

county of Kent, assembled to commemorate your Majesty's glorious declaration of inviolable attachment to our constitution in church and state, feel it our duty, at the present important crisis, to lay before your Majesty the expression of our entire devotion to your Majesty's person, and of our steadfast determination to rally round your Majesty in defence of those principles on which the Illustrious House of Brunswick ascended the British Throne.

But prepared as we are to support your Majesty, even with our lives and property, in resisting every enemy of the Monarchy, and of our Protestant Establishment, we are no less anxious to co-operate with your Majesty in uniting loyal men of all parties, or in promoting any real improvement of our invaluable constitution in church and state.

[Here follows the signatures.]

Printed and Published at the Office, in Cannon-Row, Parliament-Street, by ROBERT GEORGE CLARKE.

[Price Seven Pence.]