

rising and directing the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, appointed under the said Act, to proceed to a sale of the real estate of the said Insolvent, and to determine on the manner, time, and place of making such sale; also (subject to the approbation of the said Court, or one of the Commissioners thereof) to authorise and empower the said Assignee to commence and prosecute one or more suit or suits in equity, for recovering such trust and other moneys, personal estate, property, and effects as the said Insolvent is entitled to, in right of his wife, under or by virtue of the last will and testament of Sarah Clementshaw, late of Wakefield aforesaid, Widow deceased; also to authorise and empower the said Assignee (with such approbation as aforesaid) to commence, prosecute, or defend any other suit or suits, at law or in equity, for recovery of all or any part of the real and personal estate and effects of the said Insolvent, or in anywise relating thereunto; also to make compositions with any debtor or debtors to the estate of the said Insolvent, and to take such reasonable part of any such debts as can or may upon such composition be gotten in full discharge of such debts; and to submit to arbitration any difference or dispute between the said Assignee and any person or persons for or on account, or by reason of any matter, cause, or thing relating to the estate and effects of the said Insolvent.

Charles Martin's Insolvency.

THE Creditors of Charles Martin, formerly of Brislington, in the County of Somerset, then of Cumberland-Road, in the Parish of Bedminster, in the same County, Landing Waiter of His Majesty's Customs in the City of Bristol, an Insolvent Debtor, discharged under his petition (No. 38,927) from the Gaol of Hechester, in the County of Somerset aforesaid, on or about the 6th day of March last, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament made for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, on Thursday the 21st day of May next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, at the Office of Mr. John Kerle Haberfield, Attorney at Law, in Nicholas-Street, Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, actions, or other proceedings at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent; and particularly as to the propriety of the said Assignee's redeeming, on behalf and for the benefit of the several Creditors, the various articles of plate and other property pawned and pledged by the said Charles Martin with various Pawnbrokers and other persons in the City of Bristol, and elsewhere, to be named at the said meeting, and paying to the holders of such property the amount of moneys thereon advanced by, and now due to, the said Pawnbrokers and other persons, with the legal interest due, on security of such plated articles, and other effects, and to act therein as to the sale and disposal thereof as the said Assignee shall see fit or be advised; also to the said Assignee selling and disposing of, by valuation and appraisement of qualified persons, all the estate, right, title, and interest of the said Insolvent of and in the various freehold, leasehold, and lifehold messuages or tenements, farms, lands, and other property given and devised to or in trust for the said Insolvent, under the will of Charles Arthur, late of the Parish of Walcot, in the County of Somerset, deceased, or in or to which the said Insolvent is interested in or entitled unto, whether in possession, reversion, remainder, or in expectancy, or otherwise howsoever, respectively situate, lying, and being in the City of Bath; in the Parish of Stapleton and St. George, in the County of Gloucester; in the City of Bristol; or elsewhere; either to the several persons, who will be named at the said meeting, who have like interest in such several properties jointly with the said Insolvent, or otherwise, as the said Assignee shall be advised as beneficial to the Creditors in general, or by public auction or by private contract, or partly in one mode and partly in the other, on such days and times, and in such manner and form, as shall be considered advantageous, and to join and concur with all such interested and other parties in any sale or sales of such property respectively, as well as in deducing a marketable title thereto, at a proportionate share of all the costs and charges thereto appertaining; also to the said Assignee arranging with all or any person or persons claiming to be Mortgagees, or as having equitable lien on any part of the aforesaid property, the amounts of their several claims in respect to principal and interest; also to the said Assignee investigating certain costs and charges claimed against the estate of the said Insolvent by a Creditor, to be named at the meeting, against whose claim or debt, which is disputed by the said Insolvent in the schedule filed by him in the Court of Insolvent Debtors, and who hath made observations touching such disputed claims as are important, which will be read at the said meeting, and to act in regard to such disputed claims (previous to the payment of any dividend thereon from the estate and effects of the said Insolvent) as the said Assignee shall be advised, or to resist the payment of any dividend on such claim, until the same shall be legally investigated, and a clear legal debt fully made out, by legal authority, against the said Insolvent, for the general benefit of the said Creditors; also to the said Assignee arranging any suit or proceeding, doubt or difficulty, touching the said estate and effects; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignee to act in the premises for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Charles Martin in such manner as the said Assignee may be advised.

All Letters must be post-paid.

Printed and Published at the Office, in Cannon-Row, Parliament-Street, by ROBERT GEORGE CLARKE.

Price Two Shillings and Nine Pence.