FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1835.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th day of March 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table therein contained; and it is thereby, amongst other things, provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject nevertheless to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act; and after reciting that there are in the said possessions many places situated in rivers and in bays at which it may be necessary to establish ports for particular and limited purposes only, it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in any Order in Council made for the appointment of any free port to limit and confine such appointments respectively to any and such purposes only as shall be expressed in such Order:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act for such purposes as are after mentioned, to the port of Majaquadvie, in the province of North Brunswick; now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty doth, with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of June next all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject nevertheless to the limitations and restrictions hereinafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to the said port of Majaquadvie, as fully as if the said port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that the said port of Majaquadvie shall be a free port under the said Act for the single purpose of importing from the United States of America articles for the use and consumption of His Majesty's subjects and others inhabiting the said port, and for no other purpose:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
