THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, dividing the chapelry of Oldham into ecclesiastical districts, under the 16th section of 59 Geo. 3, c. 134:

At the Court at St. James's, the 4th of March 1835, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into district parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein; the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, in the year 1831, when the last census was taken, the parochial chapelry of Oldham, in the parish of Prestwich cum Oldham, in the county palatine of Lancaster and diocese of Chester, contained a population of 50,513 persons; that there are besides the parochial chapel of Oldham, five other chapels in the said chapelry, called respectively Saint Peter's Chapel, Saint James's Chapel, Saint Margaret's Chapel Hollinwood, Saint Paul's Chapel Royton, and Shaw Chapel Crompton; that the parochial chapel of Oldham contains accommodation for 1440 persons, including 300 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that Saint Peter's Chapel contains accommodation for 940 persons, including 100 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that Saint James's Chapel contains accommodation for 1837 persons, including 896 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that Saint Margaret's Chapel contains accommodation for 560 persons; that Saint Paul's Chapel contains accommodation for 450 persons; that Shaw Chapel contains accommodation for 800 persons, including 100 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and that divine service is regularly performed in all the said chapels:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the said chapelry of Oldham, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to each of the above-mentioned chapels, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such districts should be respectively named, the Parochial Chapel District, the Saint Peter's District, the Saint James's District, the Hollinwood District, the Royton District, and the Crompton District, with boundaries as follows, viz.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, dividing the parish of Portsea into ecclesiastical districts, under the 16th section of 9 Geo. 3, c. 134:

At the Court at St. James's, the 4th of March 1835, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, if shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain, and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if thereupon His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided; And whereas by the said Act it is further enacted "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 19th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, in the year 1831, when the census was taken, the parish of Portsea, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester, contained a population of 38,379 persons, which has since considerably increased; that there are besides the parish church, five chapels in the said parish, namely, Saint George's, Saint John's, Saint Paul's, All Saints, and the Dock-yard Chapel, two of which, namely, Saint Paul's and All Saints' Chapels, have been built by His Majesty's said Commissioners; that the parish church is capable of affording accommodation to 800 persons, including 300 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that Saint George's Chapel affords accommodation to 1000 persons, without any free seats; that Saint John's Chapel affords accommodation to 1800 persons, including 200 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that Saint Paul's Chapel affords accommodation to 1821 persons, including 993 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that All Saints Chapel affords accommodation to 1739 persons, including 1106 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and that the Dock-yard Chapel affords accommodation to 1000 persons, without any free seats; that all the said five chapels, excepting the Dock-yard Chapel, have been duly consecrated and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that particular districts should be assigned to the above-named chapels of Saint John, Saint Paul, and All Saints, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes:"

That baptisms and churchings should be performed in the said chapels, and that one moiety of the fees for the same should belong respectively to the Ministers of such chapels: and that such districts should be respectively named, Saint Paul's

District, All Saints District, and Saint John's District, with boundaries as follow:

SAINT PAUL'S DISTRICT.

The boundary to commence at South Sea Castle, on the south east, following a straight line to Marmion-place, and thence continuing in the centre of the road to the canal at Keith-bridge: on the north side the boundary extends westward down the centre of the canal to the London-road, thence crosses to the centre of Union road, terminating at the Lion Havelin-gate, the outer line of the fortifications of the towns of Portsea and Portsmouth forms the western boundary, on the south it is bounded by the sea.

The boundary to commence at the Lion Havelin-gate, to be drawn through the centre of Queen-street, and to continue along the wall of the Dock-yard, westward to the harbour, ending at the Dock-yard-gates, to comprise the Dock-yard, and to be bounded on the west and north sides by the harbour, and on the east side by the boundary of All Saints district, ending at the Lion Havelin-gate, which said districts are more particularly delineated in the plan annexed to the said representation.

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Winchester has been obtained thereto, as required by the abovementioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has put his signature and seal at the foot of the aforesaid representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan or map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed divisions be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
