AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th day of June 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute, made at the Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, it was declared and enacted, amongst other things, that "His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places, in any county in England or Wales, the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, should be holden:"

And whereas several petitions have been presented to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, praying for the holding of the assizes for the county of Wilts at Devizes alternately with Salisbury; and whereas it will be beneficial to a considerable portion of the inhabitants of the said county, if the assizes shall be so holden; and whereas it is certified that proper courts and lodgings for His Majesty's judges have been already prepared at Devizes:

It is, therefore, ordered by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, that the assizes and sessions held therewith under commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, for the county of Wilts, heretofore holden at Salisbury, shall be hereafter holden alternately at Salisbury and Devizes; that is to say, on the Summer Circuit at Devizes, and on the Spring Circuit at Salisbury.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th day of June 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute, made at the Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was declared and enacted, that "His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places, in any county in England or Wales, the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, should be holden; and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit; and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit; and further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county:" and it was also further declared and enacted, "that in case His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to order and direct, that the assizes or any such special commissions should be holden at more than one place in any one county, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, to divide any such county for the pur-
