NOTICE is hereby given, that the Levee intended to be held by His Majesty at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday next the 15th instant, is postponed to Wednesday the 29th instant, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of April 1835.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of fisheries in British ships, be exported from; any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereinafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act: and whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports and such free warehousing ports as aforesaid, to the port of Welch Pool, in the island of Campo Bello, in the province of New Brunswick;

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports and the free warehousing ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to Welch Pool, in the island of Campo Bello, in the province of New Brunswick; and that, from and after the first day of June next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Welch Pool; and that the said port shall, from and after the time aforesaid, for all the purposes of the said Act, be a free warehousing port under the said Act as if appointed by the same:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of April 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council should appear most expedient and salutary; and whereas, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, did, on the twenty-second February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, make a certain Order in Council for regulating the trade of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, by which Order the importation of tea into the said colony, except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession in America, or by the East India Company or with their licence, was prohibited; and whereas the said recited Act of Parliament hath been subsequently repealed:

And whereas by a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from the British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing in that Act to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas doubts had arisen whether, in consequence of the repeal of several of the laws relating to the Customs, divers Orders of His Majesty in Council, issued in pursuance of such laws, had not ceased to be binding and in force, and, amongst others, the before in part recited Order in Council of twenty-second February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two:

And whereas by a certain Act, passed in the fourth and fifth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it is declared to be expedient that such doubts as aforesaid should be removed; and it is thereby enacted and declared, that all Orders made by His Majesty, or by His late Majesty King George the Fourth, with the advice of their respective Privy Councils, in pursuance of any of the Acts so repealed as aforesaid, so far as the same, or any of them, were or was in force at or immediately before the time when the Act of the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, by which the same were so repealed, came into operation, did, notwithstanding that Act, continue in full force, as though that Act had not been made; and should thereafter continue in full force, unless and until the same, or any of them, should be, either in whole or in part, rescinded or revoked by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council:

And whereas by the effect of the said several recited Acts of Parliament and of the said Order in Council, so much of the said Order as relates to the importation of tea into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, remains in force:

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested by the several Acts of Parliament, so made as aforesaid in the third and fourth year, and in the fourth and fifth year of His Majesty's reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said recited Order in Council of the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, as prohibits the importation of tea into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession in America, unless by the East India Company or with their licence, shall be, and the same is hereby, rescinded and revoked:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of April 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British

"possessions abroad," after reciting that, by the Law of Navigation, foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever; and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the privileges, by the Law of Navigation granted to foreign ships, shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country; and it is thereby provided, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall, by some Order or Orders to be by him made by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to the satisfaction of His Majesty in Council, that the conditions aforesaid have been fulfilled by the Government of Denmark;

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council by the said recited Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared accordingly, that the Danish Government hath fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, and that Danish ships may import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the country to which they belong, goods the produce of that country, and may export goods from such possessions, to be carried to any foreign country whatever:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Aberdeen, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, having the Department of the Colonies, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table therein contained; and it is thereby, amongst other things, provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject nevertheless to the limitations and restrictions thereafter pro-shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act; and after reciting that there are in the said possessions many places situated in rivers and in bays at which it may be necessary to establish ports for particular and limited purposes only, it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in any Order in Council made for the appointment of any free port to limit and confine such appointments respectively to any and such purposes only as shall be expressed in such Order:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act for such purposes as are after mentioned, to the port of Majaquadvie, in the province of North Brunswick; now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty doth, with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of June next all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject nevertheless to the limitations and restrictions hereinafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to the said port of Majaquadvie, as fully as if the said port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that the said port of Majaquadvie shall be a free port under the said Act for the single purpose of importing from the United States of America articles for the use and consumption of His Majesty's subjects and others inhabiting the said port, and for no other purpose:

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
March 26, 1835.

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit or certificate of identity required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay or retired-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of April, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th of April, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys

On the 16th and 18th of April, to Lieutenants at 7s and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 20th, 21st, and 22d of April, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being brought forward on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their affidavits or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 24th and 25th of April.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their affidavits or certificates into the Wages-office at the Admiralty, Somerset-house, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their affidavits or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their affidavits or certificates as required by the usual advertisement; any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, on a form to be transmitted from this Office.

2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.

3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, at a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks.

If they wish to receive it by bill of exchange, they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, or Retired-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form will be sent to them.

If they wish to have it remitted to them, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a bill will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer, signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.
