Office of Commissioners for Examination of Danish Claims, No. 5, Whitehall-Place, November 7, 1834.

Notice is hereby given to all parties who suffered losses from the sequestration and confiscation of the property of British subjects by the Government of Denmark, in 1807, and who may be desirous of proving that such losses were sustained by them, that the Lords of the Treasury have authorised the Commissioners to receive and examine into all claims, whether arising from book debts or otherwise, which may be presented to them; and have extended the period during which parties may transmit their claims, accompanied by proofs, for the purpose of enquiry, to three months from the 12th day of November instant.

Joseph Phillimore, Chairman.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, more efficiently to supply the cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties and suburbs thereof, with good and wholesome water; and for that purpose to authorise the said Governor and Company to take water from the River Lea, near Tottenham-mills, in the parish of Tottenham, in the county of Middlesex, and Saint Mary Walthamstow, in the county of Essex, or one of them, by means of pipes, conduits, or cuts to be made from thence to a part of the turnpike road leading from Stamford-hill to Tottenham, near the trees called the Seven Sisters, and thence across the said turnpike road under or along the new road called the Seven Sisters-road into the New River, near the bridge which crosses the same in the parish or prebend of Stoke Newnton otherwise Newington; and also for the purpose aforesaid to construct and form a reservoir or reservoirs and other works near Tottenham-mills aforesaid, and also another reservoir or reservoirs and works on the west side of a branch of the River Lea called the Channel Sea River, near the Abbey-mills, in the parishes of West Ham and Stratford, in the said county of Essex, for compensating with water the mills on the River Lea, with all requisite pipes, conduits, or cuts to communicate with the said River Lea at or a short distance above the City-mill-point, such pipes or cuts passing across or under the Stratford turnpike road, and along the east side of the water-works stream there; or otherwise a reservoir or reservoirs and other works, for compensating with water as aforesaid, in the parish of Saint Mary Stratford Bow, in the said county of Middlesex, on the west side of the main stream of the River Lea, near the City-mill-point aforesaid, and for the purpose of better supplying the said last-
