VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Thursday the 17th day of July in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, 1834, between Charles Marc and John Eyton, Plaintiffs; Thomas Downes, Defendant.

INORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed, by Mr. Dixon, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs, on the 23d day of June 1834, exhibited their Bill in this Court against the defendant, as by the Six Clerks' Certificate now read appears, and took out process of subpoena, requiring him to appear to and answer the plaintiffs' bill; but the defendant hath not appeared thereto; that it appears by the affidavit of George Harper and John Williams, dated the 11th day of July last, that on the 2d day of July instant, the said deponent John Williams, did deliver to and leave a true copy of a subpoena, issuing out of and under the seal of this Court, dated the 23d day of June last past, with the wife of the said defendant Thomas Downes, at Wrenbury-Heath, in the County of Chester; also another true copy thereof to and with Samuel Downes, of Ash, in the County of Salop, Farmer, the brother of the said defendant; also another true copy thereof to and with John Downes, of Heath-Lane, in the Parish of Whitchurch aforesaid, Yeoman, another brother of the said defendant; and also another true copy thereof to and with Thomas Sandland, of the Hollins-Lane, in the Parish of Whitchurch, in the County of Salop, the tenant of a messuage or cottage, situate at the Hollins-Lane aforesaid, which is part of the property of the said defendant, by which said subpoena the said defendant was required to appear in this Court, within eight days from the service thereof, at the suit of the above-named plaintiffs; and the said deponent did at the time of his delivering the said copies of the subpoena respectively upon the said wife of the said defendant, and the said Samuel Downes, John Downes, and Thomas Sandland, acquaint them respectively with the intent of such service, and made enquiries from them and others respectively if they knew where defendant could be met with to be personally served with a copy of the said subpoena, but that they severally informed the said deponent they did not, and he was therefore unable to serve the said defendant personally with a copy of the said subpoena; that the said defendant hath not had any known place of residence for upwards of three years, but during that time has been hiding himself to avoid being served with the process at law issued against him.

at the suit of the above-named plaintiffs; that the message or dwelling-house, situate at Colton, in the Parish of Weav, in the said County of Salop, the last known and fixed place of residence of the said defendant, has some time since been pulled down and destroyed; that the said deponent has made many enquiries of the said wife of the said defendant, and also from the said Samuel Downes and John Downes, the brothers of the said defendant; as also from the tenants of the property of the said defendant, if they could give him information where the defendant was or was likely to be found, but that they severally informed him, that they could not give him such information, and notwithstanding the said deponent and many other persons employed and retained by him have made every exertion and enquiry for that purpose, they have been unable to serve the said defendant personally with a copy of the said subpoena, or to discover where the said defendant is to be met with; and the defendant justly suspects, and in fact is morally certain, that the said defendant now absconds on purpose to avoid being served with the aforesaid process; it is thereupon ordered, that the said defendant do appear to the said bill, on or before the 17th day of August 1834.
