HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit or certificate of identity required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay or retired-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of July, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th of July, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 16th and 17th of July, to Lieutenants at 7s and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 20th, 21st, and 22d of July, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being brought forward on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their affidavits or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 24th and 25th of July.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their affidavits or certificates into the Wages-office at the Admiralty, Somerset-house, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their affidavits or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their affidavits or certificates with the same dispatch as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

- 1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, in which case they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, or Retired-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form of a bill of exchange will be sent to them.
- 2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.
- 3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, at a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks.

In either of the two latter cases, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a remittance bill, or extract, will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Dock-Office, Liverpool, June 30, 1835.

(All Bearings imply by Compass.)

THE Trustees of the Liverpool Docks and Harbour hereby give notice, that, in accordance with the recent survey of Captain Denham, R. N. the following improvements in the lighting, beaconing, and buoying of the approaches to the port, will be in operation on and after the night of the 1st of August next, viz.

POINT LYNUS LIGHT.—This light, hitherto so situate as to preclude seeing it seaward, and merely shown by a single reflector upon the long shore aspects, will be advanced to the pitch of the Point, and exhibited from a castellated building (with white basement) recently erected thereon, with a powerful steady light, of the natural colour, produced by 13 argand lamps and reflectors, ranging over 211 degrees of the northern and south eastern horizon, at an elevation of 128 feet above half-tide level, rendering it visible in clear weather six to seven leagues from a ship's deck, or within one league of taking up the N. W. Light-ship off Liverpool. This light is so masked for local inshore effect, as to obscure itself when brought eastward of S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. which clears the Middle-house $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile, or northward of N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. which clears the Dallas Rocks $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile, and indicating when you ought to tack out of Red Wharf-bay.

The Formby Floating Light will, on and after the same night, show its natural colour with increased power, in lieu of the red light hitherto exhibited.

The Rock Light-house will exhibit a black ball above its balcony, whilst 12 feet water remains in the Rock Gut by day; and a steady light (from a lower chamber in the western aspect) will indicate the same by night.

A Floating Beacon will be moored in the place of the present Fairway Buoy, at the New Channel entrance, presenting a black conical figure, bearing this inscription—"To New Channell, E. $\frac{3}{4}$ S." and surmounted by a large black ball, elevated 23 feet, with a self-acting bell.

NEW CHANNEL LAND MARK.—In order to render the line of leading objects into the New Channel more available in hazy weather or accidental absence of the light-vessel, a dark bulky frame work has been erected on the high-water shore of Formby, in line of light-vessel and light house.

HOYLAKE LIGHT-HOUSES.—These buildings, in order to distinguish them more effectually from the neighbouring houses, will henceforth be painted white.

DOVE BEACONS.—Two beacons will appear on Dove-point, instead of one, affording a leading mark when brought in line upon the bearing of south by east for passing between the Dove Spit and East Hoyle, in reference to the eastern entrance of Hoylake.

The buoys will henceforth be distinguished by the initial of the channel or bank they respectively occupy, i. e. F. Formby; C. Crosby; N. New Channel; H.F. Half-tide Swatchway; H. Horse Channel; H.E. Helbre Swatch; R. Rock Charnel; L. Lake (Hoylake); B. Beggar's Patch; K. Knowl (Newcome). They will likewise be numbered in rotation, No. 1 always denoting the outer or seaward buoy of the channel its letter indicates, and the turning point or elbow of each channel will be distinguished by a perch buoy, bearing in mind that red buoys lie on the starboard hand, and black upon the larboard, when running in.

ADDITIONAL BUOYS.—Eighteen additional buoys will be laid down by the above date (making 56 in all), and thus disposed: one (red) and one (black) on each side of the New Channel, between the present buoys; one (red) on the eastern edge of the Jordan Bank, between the present buoys; one (black) on edge of Formby Bank, next northward of Crosby Buoy; two (black) on the low-water edge of Bootle Sands; one (red) on edge of "Rip-raps;" one (red) on edge of Mockbeggar Wharf, between the Dove Spit and West Wharf Buoys; one (black and white) on west end of Beggar's Patch; two (red) on east edge of East Hoyle Bank, within the present buoys; two (red and white) on the west side of Helbre Swatch; two (black) on east side of ditto; one (white with black stripe) showing the fairway of Half-tide Swatchway, one mile westward of Formby Fairway Buoy; one (red) on the edge of Hoyle, in Hoylake, abreast of the church; and a black (nun) buoy, marked K. 1, upon that part of a shoal now called Newcome Knowl, which has lately grown up so as to have but 14 feet water upon it at low-water springs; this buoy bears from the N. W. Light ship, E. $\frac{1}{2}$ S. $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and from the New Channel Floating Beacon, S. S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. 2 miles.

The whole of the foregoing will be clearly shown and explained in the forthcoming completed edition of Captain Denham's Survey, of which the Dock Trustees published an extract chart last year, under sanction of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

By order of the Liverpool Dock Committee,
H. M. Denham, Marine Surveyor to the Dock Trustees.

N. B. The navigation of the port will be further assisted by an arrangement which will enable the light-vessels to act as telegraphs, whereby ships' numbers or casualties will be more readily transferred to the town.

WHEREAS by an Act of the third and fourth William the Fourth, cap. 73, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;"—the Commissioners appointed thereunder are directed by the 45th clause to apportion the compensation fund of twenty millions of pounds sterling, granted by the said Act, into nineteen different shares, to be respectively assigned to the several British colonies or possessions thereafter mentioned, that is to say, the Bermuda Islands, the Bahama Islands, Jamaica, Honduras, the Virgin Islands, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis, Saint Christopher's, Dominica, Barbadoes, Grenada, Saint Vincent's, Tobago, Saint Lucia, Trinidad, British Guiana, the Cape of Good Hope, and Mauritius:—and in making such apportionment, the said Commissioners were to have regard to the number of slaves belonging to or settled in each of such colonies, according to the latest returns made in the Office of Registrar of Slaves in England: and also to the prices for which, on an average of eight years, ending on 31st December 1830, slaves had been sold in each of such colonies respectively: and the said Commissioners were then to proceed to ascertain, in reference to each colony, what amount of sterling money would represent the average value of a slave therein for the said period of eight years: and the total number of the slaves in each colony being multiplied into the amount of sterling money so representing such average value as aforesaid of a slave therein, the product of such multiplication should be ascertained for each such colony separately, and the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling should then be assigned and apportioned amongst the said several colonies rateably and in proportion to the product so ascertained for each respectively.
