

general rule so published as aforesaid in the London Gazette, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council, or for any Committee of Privy Council, to hear such appeal, and to cause notice thereof to be served upon the said Commissioners, who should thereupon undertake the defence of such appeal; and upon hearing any such appeal it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and annul, or to rescind and disallow, any such general rule as aforesaid, or thereupon to alter, amend, or vary any such rule in such manner as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit the same to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision:

And it was also enacted that, at the expiration of the time limited for receiving such appeals as aforesaid, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and allow, or to rescind and disallow, in the whole or in part, or to amend, alter, or vary any such general rule or rules, though not so appealed against, as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit such rules to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision:

And it was also enacted that, when and so often as any such general rule or rules as aforesaid should by His Majesty in Council have been confirmed and allowed, an Order should be made by His Majesty in Council reciting at length any such rule or rules, with any alterations or amendments which might have been made therein as aforesaid; and a copy of every such Order in Council should be duly certified by the Lord President of His Majesty's Council for the time being, to the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, or to the Master of the Rolls for the time being, and should be duly enrolled among the records of the High Court of Chancery, and should there remain and be of record:

And it was further enacted that, for ensuring method, regularity, and dispatch in the mode of preferring and proceeding upon such claims, the said Commissioners should and were thereby authorised, by general rules to be framed and published, confirmed, allowed, and enrolled as aforesaid, to prescribe the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring any such claims, and to authorise the Assistant Commissioners, so to be appointed as therein before mentioned, in the said several colonies to receive and report upon the same, or any of them, in such manner and form, and under such regulations as to the Commissioners, so to be appointed by His Maesty as aforesaid, should seem meet; and to prescribe the manner, the time or times, the place or places, and the form or forms in which notices of such claims shall be published for general information, or especially communicated to or served upon any person or persons interested therein or affected thereby; and to prescribe the form and manner of proceeding to be observed upon the prosecution of such claims, or in making any opposition to the same; and to make all such regulations as to them may seem best adapted for promoting method, economy, and dispatch in the investigation of such facts, and respecting the evidence to be taken and admitted for or against the same, and respecting the manner and form of adjudicating thereupon, and otherwise however respecting the method, form, and manner of proceeding to be observed, by them, the said Assistant Commissioners, or by the parties to any proceedings before them, their agents, or witnesses; and which rules should from time to time be liable to be amended, altered, varied, or renewed as occasion might require, in such manner as is therein before directed:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by a Commission under the Great Seal, bearing date the twelfth day of April in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, did constitute John Bonham Carter, James Lewis, John George Shaw Lefevre, Samuel Duckworth, Thomas Amyott, Hastings Elwin, and Henry Frederick Stephenson, Esqrs. to be Commissioners of Arbitration for the purposes in the said Act mentioned.

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did draw up and frame such general rules as therein mentioned for the apportionment of the compensation money therein mentioned amongst the persons seized of, or entitled to, or having, any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien upon, or any claim to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves so to be manumitted, as in the said Act is mentioned, at the time of such their manumission:

And whereas the said general rules have been duly confirmed by His Majesty in Council, with such alterations and amendments as therein mentioned:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did also frame such general rules as in the said Act are mentioned, prescribing the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring any such claim as therein mentioned, in so far as relates to
