FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1834.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d day of September 1834,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Archibald Earl of Gosford was, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and his Lordship took his place at the Board accordingly.

St. James's-Palace, September 3, 1834.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty, when the Honourable Charles Ewan Law, the Recorder, made their compliments of congratulation in the following Address; which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London, approach your Royal Person with the liveliest sentiments of loyalty and devotion, to tender to your Majesty, the homage of our heartfelt congratulations upon the occasion of the safe and happy return to this country of Her Majesty Queen Adelaide.

In quitting, for a season, the splendours of a court and exchanging the dominions of Great Britain for Her Majesty's native land, the Queen hastened to fulfil the grateful offices of filial affection to her revered and Royal Mother, and exhibiting an equal ardour in all the delicate and refined relations of domestic life, your Royal Consort, seated on the throne of your Majesty, has resumed, without delay, the splendid sphere of private virtues and of public usefulness.

In testifying how deeply we appreciate the bright pattern Her Majesty affords to that sex, on whose good conduct the best interests of society so mainly depend, we trace the model and revive the sacred memory of Queen Charlotte, in the perfect imitation of her transcendent merits, and in the eminently successful influence of their example.

Sire, we hailed, with feelings of deep emotion, the opportunity presented to the Lord Mayor, by Her Majesty's visit to the Continent, of conducting Her Majesty, with every attendant circumstance of dutiful respect, to the limits of his Lordship's jurisdiction as Conservator of the Thames, but our happiness was only then complete when, deigning to accept our proffered escort and ascending the shore of the river, peopled with countless multitudes rending the air with shouts of loyalty, Her Majesty planted her foot again upon British ground.

Signed by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

" I receive, with the utmost satisfaction, the dutiful and loyal Address which you have presented to Me, in congratulation on the safe return of Her Majesty the Queen from the Continent of Europe; the expressions of respectful attachment to the Queen which are contained in that Address, are peculiarly gratifying to My feelings, and give you a new claim on My regard and attention.

" I thank you for the readiness with which you have marked your duty to Her Majesty the Queen, by attending on the occasion of her embarkation and her return.

" The City of London may at all times rely on My favour and protection, and I humbly trust to the blessing of Providence to guide and to assist My best efforts to promote the interests and happiness of all classes of My loyal subjects."

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour of kissing His Majesty's hand.

St. James's-Palace, September 3, 1834.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty with the following Address; which was read by the Honourable Charles Ewan Law, the Recorder; and which His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive upon the Throne:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty, with the most sincere attachment to your Royal Person, to present our congratulations upon the safe return of Her Majesty our most illustrious Queen to this country.

And while we express our thankfulness to Divine Providence, for having preserved Her Majesty in health and safety to resume the high duties of Her exalted station in your Majesty's Family and upon the Throne of these Realms, we beg also to renew the assurances of our devoted loyalty and attachment to your Majesty and to your Royal Consort.

That the same gracious Providence which has protected our illustrious Monarch and his beloved Queen, through periods as eventful and important as history has ever recorded, may continue to shower upon them His choicest blessings, and long preserve them to reign in the hearts and possess the affections of a loyal and devoted people, is our most sincere and fervent prayer.

Signed by order of Court,
Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

" I thank you for your congratulations on the safe return of Her Majesty the Queen to My British dominions.

" The occasion is one on which it is peculiarly gratifying to My feelings, to receive a renewed proof of your loyal and dutiful attachment, and I am fully sensible of the respectful zeal with which you have marked the deep interest you feel in Her Majesty's safety and return.

" Entertaining the utmost solicitude for the happiness of all classes of My subjects, you may be fully assured, that I shall at all times endeavour to promote the interests of the City of London."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

Irish Salt Meat, equal to 6,500 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 8,500 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1835, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.
