FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1834.

Whitehall, October 23, 1834.

THIS day being appointed for the further prorogation of Parliament by Commission, and His Majesty having been graciously pleased, under the circumstances of the calamitous destruction of both Houses of Parliament by fire, to signify His Royal commands to the Marquess of Cholmondeley, Deputy Great Chamberlain of England, touching the places of meeting for that purpose, the Lords Commissioners (consisting of the Lord High Chancellor, the Lord Privy Seal, and the Lord Auckland) assembled at two o'clock, in the room heretofore appropriated as the Library of the House of Lords; the Commons being assembled in a Committee-room contiguous thereto. Sir Augustus Clifford, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was directed by the Lord Chancellor to desire the immediate attendance of the Commons in the usual course; and the Commons being come thither, the Commission was read by the Clerk, and the Lord Chancellor signified to both Houses His Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that the Parliament should be further prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fifth of November next, to be then and there holden, and the Parliament was prorogued accordingly.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act in lieu of and to repeal the several Acts of Parliament next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the second year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, the parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint George the Martyr, Saint George Bloomsbury, that part of the parish of Saint Andrew's Holborn which lies in the county of Middlesex, the several liberties of the Rolls and Savoy, and that part of the duchy of Lancaster which lies in the county of Middlesex, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, the parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint George the Martyr, Saint George Bloomsbury, that part of the parish of Saint Andrew's Holborn which lies in the county of Middlesex, the several liberties of the Rolls and Savoy, and that part of the duchy of Lancaster which lies in the county of Middlesex, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned;'" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual two several Acts of Parliament, made in the second and third years of His present Majesty, for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, and other places therein mentioned, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of, and to render more effectual, the several Acts passed in the second, third, and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, for paving, cleansing, lighting, and otherwise regulating the squares, streets, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster, and other parts in the said Acts mentioned, and for extending the provisions of the said Acts to the Surrey side of Westminster-bridge, and for enlarging the powers of the said Acts with respect to squares;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual several Acts made relating to paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to alter, explain, amend, and render more effectual several Acts made for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent, and for putting certain streets therein mentioned, commonly called optional streets, under the management of parochial committees, subject to the controul of the commissioners appointed by or in pursuance of the said several Acts, and for removing and preventing nuisances, annoyances, obstructions, and encroachments in the said streets and other places, and for other purposes;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for subjecting certain streets and places within and adjacent to the parish of Saint James Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, called optional streets, to the same rates for paving, cleansing, and lighting as the other streets and places within the said parish, and for altering, so far as relates to the said parish, certain Acts for paving, cleansing, and lighting the streets and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent;" and also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, of the seventh year of His present Majesty, for consolidating the trusts of the several turnpike roads in the neighbourhood of the metropolis north of the River Thames, and to make and maintain two new or branch roads to communicate with the said metropolis roads;" and also all and every other Act giving jurisdiction to the commissioners appointed by or in pursuance of either of the before-mentioned Acts for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent, so far as the same Acts, or any of them, respectively or otherwise relate to or concern the several and respective parishes of Saint Margaret, Saint John the Evangelist, and Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and precinct of the Savoy within the same county, and also the liberty of Saffron-hill, Hatton-garden, and Ely-rents, in the parish of Saint Andrew Holborn, in the said county of Middlesex, and to the several streets or places following (that is to say), Abingdon-street, Little Abingdon-street, and part of College-street, situate in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, and also Dartmouth-street, King-street, and Cannon-row, situate in the said parish of Saint Margaret, and which said several streets or places are called optional streets, also all streets and places called and known as optional streets in the said several before-mentioned parishes, precinct, and liberty, and any or either of them; also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for watching, lighting, cleansing, and otherwise improving the roads, streets, and other public passages and places within the district left as belonging to the original parish church of Saint Mary Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and the ecclesiastical district called the Waterloo District in the said parish," so far as the same relates to the continuing the jurisdiction of the commissioners mentioned in the said Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, over that part of the road adjoining to the abutments of Westminster-bridge, on the Surrey side, and to place the same under the jurisdiction and management of the Trustees of the Surrey New Roads, with all such powers of rating the inhabitants and occupiers of houses and other rateable property there for defraying the expences of paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the same, as are now possessed by the said commissioners under the said Acts intended to be repealed as aforesaid, or any of them, or with such other powers for those purposes as may be deemed necessary, or to alter and amend the said Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, so as to place the said part of the road adjoining to the abutments of Westminster-bridge, on the Surrey side thereof, under and subject to the provisions of the last-mentioned Act, and also with all such powers of rating the inhabitants in manner and for the purposes as before mentioned; and also for paving or Macadamizing, repairing, lighting (by gas or otherwise), watering, cleansing, regulating, widening, or otherwise improving the squares, streets, arcades, colonnades, lanes, courts, alleys, yards, mews, and all public and other passages and places within the said several parishes of Saint Margaret, Saint John the Evangelist, Saint James, the precinct of the Savoy, within the said county of Middlesex aforesaid, and also the liberty of Saffron-hill, Hatton-garden, and Ely-rents, in the said county of Middlesex (except such part of the last-mentioned liberty as has been paved, lighted, and cleansed by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made in the eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better paving, cleansing, and enlightening the city of London and the liberties thereof, and for preventing obstructions and annoyances within the same, and for other purposes therein mentioned, and for repealing an Act, made in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, for those purposes"); and also certain streets, or parts of streets, or places adjacent to some or one of the parishes hereinbefore mentioned (that is to say), the south side of Coventry-street, which is in the parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, in the said county of Middlesex, and the east side of Princes-street, which is in the parish of Saint Ann Westminster, in the county of Middlesex; and also for regulating stage coaches and other vehicles, and the stands for hackney carriages of all denominations within the said several parishes, precinct and liberty, and streets, or parts of streets, or places adjacent; and also for removing and preventing nuisances, obstructions, encroachments, and annoyances therein; and for appointing or electing and empowering certain commissioners or committee-men in each of the said parishes, precinct, and liberty, to carry the said Act into execution. And it is intended to take power by the said Act to alter the boundary of the said parish of Saint James, for the purpose of the said Act, by taking from or giving to, or exchanging with, any adjoining parish or parishes the controul of the whole or a part of any street or other public place in or adjacent to the said parish of Saint James; and also to compel and enforce the sale and cession of the whole or part of any land or lands, messuage or messuages, tenement or tenements, and other hereditament or hereditaments within the said several parishes of Saint James, Saint Margaret, Saint John, the said precinct of the Savoy, and liberty of Saffron-hill, Hatton-garden, and Ely-rents, or any or either of them, or any streets, or parts of streets, or places therein or adjacent thereto respectively, for the purpose of widening or altering any public street or place therein or adjacent thereto; and also power to divert or wholly stop up any street, lane, court, alley, yard, mews, passage, or other public place therein, for the purpose of improving the said several parishes, precinct, liberty, and places, or either of them, and the streets adjacent, and to sell or dispose of any land or other property obtained thereby; and also to purchase or rent lands or tenements, and to erect any buildings and carry on any works for the purposes of the said Act. And it is also intended to take power by the said Act to raise money in each of the said parishes, precinct, and liberty, for the aforesaid purpose, by levying one or more distinct annual or other rate or rates, assessment or assessments, upon the inhabitants, owners, or occupiers of rateable property within each of the said parishes, precinct, and liberty, and also upon the inhabitants, owners, or occupiers of rateable property within each of the said streets, or parts of streets, and places adjacent to the said parish of Saint James Westminster, or by some other means to be provided by the said Act; and also power to pay off and discharge any sum or sums of money now due from or secured on the said optional streets in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, or the interest thereof, either by a separate and distinct rate upon the owners or occupiers of rateable property in the said optional streets, or by the rate to be made on the owners or occupiers of property in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John; and also power to place Abingdon-street, Little Abingdon-street, and the east end of College-street, in the parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist Westminster, under the jurisdiction, power, and authority of the commissioners acting in execution of a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and regulating the Regent's-park, together with the new street from the Regent's-park to Pall-mall, and the new streets and improvements in the neighbourhood of Parliament-street and Privy-gardens, and for maintaining a convenient sewage for the same;" and also of any other Act or Acts made and passed for extending the jurisdiction of the said last-mentioned commissioners; and generally to vest in the commissioners or committee-men to be appointed or elected by or in pursuance of such Act, all the property and powers now vested in the committee for paving, cleansing, and lighting each of the said several parishes, precinct, and liberty, together with other and more extended and enlarged powers, remedies, and authorities.

October, 1834.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to revive and continue for a further term, and to amend and enlarge the powers contained in, and to revive, continue or vary, increase or alter, the tolls and rates granted or imposed, or authorised to be collected by an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for widening and improving the street or road leading from Tower-hill to the street called Upper East Smithfield," in the parish of Saint Botolph Without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enlarging the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for widening and improving Upper East Smithfield, in the parish of Saint Botolph Without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex;" and an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and explaining two Acts of His present Majesty's reign, for widening and improving the street leading from Tower-hill to the street called Upper East Smithfield, in the county of Middlesex;" and to empower trustees to reinstate, re-erect, and continue the toll-gate and bar or toll-house authorised to be erected by the said last-mentioned Act, or to erect another or others on the site of or near to the said toll-gate and bar or toll-house, or on any part of the said street or road; which said street or road is within and passes from and into, and in part through, the said parish of Saint Botolph Without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex; and which said toll-gate and bar or toll-house, authorised by the said last-mentioned Act, was situate within the parish of Saint John of Wapping, in the said county of Middlesex.—Dated this 20th day of October 1834.

Teesdale, Symes, and Weston, Fenchurch-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain an Act to consolidate, amend, extend, enlarge, or otherwise alter the powers and provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending certain roads in the several parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, and for watching, lighting, and otherwise improving the said roads;" and also in an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending the road leading from Stone's-end, in Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to Highgate, in the county of Sussex, and several other roads therein mentioned, and for other purposes relating thereto;" by which Act so to be obtained, it is intended to consolidate the said several roads, and place the repair and management thereof under the trustees to be by that Act appointed, or such parts of the said several roads as may be deemed expedient to be united; also to authorise the said trustees to continue or take down all and every or any of the toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses on the said roads, and to erect other toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses in lieu thereof or in addition thereto as may be thought proper, and at such several toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, or toll-houses to demand and receive all and every the tolls granted and made payable under and by virtue of the Acts of Parliament above referred to, or such other tolls as shall be granted by the Act to be applied for as aforesaid; also to empower the said trustees to water the said several roads, or any part or parts thereof, and during such time and seasons of the year as they may direct, and for that purpose to demand and take a toll or tolls upon such road or roads as shall be directed by the said trustees to be watered; also to authorise the relinquishment of the repair of the carriage way of such of the said roads as the said trustees may deem expedient, and the repair of all and every the footpaths by the sides of the several roads included in the said Acts, or either of them, or any part or parts of such footpaths, and place the repair of the roads and footpaths, when relinquished, under the laws for regulating and repairing highways in England, or under the management of the commissioners or trustees for repairing the highways in the respective parishes in which such roads shall be; also to empower the trustees acting in the execution of the said Acts to pay off any debt, sum or sums of money, charged and secured, or that may be charged or secured, with interest upon the tolls for the said several roads, or such part or parts of the said debt or debts, sum or sums of money, as the said trustees may at any time or times think proper, and for that purpose from time to time, or at any time or times, to borrow and take up at interest, and to charge on the security of the tolls of the said roads, any sum or sums of money, at such rate of interest, upon such terms, and in such manner as the said trustees may deem proper or advisable, and to pay off and discharge all or any of the mortgages or securities upon the said tolls, or any of them, as the said trustees may think fit; all which several roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof, that is to say, Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, Christchurch, Camberwell, Saint Paul Deptford, Streatham, Croydon, Sanderstead, Banstead, Coulsden, Wallingham, Caterham, Woldingham, Godstone, Tandridge, Horne, Lingfield, Outwood, Bletchingly, Nutfield, Clapham, Tooting, Mitcham, Morden, Merton, Carshalton, Sutton, Battersea, Wimbledon, Putney, Ham, Kingston, and Richmond, in the said county of Surrey; and East Grinstead, Charley, and Maresfield, in the said county of Sussex.—And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended by the said Act to be applied for as aforesaid, to obtain all enactments, powers, provisoes, provisions, regulations, and directions necessary, proper, or requisite for carrying into effect all and every or any of the several objects and purposes before stated or referred to.—Dated this 13th day of October 1834. By order, George Drew, Bermondsey-street.

THE Commissioners for paving, &c. that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James's, do hereby, in pursuance of the direction in that behalf contained in a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, chap. 29, sect. 99, intituled "An Act for better paving, improving, and regulating the streets of the metropolis, and removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," give notice, that they will on the 25th day of December now next ensuing, pay off the principal money and interest secured by an assignment, numbered 34, and for which the sum of £500 was paid into the hands of the said Commissioners by William Phillipson, of Penton-place, Pentonville, Esq., now deceased; and the executors of the said William Phillipson, or any other person or persons legally holding the said assignment, are hereby required to take notice that they may, on or after the said 25th day of December now next ensuing, receive and be paid all such principal money and interest, by applying at the Office of the said Commissioners for paving, &c, Upper Rosoman-street, Clerkenwell; upon which said 25th day of December now next ensuing, all interest will cease to be paid upon the principal money secured by the said assignment.—Dated this 21st day of October 1834.

Thomas Cromwell, Clerk to the said Commissioners.

WHEREAS the above named Catherine Parry hath, by indenture, duly executed and attested, bearing date the 13th day of October instant, assigned all her stock in trade and personal estate unto Mr. Jonathan Jones, of Chester, Grocer, in trust, for the equal benefit of her Creditors; notice is hereby given, that the said indenture now lies at my Office for the inspection of all the Creditors of the said Catherine Parry, and for the execution of those Creditors who will accept the benefit thereof within three months from the said 13th day of October; such of the Creditors who refuse or neglect to assent to the terms of the said indenture of assignment shall not receive any benefit therefrom.—Notice is also given, that all persons indebted to the said Catherine Parry are requested to pay the amount of their respective debts at my Office to save the expence of actions at law.—Dated 16th October 1834.

EDWARD JONES, Ruthin, Solicitor to the Assignees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Richard Shelton, of Bisham, in the County of Berks, Yeoman, hath executed a deed of assignment of all his stock in trade, effects and chattels, real and personal, to Trustees, for the benefit of all his Creditors, which deed bears date the 27th day of September 1834; and that the names and descriptions of such Trustees respectively are John Green Bishop, of Maidenhead, in the said County of Berks, Surgeon and John Lawrence, of Bisham aforesaid, Farmer; and that the said deed was executed by the said Richard Shelton and by the said John Lawrence on the said 27th day of September now last past; and by the said John Green Bishop on the 1st day of October instant; and that the executions by the said Richard Shelton, John Green Bishop, and John Lawrence, were witnessed by Samuel Naylor, of Maidenhead aforesaid, Solicitor, at whose Office such deed of assignment lies for signature.—Dated this 20th day of October 1834.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Martyn, of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Draper, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 17th day of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. C. and C. H. Wood, Solicitors, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing and paying unto their Solicitors under the said Fiat certain costs, charges, and expences, incurred by them in taking certain journeys to Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, to attend certain meetings of the Commissioners under the said Fiat, and for other purposes relating to the said Bankrupt's estate, and for the benefit thereof; and also to the said Assignees paying their said Solicitors certain other costs, charges, and expences, incurred by them relating to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying any other costs, charges, and expences, incurred, or hereafter to be incurred, in or about the said Bankrupt's estate which they may think reasonable and proper.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Horton and Alfred Horton, of Sheffield, in the County of York, Button-Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 17th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Town Hall, in Sheffield, in the said County of York, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all and every, or any part or parts, of the stock in trade, estate, effects, and property of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any benefit or interest therein, and of any right, claim, or interest, which the said Bankrupts may have or possess in or to certain letters patent, or in or to the exclusive manufacture of a certain patent button, which will be mentioned at such meeting, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, and either together or in lots, at such times and places, for such price or prices, or at such valuation or appraisement, or in such other manner, and upon such terms and conditions, and either for ready money or upon credit, and with or without security, as the said Assignees may deem reasonable and expedient, with power, from time to time, to buy in or rescind any contract for the sale of all or any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, and afterwards resell the same without being answerable for any loss or deficiency on such resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at the expence and risk and for the benefit of the said Bankrupts' estate, working up, finishing, and completing, all or any of the materials and unfinished goods of the said Bankrupts, and continuing and carrying on the trade or business of the said Bankrupts, in such manner, and for such period, as the said Assignees may consider advisable, or for such definite period as may be fixed at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees purchasing such materials and employing such agents, clerks, servants, workmen, and other persons, for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, and employing such accountant or accountants to arrange, investigate, and adjust, the books and accounts of the said Bankrupts, and collect, get in, and receive the debts due and owing to the said Bankrupts, or otherwise in and about the selling and disposing of the estate and effects and winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupts as the said Assignees may deem proper and expedient, and to their allowing and paying to the several persons so to be employed as aforesaid, and to such accountants, servants, and other persons as they may have previously employed, such compensation or allowance for their services as to the said Assignees shall seem just and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such arrangements, agreements, payments, and compromises, as they may think proper with and to any person or persons having, or claiming to have, any claims, demands, liens, or securities, upon the estate or effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, and concurring with the Mortgagees of the leasehold estate of the said Bankrupts, at Sheffield aforesaid, in the sale or disposition thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting, or defending, any actions or suits at law or in equity, or any other proceedings, or preferring or opposing any petition or petitions to His Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, for the recovery, defence, or protection of the moneys, debts, estate, effects, rights, and interests, of the said Bankrupts, or in anywise relating thereto, and compounding or taking a reasonable part of any debt or debts owing to the estate of the said Bankrupts in discharge of the whole, and giving time, or taking security for the payment of any debt or debts owing to such estate, and compromising, settling, or referring to arbitration, any accounts, debts, claims, demands, disputes, or differences relating to the estate, effects, and property of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, in such manner, and upon such terms and conditions, as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing certain costs, charges, and expences, incurred by the petitioning Creditors previous to the issuing of the said Fiat, and also certain costs, charges, and expences, attending an execution levied on the effects of the said Bankrupts, previous to the issuing of the said Fiat, to be respectively named at such meeting; and also to ratify, confirm, and allow, any sale or sales which the said Assignees may have previously made of the household furniture, or any other part or parts of the estate of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and also all such other acts, payments, receipts, and disbursements, as the said Assignees may have made, done, or paid, touching, concerning, or in reference to, the estate, affairs, and effects of the said Bankrupts previously to such meeting, and on other special affairs which will be mentioned at the meeting; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act in and about the estate and affairs of the said Bankrupts in such manner, and perform all such things in relation thereto as shall appear to the said Assignees most advisable and beneficial for the estate and Creditors of the said Bankrupts.
