PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting that, by the Law of Navigation, foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever; and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the privileges, by the Law of Navigation granted to foreign ships, shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation. unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country; and it is thereby provided, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall, by some Order or Orders to be by him made by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to the satisfaction of His Majesty in Council, that the conditions aforesaid have been fulfilled by the Government of Denmark;

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council by the said recited Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared accordingly, that the Danish Government hath fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, and that Danish ships may import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the country to which they belong, goods the produce of that country, and may export goods from such possessions, to be carried to any foreign country whatever:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Aberdeen, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, having the Department of the Colonies, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of April 1835.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively; as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act: and whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned Provisions of the said

Act, respecting such free ports and such free warehousing ports as aforesaid, to the port of Welch Pool, in the island of Campo Bello, in the province of New Brunswick;

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports and the free warehousing ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to Welch Pool, in the island of Campo Bello, in the province of New Brunswick; and that, from and after the first day of June next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Welch Pool; and that the said port shall, from and after the time aforesaid, for all the purposes of the said Act, be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of April 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council should appear most expedient and salutary; and whereas, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, did, on the twenty-second February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, make a certain Order in Council for regulating the trade of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, by which Order the importation of tea into the said colony, except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession in America, or by the East India Company or with their licence, was prohibited; and whereas the said recited Act of Parliament hath been subsequently repealed:

And whereas by a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from the British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing in that Act to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas doubts had arisen whether, in consequence of the repeal of several of the laws relating to the Customs, divers Orders of His Majesty in Council, issued in pursuance of such laws, had not ceased to be binding and in force, and, amongst others, the before in part recited Order in Council of twenty-second February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two:

And whereas by a certain Act, passed in the fourth and fifth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it is declared to be expedient, that such doubts as aforesaid should be removed; and it is thereby enacted and declared, that all Orders made by His Majesty, or by His late Majesty King George the Fourth, with the advice of their respective Privy Councils, in pursuance of any of the Acts so repealed as aforesaid, so far as the same, or any of them, were or was in force at or immediately before the time when the Act of the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, by which the same were so repealed, came into operation, did, notwithstanding that Act, continue in full force, as though that Act had not been made; and should thereafter continue in full force, unless and until the same, or any of them, should be, either in whole or in part, rescinded or revoked by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council:

And whereas by the effect of the said several recited Acts of Parliament and of the said Order in Council, so much of the said Order as relates to the importation of tea into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, remains in force:

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested by the several Acts of Parliament, so made as aforesaid in the third and fourth year, and in the fourth and fifth year of His Majesty's reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said recited Order in Council of the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, as prohibits the importation of tea into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession in America, unless by the East India Company or with their licence, shall be, and the same is hereby, rescinded and revoked:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of April 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, c. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training, and regulate the quotas, of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of February 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves," after reciting that it was necessary that provision should be made for the apportionment, amongst the proprietors of the slaves to be manumitted by virtue of the said Act in each of the said colonies respectively, of that part of the said compensation fund which should be so assigned as in the said Act is therein before recited to each of the respective colonies; and reciting that the necessary rules for that purpose could not be properly or safely established, until after full enquiry should have been made into the several circumstances which ought to be taken into consideration in making such apportionment, it was, amongst other things, enacted, that the said Commissioners should, and were thereby required to, proceed to draw up and frame all such general rules, regard being had to the laws and usages in force in each colony respectively, as to them might seem best adapted in each colony respectively for securing the just and equitable distribution of the said funds amongst or for the benefit of such several persons as aforesaid, and for the protection of such funds, and for the appointment and indemnification of such trustees as aforesaid; and such general rules, when so framed and when agreed upon by the said Commissioners, should by them be subscribed with their respective hands and seals and transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council, to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council, and so from time to time as often as any further general rules should be so framed and agreed to for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them;

And it was also enacted, that the general rules to be transmitted as aforesaid to the said Lord President should be forthwith published in the London Gazette on three several occasions at least, together with a notice that all persons interested in or affected by any such general rules might, by a time to be in such notice limited, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council; and that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or for any three or more of them, by any further notice or notices to be for that purpose published in the London Gazette, to enlarge, as to them might seem meet, the time for receiving any such appeals:

And it was further enacted that if, within the time so to be limited for receiving such appeals, any person or persons should prefer any petition of appeal to His Majesty in Council against any such general rule so published as aforesaid in the London Gazette, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council, or for any Committee of Privy Council, to hear such appeal, and to cause notice thereof to be served upon the said Commissioners, who should thereupon undertake the defence of such appeal; and upon hearing any such appeal it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and annul, or to rescind and disallow, any such general rule as aforesaid, or thereupon to alter, amend, or vary any such rule in such manner as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit the same to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision:

And it was also enacted that, at the expiration of the time limited for receiving such appeals as aforesaid, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and allow, or to rescind and disallow, in the whole or in part, or to amend, alter, or vary any such general rule or rules, though not so appealed against, as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit such rules to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision:

And it was further enacted that, when and so often as any such general rule or rules as aforesaid should by His Majesty in Council have been confirmed and allowed, an Order should be made by His Majesty in Council reciting at length any such rule or rules, with any alterations or amendments which might have been made therein as aforesaid; and a copy of every such Order in Council should be duly certified by the Lord President of His Majesty's Council for the time being to the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, or to the Master of the Rolls for the time being, and should be duly enrolled among the records of the High Court of Chancery, and should there remain and be of record:

And it was further enacted that, for ensuring method, regularity, and dispatch in the mode of preferring and proceeding upon such claims, the said Commissioners should and were thereby authorised, by general rules to be framed and published, confirmed, allowed, and enrolled as aforesaid, to prescribe the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring any such claims, and to authorise the Assistant Commissioners, so to be appointed as thereinbefore mentioned, in the said several colonies to receive and report upon the same, or any of them, in such manner and form, and under such regulations as to the Commissioners; so to be appointed by His Majesty as aforesaid, should seem meet; and to prescribe the manner, the time or times, the place or places, and the form or forms in which notices of such claims shall be published for general information, or especially communicated to or served upon any person or persons interested therein or affected thereby; and to prescribe the form and manner of proceeding to be observed upon the prosecution of such claims, or in making any opposition to the same; and to make all such regulations as to them might seem best adapted for promoting method, economy, and dispatch in the investigation of such claims, and respecting the evidence to be taken and admitted for or against the same, and respecting the manner and form of adjudicating thereupon, and otherwise however respecting the method, form, and manner of proceeding to be observed, either by them, the said Assistant Commissioners, or by the parties to any proceedings before them, their agents, or witnesses; and which rules should from time to time be liable to be amended, altered, varied, or renewed as occasion might require, in such manner as is therein before directed:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by a Commission under the Great Seal, bearing date the seventh day of October in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, did constitute Charles Christopher Pepys, James Lewis, John George Shaw Lefevre, Samuel Duckworth, Thomas Amyott, Hastings Elwin, and Henry Frederick Stephenson, Esqrs. to be Commissioners of Arbitration for the purposes in the said Act mentioned.

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did draw up and frame such general rules as therein mentioned for the apportionment of the compensation money therein mentioned amongst the persons seized of, or entitled to, or having, any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien upon, or any claim to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves so to be manumitted, as in the said Act is mentioned, at the time of such their manumission:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did also frame such general rules as in the said Act are mentioned, prescribing the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring any such claims as are therein mentioned:

And whereas the said general rules when so framed, being subscribed with the respective hands and seals of certain of the said Commissioners, were by them on the first day of April last transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council:

And whereas the said rules so transmitted as aforesaid to the Lord President have been published in the manner and form in the said Act in that behalf required, together with a notice that all persons interested in or affected by any such general rules might, within six months from the date of such notice, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council:

And whereas such notice bore date the seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and the said term of six months expire don the seventeenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four:

And whereas by a further notice, dated the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and published as by the said Act is in that behalf required, three of the Lords of His Majesty's

Privy Council did, in so far as related to the colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius, enlarge the time for receiving appeals against certain of the said general rules to the period of nine months from the date of the said notice of the seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, but no appeal, except as hereinafter mentioned, hath been preferred against any of the said general rules:

And whereas the several parties hereinafter mentioned did, within the time limited for that purpose by the said notice of the seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, prefer their respective appeals to His Majesty in Council against certain of the before mentioned rules:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, to refer the said last mentioned appeals unto a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, who have made a report thereupon to His Majesty in Council, dated the fourteenth day of February instant, in the words following, videlicet:

"Your Majesty having been pleased, by your Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, to refer unto this Committee the humble petition and appeal of William Burge, Esq. of Lincoln's-inn, Barrister at law and Agent for the island of Jamaica, appointed by an Act of the Governor, Council and Assembly of that island, passed in the fourth year of the reign of your present Majesty, setting forth that by the Act of the Imperial Parliament for the Abolition of Slavery throughout the British colonies, for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves, the sum of twenty millions pounds sterling was granted by Parliament as a compensation to the persons entitled to the services of the slaves thereby manumitted, for the loss of such services, provided the Legislatures of the said several colonies should pass such Acts as your Majesty, with the advice of your Majesty's Privy Council, should declare to be adequate and satisfactory for giving effect to the said Act of Abolition in such colonies by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; that an Act has been passed by the Governor, Council and Assembly of the said island of Jamaica, entitled "An Act for the Abolition of Slavery in this island, in consideration of compensation and for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves, and to declare the fifty-second George the Third, cap. 155, in force in this island;" which your Majesty, with the advice of your Privy Council, has been pleased to declare adequate and satisfactory for giving effect to the said Act of Abolition in the island of Jamaica by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; that your Majesty, in pursuance of the power given by the said Act of the Imperial Parliament, has appointed Commissioners for enquiring into and deciding upon the claims to compensation; that the petitioner is the agent in Great Britain for the island of Jamaica, being duly appointed by an Act of the Governor Council and Assembly of that island, passed in the fourth year of your present Majesty, to solicit the passing of such laws and to transact such other public matters as shall from time to time be committed to his care for the good of the island; that amongst the general rules for the government of the Commissioners, drawn up and framed under the forty-seventh section of the said Act of the Imperial Parliament, the petitioner objects to the fourth and sixth; that by the fourth rule it is required, 'that in cases in which any such compensation moneys, or any interest therein, shall belong to, or be vested in, any married woman, infant, lunatic, or person of insane or unsound mind, or person beyond the seas, or labouring under any other legal or natural disability or incapacity, for the protection of whose rights and interests it may be necessary to make provision, and in all other cases in which it may appear to be necessary for protecting any estates or interests and securing the due application of the compensation monies to be awarded in respect thereof, the Commissioners shall direct the appointment of trustees to be nominated on behalf of the parties interested and to be approved by the Commissioners, and shall cause the necessary deeds to be prepared for declaring the rights and interests of the parties, and the trusts and limitations in pursuance thereof, together with all necessary provisions for the indemnity of the trustees, and shall direct the compensation moneys to be invested in the public funds, in the names of such trustees, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto, in pursuance of such trusts and according to such respective rights and interests; and the petitioner objects to the said fourth rule:

Because the appointment of trustees by the Commissioners can never be free from risk to the parties interested, and the execution of a trust-deed would cause unnecessary expence, and which expence must be repeated as often as a new trustee becomes necessary, whereas a more secure, and at the same time a less expensive, mode would be to invest such monies in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery or the Court of Exchequer, or in the name of the Receiver-General of the island of Jamaica, and make the payment by him be subject to the order of the said Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer, or Court of Chancery in the said island; that by the sixth rule it is required 'that the apportionment of the compensation moneys amongst the persons seized of, or entitled to, or having any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien upon, or any claim to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves to be manumitted by the said Act at the time of such their manumission shall be made according to the priority which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment or lien, claim, right, or interests may respectively have in or upon such slave or slaves according to the laws and usages in force in the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled:

And the petitioner objects to the said sixth rule because no provision is made for the owner or second incumbrancer, while the whole compensation is to be given to the mortgagee or prior incumbrancer, and that the compensation granted by way of indemnity to all persons interested in slave property operates only as an indemnity to one class of persons, whereas it never was or could be intended that one person interested should receive the whole compensation and thus be exempted from any loss, whilst another person, interested in the same slaves, should receive no part of the compensation and thus sustain the whole loss, and yet such is the obvious effect of the sixth rule; because it is wholly inconsistent with the second general rule which precedes it, and which, in accordance with the intention of Parliament, provides that the compensation money should be deemed to be of the same nature and impressed with the same character as the slaves in respect of whom such money should be allotted; whereas the effect of the sixth rule is to give the mortgagee or incumbrancer an advantage which he did not enjoy before, while the owner will be in a worse condition than he was before, because in any judicial sale the land and slaves would have been sold together, and, being sold together, would each produce a higher price than could be obtained if each were sold separately; by this rule the mortgagee or prior incumbrancer will receive the compensation money for the slaves, while the land will be left in its deteriorated state to the owner:

Because it leaves the mortgagor without any means to pay the wages and other contingencies for the cultivation of his estate, for it would not be in his power to borrow money on the security of the land alone; and lastly because the mortgagor or owner under the Act is obliged to provide for the maintenance and support of the aged and infirm apprentices, without at the same time receiving any part of the compensation money to enable him to defray that expence:

And the petitioner further objects to these general rules, because no provision has been made by the Commissioners in any of the said rules for adjusting the respective interests of annuitants and owners of land and slaves charged with annuities, payable out of the rents and profits of lands and slaves; it would be manifestly unjust, and contrary to the nature of the charge, that the whole compensation money should be set apart for the annuitant, for then he would be in a better situation, and the owner of the land in a worse situation, than they were respectively before the passing of the Act; for the annuitant could never have interfered with the possession of the land or slaves, so long as his annuity was paid, and the owner if it became in arrear would have had the services of the slaves wherewith to produce the rents and profits by which it was discharged.

Because no provision is made to exempt the compensation money from those charges to which it will be subject from its being made payable in England, whenever it forms part of the succession to a person who has died domiciled in the said colony; that under the said fifty-fifth clause of the said Abolition Act, the said Commissioners have drawn up and framed several rules prescribing the manner of proceeding to be observed by claimants under the said Act upon the prosecution of their claims, and in making opposition to the same:

That the thirteenth of such rules gives a power to the Assistant Commissioners to adjudicate upon claims with the consent of all parties, otherwise by the preceding rules all contested claims are to be decided in London by the Commissioners there; and the petitioner objects to this mode of proceeding, because in many cases it will be impossible to obtain such consent on account of the legal or natural disability of some of the parties, because the power of transferring the investigation to England will be used by some persons, in the hope of extorting terms from their adversary who may be unwilling or unable to incur that expence, and because persons residing in England, and who must, before the passing of this measure, have prosecuted or defended their claims in the colony, will not consent to renounce the advantage which is given of prosecuting or defending them in this country; because it is a departure from that established principle in every system of jurisprudence, that a suitor must resort to the forum of the defendant, or in the case of property having locality to the place where it is situate, in order to assert his title to it; and because it is an infringement on the right of the subject to deprive him of the jurisdiction to which, by the law of the land, he is entitled to resort for the protection of his property, and the proper tribunal for such investigation would be before a jury of Jamaica; and the petitioner submits that there ought to be a power reserved to the Commissioners of extending the term for preferring claims in the colonies and of receiving claims, notwithstanding the term for preferring them may have expired, whenever a proper case for such extension or reception shall arise; that power also ought to be reserved to the Commissioners of directing an issue for the trial by jury of the island of questions of fact; and the petitioner lastly submits that in the return of the number of slaves in the island of Jamaica, and in the estimate of their value which the said Commissioners have required to be made, a very considerable expence must be incurred, whereas that expence could be saved, and the return more speedily and properly made, if the compensation money applicable to the island were to be distributed according to the number of negroes in the island, per capita; and the petitioner therefore appeals against the rules of the Commissioners thereinbefore stated, and humbly prays that your Majesty will please to cause to be amended and altered the said rules as to your great wisdom shall seem meet."

And your Majesty having been further pleased, by your said Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, to refer unto this Committee the humble petition and appeal of Charles Anthony Ferdinand Bentinck, of Wilton-crescent, in the county of Middlesex, a Captain and Lieutenant-Colonel in the Coldstream Regiment of Guards, and Henry John William Bentinck, a Captain and Lieutenant-Colonel in the same Regiment of Guards, joint proprietors of a plantation and slaves in the colony of Demerara, setting forth, that the petitioners are seized and possessed of, or entitled to, a certain plantation or estate, situate on the eastern coast of Demerara, in South America, commonly called the "Bonne Intention Estate," together with the negro and other slaves thereon; that the said plantation and slaves were, before they vested in the petitioners, and still are, subject to a mortgage debt of considerable amount, but far less than the value of the said estate before passing of the Act hereinafter referred to; that by the Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of your present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies, for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves, and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves," the Commissioners to be appointed under the authority thereof, were required and directed to frame certain general rules; that in obedience to the directions contained in the said Act, under the forty-seventh and fifty-fifth clauses thereof, the Commissioners appointed by your Majesty, under the authority of the said Act, have drawn up and framed certain general rules to be observed in carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, and which said general rules have since been published in the London Gazette; that amongst the said general rules, so framed under the said forty-seventh clause, are contained the following, "2. That in respect to all persons who, as owners or creditors, legatees or annuitants, may have any joint or common interest in any slave or slaves, or may be entitled to, or interested in, any slave or slaves, either in possession, remainder, reversion, or expectancy, the compensation monies to be awarded in respect of such slave or slaves shall be deemed to be of the same nature, and impressed with the same character, for all purposes whatsoever, so far as the same can be so taken and applied, as the slave or slaves in respect of whom such monies shall be allotted, and shall be subject to the same rules of distribution, and to the same charges and liabilities, as the same slave or slaves respectively would have been subject to according to the several estates and interests of the parties entitled thereto, and agreeably to the law and usage of the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled;" "6. That the apportionment of the compensation monies amongst the persons seized of, or entitled to, or having any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien, upon or a any claims to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves to be manumitted by the said Act at the time of such their manumission, shall be made according to the priority which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien, claim, right, or interest may respectively have in or upon such slave or slaves, according to the laws and usages in force in the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled;" that under the said two rules the said mortgagee claims to be entitled to receive the whole of the compensation money allotted in respect of the slaves upon the petitioners' estate; that the petitioners conceive they would be aggrieved by the aforesaid rules, if the said mortgagee should establish his claim to the whole of the said compensation money, and submit that the principle, according to justice and equity upon which the rules affecting the interest of proprietors and mortgagees ought to be framed, should be to give a proportionate benefit to both the parties interested in the compensation intended for the loss sustained to the proprietors by the measures of the Legislature in the emancipation of the said slaves; and not that the whole loss and burden of the contemplated loss by the said measures should be thrown upon, and born by, the proprietor, which it is submitted will be the case if the rules Nos 2 and 6, hereinbefore set forth, should not be amended in such manner as to allow an equitable division of the said compensation money between the petitioners and the said mortgagee; and the petitioners submit that it never could have been the intention of the Legislature, in emancipating the slaves, to ruin the proprietor, and protect only a creditor from a loss created by his own speculative acts, and not by a loan to the proprietor. The petitioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty in Council will be pleased not to confirm and allow, but to alter, amend, or vary the aforesaid rules Nos. 2 and 6, and any other of the said rules which are framed upon the same principle, and give them relief and protection in the premises, so that they may receive an equitable proportion of the said compensation fund to be allotted in respect of the said slaves, or that your Majesty will remit such rules to the Commissioners for further consideration and revision for that purpose, or that such order and direction may be made and given in the premises as to your Majesty may seem meet."

And your Majesty having been further pleased by your said Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, to refer unto this Committee the humble petition and appeal of Henry Iles Woodcock, of the island of Saint Christopher, in the West Indies, Esquire, setting forth that the petitioner is advised that he is a claimant entitled to prefer his claim to the compensation provided by the Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of your present Majesty's reign, cap. 73, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves, and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves," under the circumstances thereafter stated; that the petitioner is a Barrister at Law, and was, previous to the passing of the said Act, senior King's Counsel for Tortola and the other Virgin Islands situate in the West Indies, and in that character the public became indebted to him for conducting the law business of the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands in a large sum of money, and which, together with various public accounts due to individuals which were received in payment by and assigned to the petitioner, on his departure from the island of Tortola, for sale of property there, amounted to the sum of £2526. 16. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ . current gold and silver money; that the petitioner was induced to accept the assignment or transfer of such accounts, in payment of property he so disposed of in the said island of Tortola, as the greater part of them were for salaries earned by and due to the public officers of the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands, for the payment of which, the faith of the colonial Legislature was pledged by resolutions passed to that effect, and upon which footing the petitioner's account for his professional services for the public was also placed as is hereinafter stated; that at the time when these public accounts were assigned to or received by the petitioner, they, as well as his own account, bore interest; but all public accounts were shortly afterwards called in, and the interest stopped, under an understanding that an Act of the Legislature of the said colony or possession would be passed to raise a tax for the satisfaction of the demands of the public creditors. The Act of the said Legislature alluded to, was eventually passed on the sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, intituled "Virgin Islands, Tortola.—An Act for raising a sum of money for the exigences of these islands, and to repeal an Act for laying a duty of gunpowder upon certain vessels trading to and from these islands;" and the following is an extract therefrom, forty-seventh clause:—"Whereas, it is requisite that the debt now due by the public of these islands should be ascertained with the greatest accuracy, in order that due provision may be made for the payment thereof, and that the various claims held by different individuals should be consolidated into single negociable instruments; be it therefore enacted, that immediately after the publication of this Act, the treasurer, or his lawful deputy, shall issue advertisements and notices, to be affixed in the most conspicuous places in the road town of Tortola, of the east end thereof, of the west end thereof; of the island of Jois Van Dykes, of the island of Peter's Island, of the island of Spanish Town, and of the island of Anagada, and also procure such advertisements and notices to be inserted in the Saint Christopher newspapers, calling on all person or persons whomsoever who hold public accounts or who have claims on the public of these islands to give in, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, the amount of their several accounts or claims, with interest, calculated on such as bear interest, up to such first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, to the treasurer, or his lawful deputy, producing at the same time the public accounts or vouchers on which such claims are founded; and the said treasurer, or his lawful deputy, is hereby directed after such day, and at the first meeting of the Council and Assembly, to present a statement of such claims, the several amount of each, and the name of the claimant or holder thereof, and the Council or Assembly are to examine such statement, and if approved of, they shall, and are hereby authorised, to issue an order signed by the president of the Council and Speaker of the Assembly for the time being, on the public treasury, payable to each claimant or holder and his assigns, or to his, her, or their order, for the amount of his or her consolidated claim, which order shall not bear any interest, and shall be liquidated by an annual dividend thereon.

That the public debts of the said colony or possession were ascertained by a Committee of the Legislature of the said colony or possession appointed for such purpose, and, amongst the claims of other creditors, they considered that of the petitioner, and ascertained the amount to be £2526. 16. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ . current money.

That the report of the said Committee was adopted, and, amongst other creditors, the petitioner appears on the public ledger of the said colony, in the possession of the Treasurer, to have an admitted demand against the said colony for the above-mentioned sum.

That on the thirty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, an order was issued to the Treasurer of the said colony or possession, in favour of the petitioner, under the said tax act, for the said sum of £2526. 16. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ . current money, and the petitioner has since received on account thereof £98. 5. 3. current money, under the provisions of the said tax act; the following is a copy of the said order and receipt attached:

Virgin Islands, } £2526. 16. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ . C. G.
Tortola. } and S. money.

"To the Treasurer of the said Virgin Islands, or his lawful deputy, under and by virtue of an Act, intituled "An Act for raising a sum of money for the exigences of these islands, and to repeal an Act, intituled "An Act for laying a duty on gunpowder upon certain vessels trading to and from the islands."

"Pay to Henry Woodcock, Esquire, and his assigns, or to his, her, or their order, the sum of £2526. 16s. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ . current gold and silver money, being the amount of sundry accounts against the public of the said Virgin Islands, held by him or them, consolidated by the above Act, clause the forty-seventh, and payable by annual dividend.

Tortola, twenty-first October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

Wm. Rogers Isaacs, President.
Thos. Marsh, Speaker."

"Tortola. Received from George Williams-Lewis, Esquire, Treasurer, the sum £98. 5. 3. C. G. and S. money, being the amount of dividend upon consolidated public account up to first October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three. £98. 5. 3.

H. J. Woodcock,
by his Attorney, G. W. Lewis."

That, after deducting the said sum of £98. 5. 3. from the said debt of £2526. 16. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ . there remains due to the petitioner on the said order the sum of £2428. 11. 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ . current money.

That the taxes raised for payment of the public debt in the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands, have hitherto been levied on the slave holders, by making them pay so much for each slave they possess.

That, in consequence of the aforesaid Act of Parliament, the negro and other slaves, being emancipated, will cease to be the subject of taxation.

That, as the taxes of the said colony have hitherto been raised on the slave population, and the debt of the colony thereby charged on that species of property, the petitioner submits that which is substituted for, or put in the place of, the slave, should be considered liable to the payment of the sums heretofore charged or chargeable on the slaves, as far as such sums remain on the first August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four unsatisfied, from taxes then already raised on the slave, out of which the public debt was to be paid; and the petitioner therefore submits, that the public debt to the petitioner in arrear should now be paid from the compensation to be given for the slave under the aforesaid Act of Parliament.

That the Commissioners are, under the said Act of Parliament, authorised and required to apportion and assign, amongst others, to the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands, a certain share of the sum of twenty millions of pounds granted by way of compensation, the petitioner humbly submits, that so soon as the share of the said sum payable to the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands is assigned to that colony or possession, it becomes the property of that colony, and as such should be in the first place applied to the payment of its debts, so far as the slaves emancipated under the said Act, or the slave holders in respect of such slaves, would have been liable thereto.

That the principle humbly contended for, on the part of the petitioner, is, that the private property of each individual in the state is, in proportion to its extent, liable for the public debt, it being the only fund from whence the public creditor can be paid; and that when any part of such property is destroyed, and compensation granted for it, the owner thereof cannot engross the whole and avoid his obligation to bear a part of the public burthen, created in maintaining establishments by which he has been secured in the enjoyment, and protected in the possession, of that very property; and that when any species of private property is annihilated, the security of the public creditor and his chance of payment ceases to exist to the extent of the property destroyed; therefore, in the distribution of the compensation given for such property, the interest of the public creditor therein should be considered, and satisfaction awarded to him upon the same principle as payment would be made to the mortgagee or other claimant.

That, in obedience to the directions contained in the said Act of Parliament, under the forty-seventh clause of the said Act of Parliament, and also under the fifty-fifth clause of the said Act of Parliament; the said Commissioners appointed by your Majesty under the authority of the same Act, have drawn up and framed, under date of the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, certain general rules, to be observed in carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, and which general rules have since been published in the London Gazette.

That, notwithstanding the provisions of the said Act of Parliament, the petitioner is advised that the rules so made as aforesaid by the said Commissioners, are inapplicable to the petitioner's case, and that should the same, as they now stand, be confirmed and allowed by your Majesty in Council, the petitioner will be deprived of all benefit and advantage under the said Act of Parliament, or in the compensation thereby provided, inasmuch as there is no rule under which the said Commissioners could entertain the petitioner's said claim.

That the petitioner, therefore, conceives he is aggrieved by the aforesaid rules of the said Commissioners, and he is apprehensive he will be left without remedy, unless your Majesty in Council shall afford him relief:

And the petitioner, therefore, humbly prays, that your Majesty in Council will be pleased to alter, amend, or vary the aforesaid rules of the said Commissioners, by framing a new rule sufficiently ample to comprehend the petitioner's claim, and give him relief and protection in the premises, or by remitting the said rules to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision for that purpose, or that such other order and direction may be made and given in the premises as to your Majesty may seem meet."

The Lords of the Committee, in obedience to your Majesty's said order of reference, have taken the said petitions and appeals into consideration, and caused notice thereof to be served upon the said Commissioners; and having also heard counsel, as well on behalf of the several appellants as on behalf of the said Commissioners in defence of the said appeals, their Lordships do agree humbly to report, as their opinion, to your Majesty, that it may be advisable for your Majesty to confirm and allow, subject to certain alterations and amendments therein, such of the general rules, made as aforesaid, as are the subject of or affected by the said appeals; and their Lordships do agree further humbly to report to your Majesty, that the last-mentioned rules, with such alterations and amendments as aforesaid, are as follows, viz.

GENERAL RULES under the 47th and 55th Clauses of the Act, 3d and 4th Will. 4th, c. 73.

1. That the party or parties who shall be in possession as owner or owners of any slave or slaves, and shall appear as such by the latest returns made in the office of the Registrar of Slaves under the Registry Acts in the respective colonies, shall be deemed prima facie the rightful owner or owners thereof respectively, and prima facie entitled to the compensation monies to be awarded in respect thereof.

3. That the compensation monies to be awarded in respect of any slave or slaves, subject to any trusts or powers whatsoever, shall be subject to the same trusts or powers in all respects as the same slave or slaves were subject to.

4. 5. That in case of the death of any person entitled to such compensation monies who may die intestate before the award of such compensation, the succession to such monies shall be the same as the succession to the interest in the slave or slaves in respect of whom the compensation shall be allotted, according to the law of the particular colony in which such slave or slaves were registered or settled.

6. That the apportionment of the compensation monies amongst the persons seized of or entitled to, or having any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien upon, or any claim to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves to be manumitted by the said Act, at the time of such their manumission, shall be made according to the priority which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment or lien, claim, right, or interest, may respectively have in or upon such slave or slaves according to the laws and usages in force in the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled; but shall be subject to all the equities to which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment or lien, claim, right or interest in such slave or slaves may respectively be liable.

7. That in all cases in which any slave or slaves, or the compensation in respect thereof, shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in the United Kingdom, and to the Commissioners it shall seem meet, the compensation awarded to be paid in respect of such slave or slaves, shall, under the direction of the said court, be paid into the said court, to be subject to the orders, directions, and decrees of the court in which such suit may be depending; and in cases in which such slave or slaves shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in the colony of Jamaica, and to the Commissioners it shall seem meet, the compensation in respect of such slave or slaves shall be paid, under the direction of the said court, to the Receiver-General of the said island, to be subject to the decrees, orders, and directions of the said court in which the suit may be depending.

And in all cases in which such slave or slaves, or the compensation in respect thereof, shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in any other colony than Jamaica, and to the said Commissioners it shall seem meet, the compensation monies awarded in respect of such slave or slaves shall, under the direction of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, to be made upon petition to be preferred in a summary way, be paid into the Bank of England, in the name and with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Exchequer, to be placed to his account there, exparte the persons named in the award and therein specified as the plaintiffs and defendants in the said suit, pursuant to the method prescribed by an Act, made in the first year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intitled, "An Act for the better securing the monies and effects paid into the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on account of the suitors of the said Court, and for other purposes;" and the general orders of the said court, and without fee or reward; and the said monies when so paid in, shall, under such direction as aforesaid, be invested by the said Accountant-General in his name, exparte the said account, in the purchase of £3. per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and the dividends thereon, and also the dividends on all future investments, as they arise and become due, shall be invested by the said Accountant-General in his name, in like manner, so that the same may accumulate for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto; and the said compensation monies so invested as aforesaid, and the said accumulations, shall be paid and transferred, under such direction as aforesaid, to the person or persons to whom the same shall be directed to be paid or transferred by the decree, order, or judgment of the court in the colony, made in the said suit there depending, or any court of appeal; and a copy of such decree, order, or judgment of the court in the colony, or court of appeal, signed by the proper officer of such court, shall be sufficient evidence of such decree, order, or judgment to the said Court of Exchequer.

RULES for the Conduct of the Proceedings under the said Commission, in so far as relates to all the Colonies mentioned and enumerated in the said Act, except the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius.

That, with the consent of the several parties, the Assistant Commissioners in their respective colonies be authorised, according to the several rules hereinbefore stated, to ascertain and report the amount of compensation appearing to be due to any of the litigant parties in cases of contested claims, and transmit forthwith lists or copies of their proceedings and reports to the Commissioners.

That the Commissioners shall, upon such proceedings and reports being received from the Assistant-Commissioners, proceed to the adjudication and award of the compensation which shall appear to be due according to such lists, reports, and proceedings.

And whereas His Majesty hath this day taken into consideration the aforesaid rules, the subject of or affected by the said appeals, together with the recommendation with respect to the same contained in the said report:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in execution of the powers in His Majesty in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, subject to the alterations and amendments recommended in the said report, the said general rules so as aforesaid the subject of or affected by the said appeals, be, and the same are, hereby confirmed and allowed:

And in further pursuance of the said Act of Parliament the said last mentioned rules, with such alterations and amendments as aforesaid, are recited at length in this present Order:

And the Lord President is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit or certificate of identity required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay or retired-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of April, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th of April, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 16th and 18th of April, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 20th, 21st, and 22d of April, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being brought forward on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their affidavits or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 24th and 25th of April.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their affidavits or certificates into the Wages-office at the Admiralty, Somerset-house, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their affidavits or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their affidavits or certificates as required by the usual advertisement; any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form to be transmitted from this Office.

2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.

3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, at a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks

If they wish to receive it by bill of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, or Retired-pay; Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

HIS Majesty's writ of ad quod damnum having issued to the Sheriff of the county of Middlesex, in the following words:

William the Fourth, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, to the Sheriff of Middlesex greeting, we command you that, by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, you diligently enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or of any other person or persons, if we shall grant to William Brewster, Daniel Twining, and Joseph Maberly, licence to inclose a certain part of a certain public footway, called Devereux-court, situate and being in the parish of St. Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, and which part leads from a certain other part of the said court to a certain street called the Strand, in the same county, and extends in length eighty-four feet or thereabouts, and in breadth, at the widest part thereof, eleven feet or thereabouts, and at the narrowest part thereof, four feet five inches or thereabouts, and is bounded by the said street called the Strand towards the north, and by the premises of the said William Brewster, Daniel Twining, and Joseph Maberly towards the east and south, and by other premises of the said William Brewster, Daniel Twining, and Joseph Maberly, in part, and the said court called Devereux-court, in other part, towards the west; to hold the same so inclosed to them and their heirs for ever, so as instead thereof they make another footway, of the same or less length, and equally or more commodious and convenient for passengers, in, through, and over the said William Brewster, Daniel Twining, and Joseph Maberly's own land; and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or of any other person or persons, then to what damage or to what prejudice of us, and to what damage or to what prejudice of any and of what other person or persons, and how and in what manner; and how much that part of the said footway doth contain by number of perches or feet of land, as well in length as breadth; and that you return the inquisition thereof, distinctly and plainly made, without delay, into our Chancery, under your seal and the seals of those by whom such inquisition shall have been taken, together with this writ.

Witness ourself at Westminster, the 21st day of March, in the fifth year of our reign.

Notice is hereby given, that an inquisition will be taken, by virtue and in execution of the said writ, on Wednesday the 15th day of April next, at the house of Mr. George Baxter, commonly called or known by the name of the Crown and Anchor, in the Strand, in the county of Middlesex, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day; when and where all and every person and persons who may consider himself, herself, or themselves, or his, her, or their estate, likely to be injured or affected by the stopping up of the said public footway are to attend.—Dated this 27th day of March 1835.
