

mortgage of his said real estate; or otherwise making such agreement and coming to such terms with the said equitable Mortgagee for discharging the said principal money and interest as the said Assignee may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee offering to sale, and selling and disposing of, the real and personal estate of the said Insolvent, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, or otherwise, and on such terms and conditions, and at such time or times, as the said Assignee may think fit; and to authorise the said Assignee at such sale or sales to buy in any part of the same real estate, effects, and premises, and afterwards to resell the same, in any of the ways before mentioned, without being answerable for any deficiency happening on such second sale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying any charges already incurred in the affairs of the said Insolvent; and the compounding any debt or debts due to the said Insolvent; and the commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Insolvent's estate and effects; or to the compounding any such action or suit; and generally to authorise the said Assignee to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Insolvent in such manner as to him shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs, to be named at the said meeting.

All Letters must be post-paid.

Printed and Published at the Office, in Cannon-Row, Parliament-Street, by ROBERT GEORGE CLARKE.

Price Two Shillings and Nine Pence.