JAMES BROWN, Accountant, in Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said Company, and of the individual Partners thereof, hereby intimates, that the following offer of composition by the Bankrupts was laid before the statutory general meeting of Creditors held on the 3d instant:— "James Brown, Esq. Trustee on the sequestrated estate of Messrs. Kinnears, Smiths, and Company.—Edinburgh, 2d October 1834.—Sir,—As we understand it to be the general wish of our Creditors that some offer of composition should be made at the meeting to-morrow, we hereby authorise you to offer for us eleven shillings per pound on all the claims against our estates, as a Company, and as individuals, by the following instalments,—viz. ten shillings to be paid on the 1st December, and one shilling on the 15th May next, with bank interest from the dates of the several instalments, with security for the payment thereof.

"You are quite aware that the great object we have in view is to hasten the period of our discharge, a matter of the utmost importance to our future prospects; and, in making this offer, we feel that we have gone as far as we possibly could, with safety to ourselves and our cautioners. It is for our Creditors, however, to judge, whether it be more advantageous for them to accept our offer, or to take their chance of some small addition to their dividend at a remote period, and with all the risk, and uncertainty, and expence, of a sequestration before them.

"As we understand that it is necessary, in terms of the Act, to make an offer to our personal Creditors also, we hereby offer one shilling per pound on all claims against us as individuals, not extending to the Company estate, although we have no reason to expect that any such will be made.

"We of course reserve all right to challenge the claims which have been made against our estates, and to reduce any preferences in favour of Creditors, or any payments unduly made to Creditors—such right of challenge being to be conveyed to us by the Trustee.

"We shall likewise pay the whole expences attending the sequestration."

The meeting having unanimously resolved to entertain the foregoing proposal as just and reasonable, the Trustee farther intimates, that another general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Waterloo Hotel here, on Thursday the 6th day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of deciding on the same, in terms of the Statute.
