TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1834.

Whitehall, August 30, 1834.

THE King has been pleased to grant unto Samuel William Acres, of Sydenham, in the county of Kent, Gent. His royal licence and permission that he and his issue may, from grateful respect to, and in compliance with the earnest wish of, his maternal uncle, William Little, of Sydenham aforesaid, Gent. take and henceforth use the surname of Little, instead of that of Acres:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in the College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northumberland.

Horace St. Paul, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.
Dated 31st July 1834.

Admiralty, August 27, 1834.

GRANT FOR THE BATTLE OF NAVARIN.

NOTICE is hereby given to the officers, seamen, marines, and others who were serving on board His Majesty's ships under the command of Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Codrington, on the 20th of October 1827, and to the legal representatives of those who were then slain or have since died, that the sum voted by Parliament will be distributed so soon as the necessary lists and documents shall be prepared, of which due notice will be given, and the mode then pointed out by which claimants resident at a distance, as well as those in or near London, will be able to receive their respective shares without any delay, trouble, or expence.

As no further useful information can at present be afforded, it is desired that no applications on the subject be made until the appearance of future advertisements, which will afford every requisite instruction to the claimants.

By command of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom,
John Barrow.

Exchequer Bill-Office, September 1, 1834.

THE Exchequer Bills, dated in the months of July, August, and September 1833, viz.

- 1 and 2 Wm. 4, cap. 24, for carrying on public works and fisheries;
- 2 Wm. 4, cap. 125, West India Relief Bills;
- 3 Wm. 4, cap. 2, £12,000,000, 1833;
- 3 and 4 Wm. 4, cap. 25, £15,752,650, 1833;

with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 30th day of September 1834, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily (holidays excepted), from ten o'clock till one, until and including the 22d day of September, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 30th day of September, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of three halfpence by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 30th day of September, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 22d day of September, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 1st day of October 1834.

The bills to be classed in separate lists, according to the Acts under which they have been issued.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills, dated prior to July 1833, have been advertised to be paid off.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 1, 1834.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 25th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of Irish Salt Meat, equal to 6,500 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 8,500 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1835, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent, on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACTS FOR BISCUIT BAGS AND COALS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services; Somerset-Place, August 27, 1834.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 11th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering, into His Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford, within two calendar months from the day of treaty:

No. 2000 small Biscuit Bags; and for supplying and delivering, by the 31st October next,

900 Tons of hand-picked Nevill's Llanelly Coals, namely,

300 Tons at the Royal Clarence Victualling Yard at Gosport, and 600 Tons at His Majesty's Victualling Yard at Deptford.

Tenders may be made for supplying either or both Yards.

A sample of the bags, and the conditions of the respective contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £300, for the due performance of the contracts for coals.

Highly important Estate at Worstead and Westwick, in Norfolk.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. William Butcher, at the Maid's Head Inn, St. Simon's, Norwich, on Saturday the 13th day of September 1834, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named in a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against William Postle, of Worstead, in the County of Norfolk, Corn-Merchant, Farmer, Dealer and Chapman;

The truly desirable and highly valuable estate, late the property of Mr. William Postle, at Worstead and Westwick, in Norfolk, containing about 935 acres of remarkably rich arable and pasture land, with the manor or lordship of Worstead-Broomholme; two genteel residences in the occupations of the Rev. E. H. Ravenhill and Mr. Leggatt; several farm houses, cottages, barns, stables, and numerous agricultural buildings.

The possession of about 864 acres of the above estate may be had at Michaelmas next, and the remainder is let to respectable tenants from year to year.

This valuable property (which is nearly all freehold, and 150 acres of which are free from great titles) is situated in a highly favoured district. The land is generally of a good quality, and in high state of cultivation, and there is a valuable marl pit nearly in the centre of the estate.

It is exceedingly well-situated for corn markets, adjoins the navigable canal from North Walsham to Great Yarmouth, is abundantly stocked with game, as it lies between two extensive preserves, and forms altogether the most valuable and desirable estate that has been lately offered to public notice.

A plan of the property may be seen at the Office of Messrs. Sewell, Blake, Keith, and Blake, Solicitors, Norwich; and at Mr. John Postle's, near the Church, Smallburgh; and particulars and conditions of sale may be had of them; and of Mr. John Sharpe, North Walsham; Mr. Wood, Solicitor, Falcon-Street, Aldersgate Street, London; and Mr. Butcher, Auctioneer and Surveyor, Norwich.

TO be sold, in public sale, on Tuesday the 30th day of September 1834, before the major part of the Commissioners named and appointed in and by a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against William Antrobus Fullerton, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Mariner, Dealer and Chapman, at the Black Lion Inn, in Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon;

All that customary messuage and tenement, called Whelpside, situate within the Manor of Hensingham, in the Parish of Saint Bees, in the County of Cumberland, and now in the occupation of Thomas Lightfoot, as Farmer thereof.

And also one undivided moiety, or half part, of and in all that freehold messuage and tenement, with the lands, grounds, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate at, and commonly called and known by the name of, Whelpside, in the Parish of Saint Bees, in the County of Cumberland, and now in the several occupations of Thomas Brown and Thomas Lightfoot, as Farmers thereof.

And also the like moiety, or half part, or share, of and in all that freehold messuage and tenement, dwelling-house, stables, sheds, buildings, and premises behind the same, situate in James-Street, in the Town of Whitehaven aforesaid, and now used as an inn or public-house, and known by the name or sign of Lowther's Arms, and now in the occupation of John Crosthwaite, as Farmer thereof.

And also the like moiety, or half part, or share, of and in all those freehold messuages, tenements or dwelling-houses, and premises, with their respective appurtenances, situate on the south west side of Queen Street, otherwise Tickle Lane, in the Town of Whitehaven aforesaid, and now in the several occupations of John Crosthwaite, James Kelly, and Ann Dixon, as Farmers thereof.

And also the like moiety, or half part, or share, of and in all those several messuages, tenements or dwelling houses, and premises, with their respective appurtenances, situate in James-Street, in the Town of Whitehaven aforesaid, and commonly called and known by the name of Bacon Porch, and now in the several occupations of Joseph Scurr, Sarah Taylor, and others, as Farmers thereof.

And also the like moiety, or half part, or share, of and in all that piece or parcel of ground, with the sheds, buildings, and erections thereon, and premises, with their respective appurtenances, situate near to James-Street, in the Town of Whitehaven aforesaid, immediately behind the dwelling-house, warehouse, and premises of John Fisher, and adjoining to the backward ground and premises belonging to the Lowther's Arms and Bacon Porch, and now in the occupation of John Crosthwaite, as Farmer thereof.

For further particulars apply to Mr. Walker, Solicitor, Whitehaven.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Thomas Hardwick, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date at Westminster the 9th day of April 1833, awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Hunter Briggs, of Leeds, in the County of York, Glue-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, at the Bull and Mouth Inn, in Leeds aforesaid, on Friday the 10th day of October next, at Seven o'Clock in the Evening, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced;

All those three messuages or tenements, with three cellar dwellings under the same.

And also all that building now or lately used in the Glue Manufacture, together with the yard and stable adjoining, or near thereto, situate on the south side of Hope-Street, in the Leylands, in Leeds aforesaid, and now or late in the occupation of the said Hunter Briggs, or his under-tenants.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Smith and Hutchinson, Solicitors, Leeds.
