

Dublin-Castle, January 6, 1835.

The Earl of Haddington, who embarked at Holyhead on yesterday, the 5th January, on board the Gulnare steam-vessel, arrived at Kingstown-harbour at three o'clock last night. His Lordship, on his arrival in Dublin this day, was received by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of the city of Dublin; his Lordship, attended by a squadron of dragoons, proceeded to the Castle, and, the Council having assembled at one o'clock, was introduced in form to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, who received him sitting under the canopy of state, in the Presence-chamber, from whence a procession was made, in the usual state, to the Council-chamber; the Council sitting, his Lordship's commission was read, and the oaths being administered to him, his Lordship was invested with the collar of the Most Illustrious Order of St. Patrick, and received the Sword of State from the Lords Justices.

His Excellency afterwards repaired to the Presence-chamber, and received the compliments of the Nobility, and other persons of distinction, upon his safe arrival and taking upon him the Government of Ireland.
