TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1834.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th day of October 1834,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the twenty-third day of October instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of November next.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, October 27, 1834.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint the Honourable William Ashley to be Her Majesty's Treasurer and Vice-Chamberlain.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint the Reverend John Ryle Wood, M. A. to be one of Her Majesty's Chaplains.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Thomas Henry Holberton, Esq. to be one of Her Majesty's Surgeons Extraordinary.

Gloucester-House, October 23, 1834.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester has been pleased to appoint Captain Percy Douglas, one of His Royal Highness's Equerries.

Whitehall, October 15, 1834.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George Callcott, of Maesincla, in the parish of Llanbeblig, in the county of Carnarvon, and of Somers-town, in the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, His royal licence and authority that he may, in compliance with a proviso and direction contained in the last will and testament of Richard Evans, late of Maesincla aforesaid, Esq. deceased, bearing date the 18th day of February 1825, take and henceforth use the surname of Evans only, and in lieu of his present surname, and also bear the arms of Evans only; and that such surname and arms, may be in like manner borne and used by his issue; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 24, 1834.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Suckling, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering and amending the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving the footpaths and for lighting and watching that part of the Kent-street-road which leads from Kent-street-end unto the bridge, next immediately below the Green Man turnpike, situated within the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and certain public streets, squares, lanes, passages, and places communicating therewith, respectively situated within the said parish, or within the parishes of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey and Saint Mary Newington, adjoining thereto; and for removing and preventing encroachments and annoyances thereto;" or for repealing the said Act and obtaining a new Act for better effecting the same purposes, or some of them; or for paving, lighting, cleansing, and improving certain streets, squares, roads, lanes, highways, passages, and places in the several parishes of Saint George the Martyr Southwark, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and Saint Mary Newington, in the county of Surrey, situate within the district or limits to which the powers and provisions of the said Act, or any of them, extend or might be extended; and also that it is intended to propose to decrease or otherwise alter the existing rates or assessments for the purposes aforesaid.

Rogers and Foord, Solicitors, Pinners-hall,
Old Broad-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain an Act to consolidate, amend, extend, enlarge, or otherwise alter the powers and provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending certain roads in the several parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christchurch, in the county of Surrey, and for watching, lighting, and otherwise improving the said roads;" and also in an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually amending the road leading from Stone's-end, in Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to Highgate, in the county of Sussex, and several other roads therein mentioned, and for other purposes relating thereto;" by which Act so to be obtained, it is intended to consolidate the said several roads, and place the repair and management thereof under the trustees to be by that Act appointed, or such parts of the said several roads as may be deemed expedient to be united; also to authorise the said trustees to continue or take down all and every or any of the toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses on the said roads, and to erect other toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, and toll-houses in lieu thereof or in addition thereto as may be thought proper, and at such several toll-gates, bars, turnpikes, or toll-houses to demand and receive all and every the tolls granted and made payable under and by virtue of the Acts of Parliament above referred to, or such other tolls as shall be granted by the Act to be applied for as aforesaid; also to empower the said trustees to water the said several roads, or any part or parts thereof, and during such time and seasons of the year as they may direct, and for that purpose to demand and take a toll or tolls upon such road or roads as shall be directed by the said trustees to be watered; also to authorise the relinquishment of the repair of the carriage way of such of the said roads as the said trustees may deem expedient, and the repair of all and every the footpaths by the sides of the several roads included in the said Acts, or either of them, or any part or parts of such footpaths, and place the repair of the roads and footpaths, when relinquished, under the laws for regulating and repairing highways in England, or under the management of the commissioners or trustees for repairing the highways in the respective parishes in which such roads shall be; also to empower the trustees acting in the execution of the said Acts to pay off any debt, sum or sums of money, charged and secured, or that may be charged or secured, with interest upon the tolls for the said several roads, or such part or parts of the said debt or debts, sum or sums of money, as the said trustees may at any time or times think proper, and for that purpose from time to time, or at any time or times, to borrow and take up at interest, and to charge on the security of the tolls of the said roads, any sum or sums of money, at such rate of interest, upon such terms, and in such manner as the said trustees may deem proper or advisable, and to pay off and discharge all or any of the mortgages or securities upon the said tolls, or any of them, as the said trustees may think fit; all which several roads pass from, through, or into the several parishes hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof, that is to say, Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, Christchurch, Camberwell, Saint Paul Deptford, Streatham, Croydon, Sanderstead, Banstead, Coulsden, Wallingham, Caterham, Woldingham, Godstone, Tandridge, Horne, Lingfield, Outwood, Bletchingly, Nutfield, Clapham, Tooting, Mitcham, Morden, Merton, Carshalton, Sutton, Battersea, Wimbledon, Putney, Ham, Kingston, and Richmond, in the said county of Surrey; and East Grinstead, Charley, and Maresfield, in the said county of Sussex.—And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended by the said Act to be applied for as aforesaid, to obtain all enactments, powers, provisoes, provisions, regulations, and directions necessary, proper, or requisite for carrying into effect all and every or any of the several objects and purposes before stated or referred to.—Dated this 13th day of October 1834.

By order,
George Drew, Bermondsey-street.
