Office of Commissioners for Examination of Danish Claims, No. 5, Whitehall-Place, November 7, 1834.

Notice is hereby given to all parties who suffered losses from the sequestration and confiscation of the property of British subjects by the Government of Denmark, in 1807, and who may be desirous of proving that such losses were sustained by them, that the Lords of the Treasury have authorised the Commissioners to receive and examine into all claims, whether arising from book debts or otherwise, which may be presented to them; and have extended the period during which parties may transmit their claims, accompanied by proofs, for the purpose of enquiry, to three months from the 12th day of November instant.

Joseph Phillimore, Chairman.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, more efficiently to supply the cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties and suburbs thereof, with good and wholesome water; and for that purpose to authorise the said Governor and Company to take water from the River Lea, near Tottenham-mills, in the parish of Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, and Saint Mary Walthamstow, in the county of Essex, or one of them, by means of pipes, conduits, or cuts to be made from thence to a part of the turnpike road leading from Stamford-hill to Tottenham, near the trees called the Seven Sisters, and thence across the said turnpike road under or along the new road called the Seven Sisters-road into the New River, near the bridge which crosses the same in the parish or prebend of Stoke Newnton otherwise Newington; and also for the purpose aforesaid to construct and form a reservoir or reservoirs and other works near Tottenham-mills aforesaid, and also another reservoir or reservoirs and works on the west side of a branch of the River Lea called the Channel Sea River, near the Abbey-mills, in the parishes of West Ham and Stratford, in the said county of Essex, for compensating with water the mills on the River Lea, with all requisite pipes, conduits, or cuts to communicate with the said River Lea at or a short distance above the City-mill-point, such pipes or cuts passing across or under the Stratford turnpike road, and along the east side of the water-works stream there; or otherwise a reservoir or reservoirs and other works, for compensating with water as aforesaid, in the parish of Saint Mary Stratford Bow, in the said county of Middlesex, on the west side of the main stream of the River Lea, near the City-mill-point aforesaid, and for the purpose of better supplying the said last-mentioned reservoir, to make an additional tidal sluice near the gates called Bromley-lock, so as to admit a greater quantity of water during flood tides; and also to enable the said Governor and Company to convey any drainage, sewage, or flood waters running or falling into the New River under or away from the said New River, and for that purpose to construct and lay all necessary sluices, pipes, tunnels, ditches, drains, or other works; and also for more effectually preventing bathing in or casting or emptying of any filth or unwholesome matter into the said New River; and also to authorise the said Governor and Company to fence the banks of the said river with post and rail, in fields and commons bordering thereon into which cattle are turned, wherever it may be required, for preventing disturbance of the water by such cattle; and to fence in the said river with close iron railing where it passes through the streets of Islington and the adjacent suburbs; and which said New River and the works aforesaid passes, or will pass, through or into parts of the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places following, that is to say, Saint John Hertford, Little Amwell, Ware, Great Amwell, Saint Margaret's Hoddesdon, Broxbourne, Wormley, and Cheshunt, in the county of Hertford; and Enfield, Edmonton, Tottenham, Saint Mary Stratford Bow, Hornsey, Newington, Islington, and Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex; and Saint Mary Walthamstow, West Ham, and Stratford, in the county of Essex; and also to make other provisions for the better supply of the said cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties and suburbs thereof, with good and wholesome water; and for regulating the affairs of the said Company.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

THE Creditors of William Dawson Bonner, Farmer, formerly of Langton, near Horncastle, and late of the Bail of Lincoln, in the County of Lincoln, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the Gaol of Lincoln, are requested to meet at the House of Mr. Charles Box, No. 20, Featherstone-Street, City-Road, London, on Wednesday the 26th day of November instant, at Six o'Clock in the Evening precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Robert Hoddy, late of Hadleigh, in the County of Suffolk, Farmer, an Insolvent Debtor, whose petition is numbered 36,565 C. has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Inn called the White Horse, in Hadleigh aforesaid, on Monday the 15th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
