yorkshire, hear of something to his or their advantage; and any person or persons who can give any information of the residence or death of the said Thomas Waterhouse Clarke, shall on such communication being made to the satisfaction of the advertisers be handsomely remunerated.

WHEREAS the Trustee of the late Mr. Martin Ernst Luplau, Merchant, of this City, and the assistants of his Widow, Mrs. Charlotte Thon, or Luplau, being all legally appointed and confirmed, have petitioned the Honourable Senate of this Imperial City of Riga to issue a proclamation for a call of the Creditors of the said defunct; and such petition having been complied with, and the publishing of the required proclamation having been committed to the Worshipful Orphan's Court, therefore, all and every one having any claims and demands upon the estate of the late Mr. Martin Ernst Luplau, Merchant, of this City, are hereby required to produce and prove their several claims and demands before the Worshipful Orphan's Court, within six months from the date of this present proclamation, that is to say, at latest on or before the 28th November this year, in default whereof, notice is hereby given, that no farther demands will be admitted after the expiration of the said period; and all such outstanding claims and demands shall be adjudged and pronounced as for ever excluded.

The Town-Hall of Riga, the 28th May 1834.

By command,
(Signed) C. GROSS, Secretary of the Imperial City of Riga.

ESTATES IN CUMBERLAND.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to two Orders of the Court of Exchequer, made in a cause Thompson against Hodgson, with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the George Inn Assembly-Room, at Penrith, in the County of Cumberland, on Tuesday the 19th day of August 1834, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, in six lots;

Lot 1.—An estate, called Aulhy, in the Parish of Skelton, in the said County, consisting of a dwelling-house and suitable farm buildings, and several closes (the chief part surrounding, and the whole contiguous to, the homestead), containing altogether about 95 acres, more or less, of exceedingly rich arable and meadow land. The substratum being limestone, the soil is peculiarly adapted for a dairy or grazing farm. The homestead and the chief part of the lands are freehold; the remainder, about 15 acres, more or less, is of customary tenure, parcel of the Manor of Skelton, which tenure may be considered equal to freehold. The whole is exempt from tithe by payment of a trifling composition: This estate is only five miles distant from Penrith, in a fine sporting country, and is now in the occupation of Joseph Grindall, as tenant from year to year.

Lot 2.—A freehold allotment of ground, situate at or near Plumpton-Head, in the Parish of Penrith, containing 12 acres, or thereabouts. The River Petterel runs through this allotment, which is in the occupation of John Nicholson, as tenant from year to year.

Lot 3.—A freehold close or inclosure, situate nearly contiguous to Plumpton-Head, and adjoining the new road from Penrith to Carlisle, containing 16 acres, more or less, in the occupation of John Robinson, as tenant from year to year.

Lot 4.—A freehold close or inclosure of ground, called Kitchen Field, situate at or near Plumpton-Head aforesaid, containing, by estimation, 4A. 3R. 3P.

Lot 5.—Two several freehold closes or inclosures of land, called High-Fields, or High-Field Closes, situate at Plumpton-Head aforesaid, containing together 13A. 1R. 20P. be the same more or less.

Lot 6.—Two darrocks of meadow, and three foggish gates, in a field, called Beckholme, otherwise Plumpton-Head-Holme, in the said Parish of Penrith, now in the occupation of the said John Nicholson; as tenant from year to year.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in the Inner Temple; and at the Office of Messrs. Mounsey and Gray, 9, Staple's-Inn, London; and in Penrith, at the Office of Mr. Carmalt; and at the George Inn.

WHEREAS by an Order of his Honour the Vice-Chancellor, made in the cause Heyes versus Heyes, it was ordered that it should be referred to George Boone Roupell, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to enquire what children Betty Hewitt, the wife of William Hewitt, of Pemberton, in the County of Lancaster, Joiner, deceased, were living at the time of her death; and if any of her children were then dead, whether they left any and what issue surviving her:—therefore all persons claiming to be the representatives of any of such children who have died, are, on or before the 28th day of July 1834, to come in and make out their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

The said Betty Hewitt, the wife of the said William Hewitt, resided at Pemberton aforesaid, and died on the 19th day of November 1832; and her children, and the representatives of such of them as are dead, are entitled to a sum of £400, and interest thereon.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Le Blond and another against the Governor and Directors of the Hospital for Poor French Protestants, and their descendants, residing in Great Britain, and others, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether Samuel Jasper Chastellier, the son of Elizabeth Chastellier, the testatrix in the pleadings in the said cause named, was living or dead; and if the said Master should find the said Samuel Jasper Chastellier was dead, then it was ordered that he should enquire when he died, and whether he had any and what lawful children or child, and if he had any such lawful children or child, whether any and which of such children were or was dead, and what were or was the ages or age of such deceased children or child, and who was or were the legal personal representative or representatives of such deceased children or child:—therefore, the said Samuel Jasper Chastellier, if living, or if dead, his lawful child or children, or the legal personal representative or representatives of any such child or children who may have died, are forthwith to come in and make out their claims to the matters in question in this cause before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said Elizabeth Chastellier, the testatrix, resided in the Parish of Christ Church, in the County of Surrey, and died between the months of October 1799 and May 1792; and the said Samuel Jasper Chastellier, if living, is supposed to be residing at Nyon, in Switzerland.
