Whitehall, November 21, 1834.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John-Harrison Slater, heretofore of Margate, in the county of Kent, but now of Shelswell, in the county of Oxford, Esq. His royal licence and authority that, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, John Harrison, late of Shelswell aforesaid, Esq. deceased, he and his issue already born, and all other his issue hereafter to be born, may take and use the surname of Harrison together with and after his and their own family surname of Slater; and that he and his issue already born, and hereafter to be born, may bear and quarter the arms of Harrison with his and their own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has been also pleased to command, that this His royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for paving, lighting, cleansing, extending, widening, and improving the several streets, roads, lanes, highways, passages, and places within, and for better regulating and improving, such part of the parish of Saint Paul Deptford as is comprised within the hamlet or manor of Hatcham, in the county of Surrey, and for the removal and prevention of nuisances, encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances within the same; and also for raising money for the several purposes of such Act, by rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the said hamlet or manor, or by some other means to be provided for by such Act. Dated this 13th of November 1834.

Herbert Sturmy, S. Wellington-street, Southwark.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering and amending the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving the footpaths, and for lighting and watching that part of the Kent-street-road which leads from Kent-street-end unto the bridge, next immediately below the Green Man turnpike, situated within the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and certain public streets, squares, lanes, passages, and places communicating therewith, respectively situated within the said parish, or within the parishes of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey and Saint Mary Newington, adjoining thereto; and for removing and preventing encroachments and annoyances therein;" or for repealing the said Act and obtaining a new Act for better effecting the same purposes, or some of them; or for paving, lighting, cleansing, and improving certain streets, squares, roads, lanes, highways, passages, and places in the several parishes of Saint George the Martyr Southwark, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and Saint Mary Newington, in the county of Surrey, situate within the district or limits to which the powers and provisions of the said Act, or any of them, extend or might be extended; and also that it is intended to propose to decrease or otherwise alter the existing rates or assessments for the purposes aforesaid.

Rogers and Foord, Solicitors, Fanners-hall, Old Broad-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a turnpike road from Saint John's Chapel, in the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, to the north east end of Ballard's-lane, abutting upon the North-road, in the parish of Finchley, with a branch therefrom, in the county of Middlesex;" and which said road and branch lie in and pass through the parishes or places of Saint Mary-le-Bone, Saint John Hampstead, Hendon, and Finchley, all in the said county of Middlesex; and that it is intended to obtain a power to apportion or divide, or to alter and increase, the existing tolls now arising on the said road and branch; and that it is also intended to extend the powers of the said Act, of the seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, to a certain road called the Avenue-road, in continuation of the branch aforesaid towards the Regent's-park; and which said Avenue-road lies in or passes through the said parishes of Saint Mary-le-Bone and Saint John Hampstead.
