Lord Great Chamberlain's-Office, February 17, 1835.

THE Chambers in the Palace of Westminster, which have usually been appropriated to the meeting of the Houses of Parliament, having been partially destroyed by fire, His Majesty has directed the Chamber called the Painted Chamber, in the said Palace, to be fitted up and prepared for the temporary accommodation of the House of Peers; and the Chamber called the Court of Requests, in the said Palace, for the temporary accommodation of the House of Commons at the ensuing meeting of Parliament.

CHOLMONDELEY, D. G. C.

*Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace,
February 17, 1835.*

THE Chambers in the Palace of Westminster, heretofore appropriated to the meeting of the two Houses of Parliament, having been destroyed by fire, His Majesty has ordered the Chambers usually denominated the Painted Chamber and the Court of Requests, in the said Palace, to be respectively fitted up and prepared for the temporary accommodation of the Houses of Lords and Commons, at the ensuing meeting of Parliament.

WILTON, Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 13, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's first Levee will be held at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday next the 18th instant, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 5, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 25th of February next, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday until further orders.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 25th of February, and on the Monday previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.
