

Edinburgh, or at the Office of any Distributor or Sub distributor of Stamps in the country, at any time within the space of six calendar months next after the said 13th instant.

By order of the Board,
Charles Pressly, Secretary.

London, August 12, 1834.

IN obedience to instructions from the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, notice is hereby given, that all persons who suffered losses from the confiscation of book debts, the property of British subjects, by the Government of Denmark, in the year 1807, and who may be desirous of establishing the fact that such loss was sustained by them, may transmit their claims, accompanied by proofs for the purpose of enquiry, within three months from the date of this notification, to the Commissioners appointed to receive and investigate the same, at their Office, No. 5, Whitehall-place.

H. Rich, Secretary.

Guildhall, London, August 5, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for enlarging the market for the sale of live cattle now and heretofore held at Smithfield, in the parish of Saint Sepulchre, in the city of London; for purchasing such houses, buildings and land, in the parish of Saint Sepulchre, partly in the city of London and partly in the county of Middlesex, and in the parish of Saint Bartholomew the Great, in the city of London, or in any of the liberties or precincts thereof, or extra-parochial places within or adjoining to the said parishes, or either of them as may be wanted for that purpose; and for the better regulation of the said market. In which Act it is intended to take power to raise part of the money required for effecting the aforesaid purposes upon the credit of an additional toll or tolls which by the said Act will be authorised to be received or levied upon all cattle, horses, sheep, calves, pigs, and other live animals; also upon all hay and straw, and all other articles brought into the said market for sale.

Edward Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in pursuance of the power and directions of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intitled "An Act for inclosing lands in the parish of Sonning, in the counties of Berks and Oxford," the greatest part in value of the owners and proprietors of lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the said parish of Sonning, which are subject and liable to the payment of certain sums of money, by way of corn rent, in lieu, recompence, and satisfaction for all tithes in kind, and other ecclesiastical dues and payments (surplice fees, Easter offerings, and mortuaries excepted) arising, renewing, increasing, or happening out of or from such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and payable to the Vicar of the vicarage and parish church of Sonning aforesaid, and his successors, do intend to apply, in the manner prescribed by the said Act of Parliament, at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden in and for the said county of Berks, at Reading, on Tuesday the 14th day of October next, to have three persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, for the purpose of enquiring and ascertaining, by or from or by means of the London Gazette, or by such other ways or means as they shall think equitable and proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Berks, for the seven years, then last past.—Dated this 2d day of August 1834.
