Guildhall, October 30, 1834.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £120, being a further part of an annuity or annual sum of £2000, granted in respect of the sum of £50,000 advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 17th of December 1829, and numbered 2; and I do hereby give notice, that, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sum of £3000, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £120, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sum of £120 will cease and determine; nevertheless such person or persons at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled at the expiration of fourteen days, next after a declaration in writing of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office the said sum of £3000, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £120, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same; and the said annual sum of £120 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act in lieu of and to repeal the several Acts of Parliament next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the second year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, the parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint George the Martyr, Saint George Bloomsbury, that part of the parish of Saint Andrew's Holborn which lies in the county of Middlesex, the several liberties of the Rolls and Savoy, and that part of the duchy of Lancaster which lies in the county of Middlesex, and for preventing annoyances therein; and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, the parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint George the Martyr, Saint George Bloomsbury, that part of the parish of Saint Andrew's Holborn which lies in the county of Middlesex, the several liberties of the Rolls and Savoy, and that part of the duchy of Lancaster which lies in the county of Middlesex, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual two several Acts of Parliament, made in the second and third years of His present Majesty, for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, and lanes within the city and liberty of Westminster, and other places therein mentioned, and for preventing annoyances therein, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enlarge the powers of, and to render more effectual, the several Acts passed in the second, third, and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, for paving, cleansing, lighting, and otherwise regulating the squares, streets, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster, and other parts in the said Acts mentioned, and for extending the provisions of the said Acts to the Surrey side of Westminster-bridge, and for enlarging the powers of the said Acts with respect to squares;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual several Acts made relating to paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to alter, explain, amend, and render more effectual several Acts made for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent, and for putting certain streets therein mentioned, commonly called optional streets, under the management of parochial committees, subject to the controul of the commissioners appointed by or in pursuance of the said several Acts, and for removing and preventing nuisances, annoyances, obstructions, and encroachments in the said streets and other places, and for other purposes;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for subjecting certain streets and places within and adjacent to the parish of Saint James Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, called optional streets, to the same rates for paving, cleansing, and lighting as the other streets and places within the said parish, and for altering, so far as relates to the said parish, certain Acts for paving, cleansing, and lighting the streets and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent;" and also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, of the seventh year of His present Majesty, for consolidating the trusts of the several turnpike roads in the neighbourhood of the metropolis north of the River Thames, and to make and maintain two new or branch roads to communicate with the said metropolis roads;" and also all and every other Act giving jurisdiction to the commissioners appointed by or in pursuance of either of the before-mentioned Acts for paving, cleansing, and lighting the squares, streets, lanes, and other places within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent, so far as the same Acts, or any of them, respectively or otherwise relate to or concern the several and respective parishes of Saint Margaret, Saint John the Evangelist, and Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and precinct of the Savoy within the same county, and also the liberty of Saffron-hill, Hatton-garden, and Ely-rents, in the parish of Saint Andrew Holborn, in the said county of Middlesex, and to the several streets or places following (that is to say), Abingdon-street, Little Abingdon-street, and part of College-street, situate in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, and also Dartmouth-street, King-street, and Cannon-row, situate in the said parish of Saint Margaret, and which said several streets or places are called optional streets, also all streets and places called and known as optional streets in the said several before-mentioned parishes, precinct, and liberty, and any or either of them; also to repeal or alter the said several Acts, as far as the same, or any or either of them, relate to that part of the road, carriage way, and foot pavements adjoining to the abutments of Westminster-bridge, on the Surrey side thereof, and now called Bridge-street, in the parish of Saint Mary Lambeth, and which said piece of road is particularly mentioned in the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Third; also to alter and amend an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for watching, lighting, cleansing, and otherwise improving the roads, streets, and other public passages and places within the district left as belonging to the original parish church of Saint Mary Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and the ecclesiastical district called the Waterloo District in the said parish," so far as the same relates to the continuing, and for the purpose of transferring or vesting, the jurisdiction of the commissioners mentioned in the said Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, over the said road adjoining to the abutments of Westminster-bridge, on the Surrey side, and in the parish of Lambeth as aforesaid, and to place the same under the jurisdiction and management of the trustees appointed under and by virtue of the said Act, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, with all such powers of rating the inhabitants and occupiers of houses and other rateable property there for defraying the expences of paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the same, as are now possessed by the said commissioners under the said Acts intended to be repealed or altered as aforesaid, or any of them, or with such other powers for those purposes as may be deemed necessary, or otherwise to place the said part of the road adjoining to the abutments of Westminster-bridge, on the Surrey side thereof as aforesaid, under and subject to the jurisdiction and management of the Trustees of the Surrey New Roads, with all such powers of rating the inhabitants in manner and for the purposes as before mentioned; and also for paving or Macadamizing, repairing, lighting (by gas or otherwise), watering, cleansing, regulating, widening the foot or carriage ways, or otherwise improving the squares, streets, arcades, colonnades, lanes, courts, alleys, yards, mews, and all public and other passages and places within the said several parishes of Saint Margaret, Saint John the Evangelist, Saint James, the precinct of the Savoy, within the said county of Middlesex aforesaid, and also the liberty of Saffron-hill, Hatton-garden, and Ely-rents, in the said county of Middlesex (except such part of the last-mentioned liberty as has been paved, lighted, and cleansed by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made in the eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better paving, cleansing, and enlightening the city of London and the liberties thereof; and for preventing obstructions and annoyances within the same, and for other purposes therein mentioned, and for repealing an Act, made in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, for those purposes"); and also certain streets, or parts of streets, or places adjacent to some or one of the parishes hereinbefore mentioned (that is to say), the south side of Coventry-street, which is in the parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, in the said county of Middlesex, and the east side of Princes-street, which is in the parish of Saint Ann Westminster, in the county of Middlesex; and also for regulating stage coaches and other vehicles, and the stands for hackney carriages of all denominations within the said several parishes, precinct and liberty, and streets, or parts of streets, or places adjacent; and also for removing and preventing nuisances, obstructions, encroachments, and annoyances therein; also for appointing or electing and empowering certain commissioners or committee-men in each of the said parishes, precinct, and liberty, to carry the said Act into execution. And it is intended to take power by the said Act to raise money in each of the said parishes, precinct, and liberty, for the purposes of the said Act, by levying one or more distinct annual or other rate or rates, assessment or assessments, upon the inhabitants, owners, or occupiers of rateable property within each of the said parishes, precinct, and liberty, and also upon the inhabitants, owners, or occupiers of rateable property within each of the said streets, or parts of streets, and places adjacent to the said parish of Saint James Westminster, or by some other means to be provided by the said Act; and also power to pay off and discharge any sum or sums of money now due from or secured on the said optional streets in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, or any or either of them, and the interest thereof, either by a separate and distinct rate upon the owners or occupiers of rateable property in the said optional streets, or by the rate to be made on the owners or occupiers of property in the said parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John; and also power to place Abingdon-street, Little Abingdon-street, and the east end of College-street, in the parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist Westminster, under the jurisdiction, power, and authority of the commissioners acting in execution of a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and regulating the Regent's-park, together with the new-street from the Regent's-park to Pall-mall, and the new streets and improvements in the neighbourhood of Parliament-street and Privy-gardens, and for maintaining a convenient sewage for the same;" and also of any other Act or Acts made and passed for extending the jurisdiction of the said last-mentioned commissioners; and generally to vest in the commissioners or committee-men to be appointed or elected by or in pursuance of such Act, all the property and powers now vested in the committee for paving, cleansing, and lighting each of the said several parishes, precinct, and liberty, together with other and more extended and enlarged powers, remedies, and authorities.
