Whitehall, February 28, 1835.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignities of a Baron and Viscount of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto the Right Honourable Sir Charles Manners Sutton, G. C. B. and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the names, stiles, and titles of Baron Bottesford, of Bottesford, in the county of Leicester, and Viscount Canterbury, of the city of Canterbury.

Downing-Street, February 28, 1835.

The King has been pleased to appoint Major-General Sir Howard Douglas, Bart. to be Lord High Commissioner in and to the United States of the Ionian Islands.

Whitehall, March 3, 1835.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George Hughes Pringle, of Middleton-hall, in the parish of Ilderton, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. His royal licence and authority that he may (in compliance with a clause in the last will and testament of George Hughes, of Middleton-hall aforesaid, Esq. deceased) henceforth take and use the surname of Hughes, instead of that of Pringle, and also bear the arms of Hughes; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Monday the 16th day of February last, as Mr. William Painter, a Collector of Taxes, was returning home to Bordesley, across some vacant land, called the Parsonage-ground, situated at the bottom of Worcester-street, at Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, he was attacked by four men, who knocked him down, and inflicted so much injury upon him as to occasion his death shortly afterwards;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually struck blows and committed violence on the said William Painter) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS by the Constables of Birmingham, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
