AT the Court at Brighton, the 7th day of February 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames; and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation; and for other purposes connected therewith;" after reciting, amongst other things, that under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament and grants thereinbefore recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Trinity house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had collected, taken, levied, and received from or in respect of ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in an Act therein mentioned, of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls of various denominations from or in respect of all British ships and vessels, and from or in respect of all foreign ships and vessels entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had not by the terms of the several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid; and that it was expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations hereinafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties; and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable; it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby, authorised and empowered from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or Their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament, or any of them; or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any par or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times after the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase, or otherwise alter or modify, any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish, and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require, so as, nevertheless, that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act; and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification, of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, in His or Their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months, from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which, all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished, shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which, all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so revived or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken:

And whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty in Council the proposals, of which a copy is contained in the schedule subjoined to this present Order; and whereas it hath appeared to His Majesty in Council expedient, that the said proposals should be confirmed;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in that behalf vested, His Majesty doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, assent to and confirm the said proposals; and it is hereby ordered that such assent and confirmation shall be signified, in writing, to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, to the intent that, in further pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants do fix and determine the period, so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation, from and after which all and every the rates, dues, duties, or tolls relinquished or abolished, as in the said subjoined proposals is mentioned, shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

SCHEDULE to which the preceding Order refers.

First.—That vessels belonging to the United Kingdom, and also all foreign vessels, which may be driven by stress of weather to seek shelter in any British or Irish port (excepting such as shall break bulk or take in cargo at such port, and excepting also such as shall remain in port longer than the state of the weather or the reparation of damage may render unavoidable) shall not be chargeable with any light or other duties payable to the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond; and no vessel shall be chargeable with the duty for any light (such duty being payable to that Corporation) which such vessel may pass or receive benefit by when driven out of her course by stress of weather.

Second.—That all vessels, smacks, and boats, belonging to the United Kingdom, while actually employed in catching fish within soundings, shall be exempt from light and other duties payable to the Corporation of Trinity-house aforesaid; but which exemption shall not extend to vessels which are employed in carrying to port fish caught by other vessels, or otherwise procured.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LIGHT-HOUSE ON THE START POINT.

Trinity-House, London, February 12, 1835.

THE works which have been for some time past in progress for erecting a Light-house upon the Start Point being now much advanced,—Notice thereof is hereby given, and that the same are expected to be completed, and the intended light exhibited therein, in the early part of the ensuing Autumn.

The character of this light, which will burn at an elevation of 204 feet above the level of the sea, at high water spring tides, will be that of a powerful revolving light, shewing a succession of brilliant flashes at regulated intervals of one minute, and in addition thereto, a stationary light will also be exhibited in the same Light-house in the direction of the Berry-head.

Further particulars in respect of the distinguishing character of this light, with the exact time of its first exhibition, will be hereafter published.

PORTLAND HIGH LIGHT.

Notice is also given, that at the time of the first exhibition of the said intended light, at the Start Point, the high light at Portland will cease to be exhibited as a revolving light; but will be continued as a fixed or stationary light, together with the low light, both being visible as fixed lights in the same direction seaward, as heretofore.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.
LIGHT FOR FALMOUTH HARBOUR.

Trinity-House, London, February 12, 1835.

THE preparations which have been for some time past making for exhibiting a light on St. Anthony's Point, at the east side of the entrance to Falmouth Harbour, being in a state of great forwardness, notice thereof is hereby given, and that a light will be exhibited on that Point in about two months from this date, and thenceforth continued every night from sun-set to sun-rise, for the guidance of vessels entering or departing from Falmouth Harbour.

This light will burn at an elevation of 65 feet above the level of the sea at high water spring tides, and will be visible in all directions from S. 40° E. round southward, westward, and northward up the harbour of Falmouth. And in order to render it readily distinguishable from all other lights in that vicinity, it will present a quick but regular succession of flashes of brilliant light.

Further particulars, with the exact time at which the light will be first exhibited, will be hereafter published.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

THE Creditors of Henry Maples, late of Thorne, in the County of York, Wine and Spirit-Merchant, deceased, are requested, on or before the 28th day of February instant, to send an account of their debts, with the nature of their securities (if any) to Mrs. Henry Maples or Mr. William Pilkington, of Thorne aforesaid, or to Mr. Thorpe, Solicitor, at his Offices, in Thorne, or (on a Saturday) in New-Street, Doncaster.—All persons who stood indebted to the said Henry Maples, at the time of his decease, are requested forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Mrs. Maples.

WILLIAM PIPPARD, Esq. deceased.

THE above Gentleman died suddenly, on the 29th November last, and is supposed to have made a will, and left it with some one for safety; any person who may be in possession of such a document, or can give information respecting it, or the affairs of the deceased, are requested to apply to Mr. James Brown, Solicitor, 13, Cook's-Court, Carey-Street, Lincoln's-Inn, or to Francis Smedley, Esq. 12, Ely-Place, Holborn. The deceased appears to have dealt largely in Foreign securities.

NOTICE.

To the Unknown Sender of a Letter, which was forwarded, in the year 1832, to Mr. ———, Muhlhäusen, in the Kingdom of Prussia.

A NOTICE addressed as above, was received in December 1832, from the Foreign Post Office, St. Martin-le-Grand, in London, by the Magistrate, at Muhlhäusen, in Prussia, with the information that a letter with the above superscription, was lying at that Office, which would be forwarded upon payment of six shillings and sixpence for postage; this postage was paid by the order of the Magistrate, through the medium of a Mercantile House, but according to the statement of the Magistrate the said letter has not been received to this day, nor has any information been obtained respecting it notwithstanding every enquiry has been made.

The undersigned having very good reasons to suppose that the letter, which has been lost in such an incomprehensible manner, contained information from his brother Johann Wilhelm Becke, a native of the above-mentioned City, who has been absent for a long time, and whose place of residence it is of very great importance to ascertain. The sender of the above letter is respectfully requested, in case the same should have had reference to the said Becke, to send to me, the authorised undersigned, a repetition of the contents of the said letter, addressed as at foot.—

Benjamin Christopher Bader, Muhlhäusen,
in Prussia, care of Mr. J. J. Liebert, Hamburg.

IN pursuance of authority obtained from his Honour the Chief Justice of British Guiana, N. M. Manget, A. E. Luthers, J. Van Waterschoodt, and Alexander Mackae, Curators over the estate and effects of Anthony Manglaar Meertens, late of this Colony, deceased, will expose for sale, to the highest bidder, in presence of the Registrar of the Court of Justice, or a Sworn Clerk, on Plantation La Retraite, in the month of August 1835, next ensuing (the precise day to be hereafter fixed), at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, payable in four equal instalments, say at three, six, nine, and twelve months' credit;—

Firstly.—The sugar and coffee plantation La Retraite, situate on the west bank of the River Demerary, bounded on the north by plantation Toerlugt, on the south by Canal No. 2, and on the east by the River.

The general lands of said estate consist of 1,036 acres, of which 291 acres are in canes, and 191 acres in coffee and plantains, the remainder in provision-ground and bush.

The sugar and coffee buildings and machinery and negro-houses are extensive, and the gang, 268 in number, are a good average gang.

Secondly.—Plantation Middlesex and Beausejour, situate in Canal No. 2, on the west bank of the Demerary River, without negroes.

The general lands of said estate consist of 500 acres of land, of which 170 acres are in coffee cultivation. There is a coffee lodge and dwelling-house.

Thirdly.—Plantation La Resource, situate in Canal No. 2, on the west bank of the Demerary River.

The general lands of said estate consist of 500 acres of land. The said plantation was formerly a coffee estate, but is at present uncultivated.

Inventories of the whole may be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Couderc, D. M. P. Brants, at Amsterdam; or of Messrs. John Campbell, sen. and Co. Glasgow; and at the Office of the Advocates, Hofstede and Downie, in this Colony.—Demerary, 3d of December 1834.

N. M. MANGET, for Self and A. E. LUTHERS, and J. VAN WATERSCHOODT, Curators over the estate of A. M. Meertens, deceased.

A. MACKAE, Co-Curator.

Sale of valuable Freehold Property, comprising an Hotel, capital Residence and Premises, Dwelling-houses, and Land, situate at Burslem, in the Staffordshire Potteries, and at Hilderstone, in the County of Stafford.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Mr. Johnson, by order of the acting Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Ralph Clews and James Clews, lately carrying on business in Copartnership at Cobridge, in the Parish of Burslem, in the County of Stafford, as Manufacturers of Earthenware, Dealers and Chapmen, on Thursday the 12th day of March next, at the Waterloo and American Hotel, at Burslem aforesaid, subject to the conditions which will be then produced,—the sale to commence at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon;

The undermentioned highly valuable property, and which will be divided into the following or such other lots as may be agreed upon at the time of sale:—

Lot 1. All that capital and substantial new erected dwelling-house, with suitable offices, stables, coach-house, extensive cow-sheds, and other outbuildings, and the yards, garden, lawn, and shrubberies surrounding the same, called the Ox Leasow, situate, lying, and being near Hilderstone, in the Parish of Stone, in the County of Stafford, now in the possession of the said James Clews, together with the closes, pieces, or parcels of land thereto belonging, and occupied therewith, containing in the whole 110 acres, or thereabouts, be the same more or less; about 70 acres of which are now laid together, and nearly the whole is in turf.

The above estate will be sold for the life of Mrs. Clews, aged 38 years, or thereabouts, and for the life of the said James Clews, aged about 44, in the event of his surviving her. The residence commands a fine distant prospect, with a pleasing home view, and comprises a spacious dining-room, drawing-room, breakfast-room, double entrance, butler's pantry, housekeeper's-room, an excellent kitchen replete with conveniences, good cellaring, with commodious offices attached. The grounds are laid out with great taste, and the whole forms a desirable residence for a genteel family. It is situated near to the turnpike-road leading from Cheadle to Stafford, and in a country abounding with game. Possession may be immediately had.

Lot 2. All that new erected messuage or dwelling-house, and appurtenances, now untenanted, together with thecroft thereunto belonging, and adjoining or lying near thereto, containing in the whole, including the scite of the house, one acre, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, situate, lying, and being near the New Church at Hilderstone aforesaid, and which is a beautiful object from the front of the house.

This lot is freehold, and forms a very desirable and compact residence for a small family. The house contains two parlours of good size and proportions, a small study, neat entrance, with good kitchen, brewhouse, and cellaring, all well finished and painted, ready for occupation, and possession may be immediately taken.

To view the same refer to William Austin on the premises.

Lot 3. All that capital new erected messuage or dwelling-house and premises, called the Waterloo and American Hotel, together with the messuage or dwelling-house thereunto adjoining, formerly used as a spirit vaults, and the plot or piece of land on which the same have been erected, containing 627 yards, superficial measure, or thereabouts, more or less, situate on the westwardly side of the great road and thoroughfare leading from Burslem to Hanley; and also all those new erected stables, coach houses, and buildings, opposite and belonging to the said hotel, together with the land on which the same have been built, containing, by admeasurement, 2150 square yards, superficial measure, or thereabouts, more or less,

The messuages and buildings comprised in this lot have been erected within the last three years. The hotel contains on the ground floor a commercial room to the front dining-room, back parlour, roomy entrance-bar, from which there is a direct communication to the wine and spirit-cellars, which are spacious, an excellent kitchen, wash house; also a large billiard-room, and small room connected therewith, fitted up in a suitable manner, and detached from the house. On the first story is an elegant drawing-room, besides an excellent parlour for private parties, and the bed-rooms are airy and very commodious; the opposite buildings, which have a handsome elevation to the front of the hotel, with a pediment in the centre, comprise three roomy coach-houses, stabling for thirty horses, with lofts over them, a small dwelling-house, with a suitable number of servants' bed-rooms, and an upper room to the front, facing the hotel, 185 feet by 20 and 14 in height; and there is an extensive range of cellaring under the east part of the stabling and yard. The whole erections are of the best materials, excellent workmanship, and finished in a very superior style. The coachhouses and stabling might easily be converted into a compact china-manufactory, or the whole would be a most eligible situation for a distillery, being nearly in the centre of a population of 65,000 persons engaged in the manufactories, and no business of that description being carried on within forty miles.

Lot 4. All that messuage or dwelling-house, situate, lying, and being on the west side of the Waterloo-Road, in Burslem aforesaid, together with the plot of land on which the same has been erected, with the yard and appurtenances thereunto belonging, now in the occupation of John Nicklin, as tenant thereof, at the yearly rent of fifteen guineas.

Lot 5. All those two several messuages, dwelling-houses, or tenements, with the appurtenances, situate, standing, and being in a certain street or place called the Twenty-Row, in Burslem aforesaid, together with the land or ground whereon the same have been erected, containing, by admeasurement, superficial yards, or thereabouts, more or less, now in the respective occupations of John Wood and Junni-cliffe, at the yearly rent of eight pounds each.

Also at the same time will be sold, the engines, machinery, erections, railways and conveniences connected therewith, at Jackfields Colliery, near Burslem, consisting of a twenty horse power steam-engine, of Messrs. Bolton and Watts' principle, with two boilers, and other necessary apparatus belonging thereto, which will be particularised at the time of sale.

Also a six horse power steam-engine, including drum, wheels, boiler, &c.; and also another steam-engine, of six horses power, with boiler, &c.

N. B. The above engines have been recently erected, are in good order and condition, and will be sold together, or in such lots as may be agreed upon at the time of sale.

To view the respective premises comprised in lots 1 and 2, apply to Mr. James Clews, at Ox Leasow aforesaid, and for the remaining lots to the Auctioneer. Any further information may be obtained at the Offices of Messrs. Avison and Son, Solicitors, Liverpool; Mr. Bishop, Solicitor, Shelton-Hall, or Mr. Griffin, Solicitor, Shelton, in the Potteries, who can accommodate the purchasers with money on security of the lots.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Evan Oliver, late of the Bryn, in the Parish of Llanwyddelan, in the County of Montgomery, Cattle Salesman, Dealer and Chapman, will proceed to sell by public auction, at the Bear's Head Inn, in Newtown, in the said County of Montgomery, on Thursday the 12th day of March next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon;

All those messuages or tenements, lands, and hereditaments, commonly called by the names of Tythyn-Penllan-Howell, otherwise Dengel, otherwise Denger and Pantglase, situate in the Parish of Llanwyddelan aforesaid, in the said County of Montgomery, now or late in the holding of William Gittins and Edward Jones, being part of the Bankrupt's estate in mortgage to Thomas Roberts, of Dollas, in the said County of Montgomery, Gentleman, pursuant to an order of the Commissioners, bearing date the 12th day of December 1834.
