AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th day of June 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute, made at the Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales" it was declared and enacted, that "His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places, in any county in England or Wales, the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, should be holden; and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit; and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit; and further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county:" and it was also further declared and enacted, "that in case His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to order and direct, that the assizes or any such special commissions should be holden at more than one place in any one county, it should be aforesaid, to divide any such county for the purposes of the said Act, and to make rules and regulations touching the venue, in all cases civil and criminal, then pending, or thereafter to be pending, and to be tried within any division of such county so to be made as aforesaid; and touching the liability and attendance of jurors, whether grand jurors, special jurors, or common jurors, at the assizes and sessions as aforesaid, or at any sessions under any special commissions to be holden within any such division; and touching the use of any house of correction or prison as a common gaol, and the government and keeping thereof; and touching the alterations of any commissions, writs, precepts, or other proceedings whatsoever for carrying into effect the purposes of that Act; and touching any other matters that might be requisite for carrying into effect the purposes of that Act; and all such rules and regulations should be of the like force and effect, as if the same had been made by the authority of Parliament, and should be notified in the London Gazette, or in such other manner as His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to direct."

And whereas divers petitions have been presented to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, praying for the holding of the assizes for the county palatine of Lancaster both at Liverpool and Lancaster; and whereas it is certified that proper courts and lodgings for His Majesty's judges have been already prepared at Liverpool; and whereas it will be highly beneficial to a great portion of the inhabitants of the said county palatine, if the assizes and sessions held under commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, shall be held at Liverpool as well as Lancaster:

It is therefore ordered, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, that the assizes and sessions held under commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, for the county palatine of Lancaster, heretofore holden at Lancaster, shall be hereafter holden, on the same circuit, both at Lancaster and Liverpool, in the said county palatine :

And it is further ordered, that the said county be divided, for the purpose of carrying the said Act and this Order into effect, into two divisions, which shall respectively be called the Northern Division and the Southern Division ; and that such Northern Division shall include the whole of the several hundreds of

Lonsdale,
Amounderness, Leyland, and Blackburn ;

and that such Southern Division shall include the whole of the respective hundreds of

Salford and West Derby :

And it is hereby ordered, that the house of correction at Kirkdale, in the hundred of West Derby, shall and may be used, in manner hereinafter mentioned, as a common gaol, for the purpose of carrying the said Act and this Order into effect ; and that any justice or justices of the peace, or coroner, for the said county, or any liberty therein, may commit any person duly charged with any offence triable at the assizes, to the said house of correction ; and such justice or coroner is required to specify in the commitment that the commitment is for trial at the assizes ; and, from the opening of the court at Liverpool aforesaid, the prisoners in the said house of correction, committed for trial at the assizes, shall be in the government, custody, charge, and keeping of the sheriff of the said county palatine, and also the prisoners removed by the said sheriff, pursuant to the direction hereinafter given, from the castle at Lancaster, for trial at the assizes to be held at Liverpool, shall be kept by the said sheriff in the said house of correction ; and all such prisoners so committed or removed as aforesaid, shall continue in the government, custody, charge, and keeping of the said sheriff, in the said house of correction, until the execution of their respective sentences, or until they shall be delivered from thence into the custody in which they ought, by virtue of their respective sentences, to be delivered, or be delivered by due course of law ; and it is further ordered, that the governor or keeper of the said house of correction do transmit to the said sheriff, or his deputy, a list of the prisoners committed thereto for trial, together with a statement of their respective offences, seven days, at least, before the commission day of the said assizes to be held at Liverpool, in order to enable him to prepare a proper calendar, which the said sheriff is hereby required to do :

And it is further ordered, that in all cases of commitments for trial, or recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence at the assizes, for any offence supposed to have been committed in the said northern division, such commitment shall be to the castle of Lancaster, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer, at the assizes at Lancaster, and for all offences supposed to have been committed in the said southern division the commitment shall be to the house of correction at Kirkdale aforesaid, and the recognizances shall be taken to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer, at the assizes at Liverpool, unless the justice or justices of the peace making any such commitments, or taking such recognizances, shall, under the special circumstances of the case, think fit to make such commitments for trial, or recognizances to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer, at the assizes to be holden in the division, other than that in which the offence shall be supposed to have been committed ; in which case such commitments shall be made and recognizances taken, and such trial shall take place accordingly ; and in such special case such justice or justices shall and may commit prisoners charged with any offence, supposed to have been committed in the northern division, to the said house of correction, for trial at the assizes to be holden at Liverpool ; and that all prisoners now or hereafter in custody in the castle of Lancaster for trial at the next ensuing assizes, after the date of this Order, for offences, appearing by their respective commitments, to have been committed in the said southern division (other than such prisoners, if any, as may have been committed by such justice or justices as aforesaid, in such special case as aforesaid, or as may have been removed to the said castle of Lancaster from the said house of correction, by a court or judge, as hereinafter provided for), shall be removed by the sheriff of the said county to the said house of correction, for trial at the said next assizes to be held at Liverpool, and shall be tried there ; provided always, and it is further ordered, that a list of the names of such prisoners, with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, shall, by the said sheriff, be inserted in one or more of the newspapers published in the said county (so far as the same list can be then made out), ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the commission at the assizes at Liverpool, with a notice that all persons bound by recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence against such prisoners so removed, shall appear and give evidence at the said next assizes to be held at Liverpool ; and the persons so bound shall so appear and prosecute and give evidence accordingly ; and it is further ordered, that all other prisoners now or hereafter in custody in the castle of Lancaster for trial at the assizes, shall be tried at the assizes held at Lancaster ; and all prisoners hereafter in custody for trial at the assizes in the said house of correction, shall be tried at the assizes held at Liverpool ; but such prisoners as shall be in custody in the said house of correction for trial at the sessions, shall remain therein for trial as heretofore :

And it is further ordered, that all indictments for offences supposed to have been committed in the northern division of the said county, shall be preferred to the grand jury for the said county at Lancaster ; and for offences supposed to have been committed in the southern division of the said county, shall be preferred to the grand jury for the said county at Liverpool, except in the cases of persons committed or held to bail under the special circumstances hereinbefore mentioned, or removed for trial by order of a court or judge as hereinafter provided, in which cases indictments shall be preferred to the grand jury, either at Lancaster or Liverpool, to or at whichever of the said places the said persons shall be committed, or removed, or held to bail to appear, and all issues arising upon or out of any indictment, shall be tried at whichever of the said places the said indictment shall have been preferred; and that in all other cases not herein otherwise provided for, an indictment may be preferred either at the assizes held at Lancaster, or at the assizes held at Liverpool:

And it is further ordered, that any person not in custody, against whom any true bill of indictment shall hereafter be found at Lancaster, shall, if committed, be committed to the castle of Lancaster, for trial at the assizes to be held at Lancaster, or in case such indictment shall be found at Liverpool, then such person shall be committed to the said house of correction at Kirkdale, for trial at the assizes to be held at Liverpool:

And it is further ordered, that issues now or hereafter to be joined on any indictments already found at the assizes for offences, wherever supposed to have been committed, shall be tried at the assizes held at Lancaster:

And it is further ordered, that the sheriff of the said county, or his deputy, and the clerk of the Crown for the said county palatine, or his deputy, shall attend at the assizes both at Lancaster and Liverpool; and all justices of the peace and coroners bound by law to attend at the assizes, shall attend at the said assizes held at Lancaster or Liverpool, accordingly as their usual place of residence may be, either in the said northern or southern division respectively, and those who have no residence in either division, at either place, as may be nearer to their usual place of residence, and all mayors, stewards, bailiffs of liberties, hundreds, and wapentakes in the northern division, do attend at the assizes at Lancaster, and in the southern division at the assizes at Liverpool.

And it is further ordered, that every such justice of the peace and coroner shall certify his examinations, informations, inquisitions, bailments, and recognizances in respect of offences which are, pursuant to this Order, to be tried at the assizes at Lancaster, to the clerk of the Crown, before or at the opening of the court at Lancaster; and in respect of those to be tried at the assizes at Liverpool, before or at the opening of the court at Liverpool:

And it is further ordered, that no alteration shall be necessary in the commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for the said county, and that two assize writs be issued by the clerk of the Crown for the said county palatine, in the same manner as one has heretofore issued, directed to the sheriff of the said county, one of which shall be as near as may be in the form hereunto annexed, marked (A); and another in the like form, substituting the words "Castle at Lancaster" for "Court-house, at Liverpool"; and "Northern Division" for "Southern Division"; but no deviation in such writs from the said forms, shall in any way invalidate the same; and the sheriff shall return one writ at the assizes at Lancaster, and the other at the assizes at Liverpool, with the proper schedules or pannels annexed thereto, and a schedule of the nomina ministrorum for the whole county; and it is also ordered, that writs of subpoena do issue as heretofore, with the proper alteration, and do name the assizes, either at Lancaster or Liverpool, as the case may be, where the attendance of the witnesses is to be given; and that all writs of jury process be altered in like manner, but that no alteration be necessary in any mittimus to the said county palatine, for the trial of any issue joined in any of His Majesty's courts at Westminster; and further, that the assize writs and subpoenas to be hereafter issued for the next assizes, may be tested on any day after the date of this Order, and for any subsequent assizes, may be tested in manner heretofore used and accustomed:

And it is further ordered, that the sheriff of the said county do summon a grand jury for the body of the said county, which shall attend at the assizes at Lancaster, and be sworn for the body of the whole county as heretofore; and another grand jury (which may consist in part or in all of the same, or may consist altogether of different persons), which shall attend at the assizes at Liverpool, and be sworn in like manner:

And it is further ordered, that the sheriff or other minister to whom belongs the return of the jurors for the trial of issues to be tried at the said assizes, at Lancaster or Liverpool, either from the superior courts at Westminster or in the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster, or any criminal issue, shall summon a competent number of men, named in the juror's book, to serve on juries indiscriminately on the civil and criminal side, at the said assizes at Lancaster, so as such number be not less than forty-eight, nor more than seventy-two; and also a competent number of the like persons to serve on juries, indiscriminately as aforesaid, at the said assizes at Liverpool, so as such number be not less than forty-eight nor more than seventy-two, unless a judge or the judges in the commission of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery shall direct a greater or less number; in which case such greater or less number shall be summoned; and in summoning such jurors to attend at the said assizes at Lancaster and Liverpool respectively, the said sheriff or other minister shall have regard to the convenience of the said jurors as to their place of residence:

And it is further ordered, that all persons who shall have served as jurors, at either of the said assizes, shall have the like privilege and exemption, by virtue of the Statute, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act for consolidating and amending the laws relative to jurors and juries," as if he had served at the assizes held for the whole county; and that all and every the powers and provisions of the said last-mentioned Statute touching the summoning of jurors, common and special, and the summoning of juries to serve indiscriminately on the criminal and civil side, and all other the powers and provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, shall be in force with respect to each of the said assizes to be held at Lancaster and Liverpool respectively, so far as they may be applicable thereto, in like manner as they were with respect to the assizes held at Lancaster only:

And it is further ordered, that every declaration hereafter to be filed or delivered in any action in which the issue is intended to be tried at the assizes for the county palatine of Lancaster, held at Lancaster or Liverpool respectively, shall have in the margin, besides the ordinary venue, the words ["Northern Division"], or ["Southern Division"], but no other alteration from the ordinary form of such declaration shall be necessary; and issues arising in such actions, if tried at the assizes, shall accordingly be tried at the assizes held at Lancaster and Liverpool respectively; provided nevertheless, and it is further ordered, that in all cases of civil actions in which the venue is by law local, the issues therein shall be tried at Lancaster, in cases where the cause of action shall have arisen in the northern division, and at Liverpool where the cause of action shall have arisen in the southern division, in like manner, as if the said two divisions were two separate counties; and the declarations in such actions shall have in the margin, in addition to the ordinary venue, the words ["Northern Division"], or ["Southern Division"], as the case may require, but no other alteration from the ordinary form shall be necessary: nevertheless, it shall be lawful for the court in which any such issue is joined, or any judge of the superior courts of common law at Westminster, to order such issues to be tried at the assizes held in the division in which the cause of action did not arise, if they or he shall think fit; and also to order the words in the margin to be amended in any other cases, so as to cause the trial to take place at the assizes held in another division:

And it is further ordered, that in all cases of issues already joined, or hereafter joined, in which the venue is laid in the county of Lancaster, without any words in the margin specifying the division of the county, such issues shall be tried at the assizes at Lancaster, unless the court in which such action shall have been commenced, or a judge thereof, or one of the judges of the superior courts at Westminster, shall otherwise order, by directing the proper words to be inserted in the margin, or otherwise as he shall think fit:

And it is further ordered, that in all cases of indictments removed into the Court of King's Bench at Westminster by certiorari, and in all cases of informations triable at the assizes for offences alleged to have been committed, or matters alleged to have arisen, in the said county palatine, the trial of any issue arising therein shall take place at the assizes held at Lancaster, unless the court in which such information shall be filed, or in the case of indictments, the said Court of King's Bench, or any judge of the said courts respectively, or any judge of the said Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster, shall otherwise order:

And it is further ordered, that His Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Westminster, or any judge thereof, or any judge of the superior courts at Westminster, being a commissioner of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for the said county, shall and may, if such court or judge shall think fit, order and direct the issue upon any indictment found by the grand jury at Liverpool, to be tried at Lancaster, and vice versa, and also order and direct any prisoner in custody for trial at the assizes in the said house of correction at Kirkdale to be removed to take his trial at Lancaster, and issue a writ of habeas corpus accordingly for such removal, and vice versa:

And it is further ordered, that every recognizance which shall be entered into to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer, as the case may be, at the assizes to be held at Lancaster, shall, in case such order shall have been made as last aforesaid for trial at the assizes at Liverpool, be obligatory on the parties bound by such recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or appear and answer, as the case may be, and do all other things therein mentioned, at the assizes to be held at Liverpool, in like manner as if such recognizance had been originally entered into for appearing and prosecuting, or giving evidence, or for appearing and answering or doing such other things at the assizes held at Liverpool, provided that one week's notice shall have been given, either personally or by leaving the same at the place of residence as of which the parties bound by such recognizances are therein described, to appear at the assizes to be held at Liverpool; and that in like manner recognizances for appearance at Liverpool shall be obligatory on the parties to appear at Lancaster; provided also, that it shall be lawful for the court or judge making such order for trial and removal as aforesaid, and they are hereby required to cause the party applying for such order, whether he be the prosecutor or party charged, to enter into a recognizance in such sum, with or without sureties, as such court or judge may direct, and conditioned to give such notice as aforesaid to the parties bound by such recognizances, to appear at the assizes at which the trial of such indictment shall be ordered to take place as aforesaid:

And it is further ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend to issues upon indictments, or other proceedings, removed into the Court of Pleas of the Crown at Lancaster, which shall be tried at the assizes held at Lancaster, as heretofore:

And it is further ordered and declared, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the commissioners of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, or justices of the common pleas within the said county, or the grand or petty juries sitting either at Lancaster or Liverpool, from having and exercising, at either place, such jurisdiction as now belongs to them by law over the whole county.

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit or certificate of identity required from each Officer by His Majesty's Order in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay or retired-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of July, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th of July, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 16th and 17th of July, to Lieutenants at 7s and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 20th, 21st, and 22d of July, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being brought forward on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their affidavits or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 24th and 25th of July.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their affidavits or certificates into the Wages-office at the Admiralty, Somerset-house, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their affidavits or certificates with the same dispatch for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired pay, without having previously sent in their affidavits or certificates with the same dispatch as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

- 1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, in which case they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half pay, or Retired-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form of a bill of exchange will be sent to them.
- 2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.
- 3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, at a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks.

In either of the two latter cases, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a remittance bill, or extract, will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

WHEREAS by an Act of the third and fourth William the Fourth, cap. 73, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;"—the Commissioners appointed thereunder are directed by the 45th clause to apportion the compensation fund of twenty millions of pounds sterling, granted by the said Act, into nineteen different shares, to be respectively assigned to the several British colonies or possessions hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the Bermuda Islands, the Bahama Islands, Jamaica, Honduras, the Virgin Islands, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis, Saint Christopher's, Dominica, Barbadoes, Grenada, Saint Vincent's, Tobago, Saint Lucia, Trinidad, British Guiana, the Cape of Good Hope, and Mauritius:—and in making such apportionment, the said Commissioners were to have regard to the number of slaves belonging to or settled in each of such colonies, according to the latest returns made in the Office of Registrar of Slaves in England: and also to the prices for which, on an average of eight years, ending on 31st December 1830, slaves had been sold in each of such colonies respectively: and the said Commissioners were then to proceed to ascertain, in reference to each colony, what amount of sterling money would represent the average value of a slave therein for the said period of eight years: and the total number of the slaves in each colony being multiplied into the amount of sterling money so representing such average value as aforesaid of a slave therein, the product of such multiplication should be ascertained for each such colony separately, and the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling should then be assigned and apportioned amongst the said several colonies rateably and in proportion to the product so ascertained for each respectively.
